God Bless You All!

- First Hour -

Smells of onions that have been dipped in urine and sitting in the hot sun.

I can't believe they entered my senses.
I've walked into a box with only one exit I can't control.

Why must I live like this, they act
like I have no soul.

I committed a crime, I agree I need to do the time.

Treat me like you, I'm human kind.

You won't even give me soap.

Cause you afraid I'm going to turn it into dope?

There are no secrets in here.

You can hear everything.

Even a angry man's thoughts wanting to kill the Son of man.

My first night, just became my worst nightmare.

I just been awoken by Prison Freddy.

God I understand I need to be chasten.

Oh Lord, prison is scary.

- Attitude -

All I ask is to get what I got coming.

Why must I act uncivilized.

So I can get recognized.

I don't understand what you want from me?

I already been sentenced by the Judge unfairly.

Now you want me to bow to my knees,
Then what, die violently.

That's out of the question.

I do have the answer.

Leave me alone, I'm already behind walls.

Please, let me try to live my life Peacfully.

- Climb -

Lost for words unable to Ink my Pain.

In this world blind looking for fame.
Out of Control.

I know it seems like I lost my way.
This mountain I need to climb I won't do it in one day.

Obstacles in front of me I placed.
Now this is the bed which I shall lay.

Stand tall next fall is what I say.

I know one thing.

I need God in my life to stay

- The Curse -

Triple C to E.O.P.

They say I'm mentally gifted.
not me.

I say I mentally missed it.

Psych meds in my system since I was six.

I'm tired of this fix.

They say I'm insane did the same thing twice.

Damn man I'm looking at life.

It's okay, easy come I'm numb.

I'll be down a decade.

Who would've known.

Don't remember what I did.

Read what I did.

Something doesn't add up at this time.

I was dead when they said I did this particular crime.

- Misinterpret -

Lost Souls return to darkness.

Stuck in a Rut can't win for shit.

Up walking around blind.

Talking to no one.

Wondering why no one cares.

Completely in control, but nothing to show.

Gave my life for the Gold.

Ended up in the Fuckin Cold.

Caged liked your animal.

Treats worst than your trash.

Dropped off to never be understood.

Never asked.

Stars - n - stripes.

Served for the Red - white & Blue!

These colors are for you.

Sun bright, alright.

Look into my eyes,

I'm human just like you!

- Conflict -

The screams of Horror.
The sounds of Beautiful voices.
Ears itch, so I scratched.
Then the loud screams flood back.
Relaxing with myself hoping to laugh.
Now goes the sound of pain.
I got to escape this drain.
I can't let myself cry.
I'm going to go run in the rain.
The same seed passed down.
Two shades lighter but why the frown?
Understand the mix may be light Brown.
Oh yeah, I forgot office ya flight
I was a clown.

- Blurred Vision -

I am not moving but still heading towards the End.

Life to me seems no point to win.
Struggle with insane thoughts.

Thinking how I can make huge knots.

Everyone tells me I need to take a different Route.

How when no one has seen what I've seen with these eyes.

To me its nothing but lies.

Stuck in chaos.

Wishing I pulled a madoff

Oh well I guess that's the cost
I want to give back what they all lost.

Stabbing in hell and still feel the frost.

Trying to escape my mind with no loss.
No wonder why I used Drugs from the Start.

- Up Side Down Life -

Lost in the Abyss of Confusion.

Time stops when you using.

Doctors need to retreat, their mind bruised.

No way to understand what's truly Blind.

I know these are real, I see these Pounder lines.

Souls stand still trying to get their dimes.

Medication lines so long they return to Crime.

Stuck on parole? it's a revolving door.

2 strikes, there's no room to fall.

I can't fathom this life I live,
I still want to ball.

Need to leave this shit alone, what's going on?

I'm screaming, I Can't GET IT Right!
... That's Life.

- That Place -

I'm Standing Alone in this Cell looking at the walls.

Hear screams of Horror coming from down
the Hall.

Talking to shadows as getting answers from all.

I must like living in hell, or eating these cold
ramen Soups in this cell.

I can't get it right on my time.

I know what I'm gonna do,
Slice his throat, watch the blood
Splatter on the walls like a famous Warhol.

Times up, Rhymes up.

I need to clean this mess up.

See what I'm saying, I'm all Screwed up.

Locked up and everything seems the same.

Every face lost without hope.

Watched friends become friends.

They've gone crazy for that Dope.

Excess made along the way.

Just trying to survive one more day.

No sense of what's important to me because of that Cloudy haze.

Running around life's maze trying to catch some hopeful praise.

No luck at this time, my mind reminded of those awful nights.

Riddled with Gunfire, no need to whine.

I need to make home alive.

Touched by the Glory of God.

That's where I'm at this particular time.

Finding comfort with this pen of mine.

Needed to release those Bi-polar lines.

Found a way to conquer my own mind.

Struggle with my own soul.

