

Prison Art Gallery

Sponsored by the Prisons Foundation with the support of the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities, an agency funded in part by the National Endowment for the Arts

1600 K Street NW, Suite 501, Washington, DC

Free Admission

Open Mon. to Fri., 9:30 am to 5:30 pm, Saturday and Sunday, 12:30 pm to 5:30 pm

Special Sale every Saturday and Sunday of all prison art prints (framed and unframed) 40% off

The mission of the Prisons Gallery of Art is to showcase the talent of men and women in prison while raising funds for these artists and for the Prisons Foundation's ongoing efforts to promote the arts and education in prison and alternatives to incarceration. We are a proud cosponsor of the Annual Victims'

Forum organized by the National Organization for Victim Assistance.

Special event at the Prison Art Gallery

L

March 25, 2007, Sunday, 2 PM

Justice Sunday with Hilary Shelton

Mr. Shelton is director of the NAACP Washington Bureau, which is the federal legislative and national public policy division of the 500,000-member advocacy nonprofit that is the oldest, largest and most widely recognized civil rights organization in the United States. Also on Justice Sunday poetry and music by ex-prisoners will be performed.

A project of the Prisons Foundation www.PrisonsFoundation.org 202-393-1511