Seems like I can't move forward cause of these prison binds.

On my knees praying to God, this is no lie.

Asking him if I can hopefully make someone happy
before I die.

- Challenge -

I believe I conquered my disability.
No need for medication in this crazy facility.

My mind numbness no more.

I write down my deepest thoughts like before.

I refuse to head to that Dark Place of Horror.

Finished with that cloudy haze, I'm moving forward.

Yes a decade plus one is what the judge first ordered.

Just added a kick stand in house.
What the Fuck!

This life seems like it's going to make me a martyr.

No more sitting on the bench of life.

Getting up, stretching and I'm going to make it right.

- Never Mind -

Mind numbness isn't a joke.

You'll act like I chocked.

Mentally handed back.

That's one reason I got handed a rack.

Stuck in the nightmare of my own mind.

Wishing I could release these pain of mine.

One way to cope is snort these white lines

Looking upward hoping I can make that climb.

Never give up! That the motto I live by.

-Saul-

Dusty Artist cries at night.

Dusty Artist searches for some delight.

Dusty Artist almost lost his sight.

Dusty Artist does love life.

Dusty Artist prays for a lovely wife.

One thing about the Dusty Artist,
he doesn't know Christ.

- up close -

Different people enter my life, I push away.

Don't understand the reason, I wish they would stay.

Look above for the answer.

I remember I don't see him the same.

Walking in blind fate, instructed but ended in the rain.

Rust filled body moving around in pain.

This struggle seems neverending.

I wish I could repeat this story,
From the beginning and show how much you meant to me.

-Trapped-

The Sun Rises and Sets, I never see it.

Stuck in this box I gotta believe it.

There is no fairy tale ending in this life.

Behind these walls is a different society we live.

When I go outside I can't hardly breath.

Looking above for the Lord's hand, I need him.

Read between these lines, I'm trapped.

- Struggle -

Self destruction I'm completely misunderstood.

Moving silently as I'm still being heard.

Self sabotage to me that's absurd.
My soul longs for me to return.

No use of trying it seems I'm destined to lose.

Covered with dust with those life pieces,
I need to find out what's the clue.

No need of a road map for this life.

They kept saying I need Christ.

Treat others as you want to be treated right?

Then why do they have slavery in sight.
My grandfather broke his back to have rights.

I threw it all away for a useless fight.

Breaking the law because I can't cope with what I see in light.

Everything would be in vain if I break down tonight.

No need to surrender, I'm getting back up and prove to all that I can make it through life's blunders

- Creek -

Entered a new world, lost thoughts floating around like never before.

Confused with laughter, yelling with clarity.

Does it matter where I come from?

It's all the same parity.

4 lines, not lines

They want me to take psych meds.

I think that would be a tragedy.

Doing good all alone.

Proud of myself, sober and clean.

Dancing with Jay, I know I need someone on my team.

Adam had Eve, who's left for me.

It doesn't matter, I look in the mirror and that satisfies me.

God has a plan, even for the smallest trill.

Even though I'm in this cell, my mind is completely free.

It feels good to go to bed at night and actually breathe.

- Turned Around -

I'm tired of being fucked with
by the police.

So instead of dafing, I'm going to refine my state of mind and fallin, at Ease.

If you want to have a positive outcome
from a negative encounter.

Don't call Sarcy it's not the x-files.

Just clean up your mess and wipe the counter
so you don't have flies on your collar.

It's taken alot to get to this place.

React and destroy, then take mace in the face.

That's what would have happen before
I changed the race.

There are alot of people I need to thank
But first, their is someone I need to Congratulate.

It starts with me, then everyone else can take the cake.

It's taken alot for me to learn from my mistakes.

- New Look -

Woke up in a wonderful bliss.

Sun shining through my window, God can't miss.

Been putting the pieces back to my puzzle, what a wonderful kiss.

I'm on Top of the world.

Nothing can bring me down.

Holding my head up high like I'm holding the crown.

Put one foot in front another that I have
I make around.

Beacon to heaven I know I have been found.

Using my anger and frustration for positive foundation.

It took a lot of meditation to get this sensation.

Looking in the mirror wondering if they see the same creation.

Being a good person is a better way to be.

-Your Noise-

The usually make everyone happy
when I come around.

I can't stand to be ignored.

Love it when I'm loud.

There are so many people that Dance
when I show up.

I always feel like a rockstar or even Beethoven sometimes.

The sensation you feel you can't believe.

I love to see couples embrace, its a beautiful thing.

I even make you cry, I love that too.

I understand I have to leave at some point.

We will never, we will just get louder.

I don't know about you, I love to be your music.

- In cognito -

Sometimes I see you, you come as go.

It seems like you can't see me, why
I don't know.

You come around at certain times.

You always change positions on your stance.

You are full of Energy.

I never see anyone else.

I wonder why you never see my face?

Or why its always dark?

I guess that's the price to be your shadow.
