To my moms who took time to have me.
my projects Chester, P.A. My baby mom Kelly who give me my first born. To my son trying to find his way in this world. My Cuz-Delilah the backbone to my self-centered family. To my uncles: 1)errick, Alan and 1)wayne. Each-one, taught me how to be a player, the streets and how to get money. To my Aunt manreen who taught me tough love.
My sister yvonne who told me always eat with your mouth close. To my pop who taught me how to dodge responsibilities. My Aunt Alberta who always sent a letter out of the blue. My nigga Ish who is like a little bro to me. ~~for my life~~

To my ex-Florence who taught me love and life.

When I was born the doctor told my mother that an estimated 32 percent of black males will enter prison during their life time. With no father figure. Chances are he will suffer from drug addiction, alcoholism and mental illness. The doctor figured we shouldn't waste anytime and gave my mother a thoughtful gift. Baby Prison Clothes. Some already roll up weed and ^{have} a baby bottle that looks like a 40 ounce. My mother ^{came} from a poor ^{uneducated} back ground her self. ^{shrugged} her shoulders, disregarding the doctors ~~one~~ speech and told him all I can do is teach ~~one~~ him how to survive.

I was an asset ~~to~~^{to} my mother at 2 yrs old. I had credit and the phone bill was in my name. I didn't have any friends at 2 yrs old. But I wanted to call the doctor and tell him "I am already establishing bad credit." He would be proud. At the age of 9 I asked my mother, do we live in the ghetto?

Her ^{response} was "the ghetto is a state of mind which poor people use as an excuse to act out their ignorance." My mother was a philosophical woman, only observing the morals and ethics of things. I learned a lot from my mom. One of the many things is how to make more with the little you had.

don't own a A.T.F Jacket. Only poor people have this special ability. If you would like to have this special ability go live in a ghetto near you.

Like most black kids I ~~grew~~ up in a Christian home. Even though the only time I've seen Jesus is when my mom pulled her belt out. If it wasn't nailed down I got beat with it. When ever my mother needed a ~~buckle~~ ^{buckle} from ~~whipping~~ ^{whipping} my ass. She would take me to my grandmothers house.

My grand-parents ~~were~~ ^{Were} pastors (R.I.P) and even had their own little church.

My life growing up with my family ~~was~~ ~~was~~ a roller coaster ride. All my relatives are crazy. I dont have to look far to figure out why I act the way I do. We can start with my father whom I've never met. So responsibility wasnt his strong point. Because of him I feel like I have no obligation. I shit in your toilet, ~~and~~ I dont flush-I blame your wife. I pass gas in a room I blame the person next to me.
Dont blame me, blame my pop. I had to learn late in life that for every bad ~~one~~ action I did or said came with consequences.
You can blame my pop for this to, if you can find him.

Next on my list is my uncles - my mom's brother - whom I think is not related. Uncle (1) thinks he's ~~is~~ a player. God's gift to women, but the only packages he opens is Child Support letters. Uncle (2), a thug criminal ~~that~~, who can't stay out of trouble. Got caught so many times he turns himself in if he thinks about doing something wrong. Now, uncle (3) is a mix of both, but ~~with~~ a little more ^{of a} selfish attitude. He made so many promises that ^{his} ~~he~~ promises ~~forget~~ they made a promise. Now, my aunt is a no nonsense tough love type of woman. There is a lecture behind anything she does for you. You will forget what you asked for ~~and~~ by the time she finish her lecture,

You Should, ~~there~~^{theres} is only 10 people in the Church. A Small Church in Chester P.A next to a Chinese Store. Before there was a church ~~there~~^{was} was bible Study in my ~~their~~^{their} ~~basement~~ basement. Every Saturday morning was bible Study in the basement.

Now, when you leave kids alone from the ages of 12 to 14. ~~they~~^{they're} are going to find other ways to stay ~~occupied~~^{alone}. One game we played^{was} everytime we were ~~alone~~ was Catch a girl - get a girl. You catch a girl

Having Sex with white girls. Its like a drug addiction. You ~~break~~^{breaky} out in cold Sweats and start Scratching your ass for no reason at all. With me, its not just any white girl. But the ones with a stink attitude, that smoke weed and have a big ass! To me that's like spotting a wild animal. A rare creature. You have to protect it at all cost. Dr. King would have been proud.

I can hear him now. "wax that ass, wax that ass." But, im ~~saying~~^{writing} myself using Japanese women as methadone. And ~~Ping~~^{Ping}-pong Pussy is pretty good.

Shes pregnat is the two words I remember that I told my mother and oh, did I mention Shes white, So, you dont have to worry about her using your comb.

Soon to be Grandmom set ready for some malatto kids. Call me Thomas Jefferson.

I broke one of my number one rules with her.

I didnt pull out. I was the master of pulling out. I ~~had~~ ^{had} black belt in pulling out.

The only thing I ever got pregnant ^{before her} ~~her~~ wife bed sheets and Floors.

Now back to your programs

The first time I felt in love my heart got broke.
I told my self that Shit will never happen again. Let me explain something. Men have two women in their life. Their wife and their mistress. Sad, but true. You want to be the main woman in his life? Do that trick you use to do when you first met. Every man has met a woman that knows how to do a trick.
Women use the "trick a dick" on men they want to keep in their life. Women always say "I do that thing you like." That's trickadick.

Men also do a trick for women when they first meet. Its called "give them money".

Some of ~~us~~^{us} are forced into a relationship because of a baby. It was unexpected.

She didnt see it coming. Neither did he, probably because it was in her. So nobody really got a good look at it, but her ~~vagina~~ Vagina. Take baby steps, and practice the pull out technique in everyday life. Handicap parking spots and Crake houses.

If I got into a car accident I didn't stick around and see what happen.

I grab my weed, my cell-phone and my skates and pretend I was in a A.I.L movie.

The only guaranteed compensation your going to get from me is a sincere "are you ok". I got into a car accident with some one who was on the same time I was on (Fating). I grabbed my nick and walk over to their car.

Mom! Come on! Nissa you know I don't got no money. Stop ^{grabbin'} ~~stop~~ your nick.

One of my bizarre fears is getting knocked out as an old guy. Rolling on the ground like a egg- arms extended, mouth open medication falling out of my pocket.

I smell like Ben-gay. Bones popping and cracking. People think im shooting ~~it~~ or I'm made out of wood. Growing old is a process of life. And I get that. But im damn sure ^{I'm} ~~it~~ not going to be the old fat guy sitting on the couch watching old T.V. Shows, playing with my balls like Chinese checkers. Hell no!

On February 1, 2017. At James T. Vaughn Correctional Center. Inmates took over C-building. Their demands were Education, rehabilitation and not to be treated like animals. When it was over.

One officer died and another was assaulted. The Governor assigned two retired Judges to do a investigation.

- After word -

My X-mas wish list Top 5

1. I wish my mother had a abortion.
2. I wish I was killed in a car accident.
3. I wish I was hit by a stray bullet.
4. I wish I was struck by lightning.
5. I wish I die in my sleep.

Max

Now, what kind of demand is that? You holding people hostage and your request is: education, rehabilitation and not to be treated like animals. You don't want a cell-phone, food, women or maybe a helicopter. But you want formal schooling, you want to bring or restore to a state of health-Constructive activity. And not be treated like any four-footed creature! So, you can go back into society and become a model citizen and not come back to jail...

The end 25

I'm going to grow old and stay active. ^{MAYBE} take up a hobby as a peeing tom. keep my brain stimulated by Sniffing Coke. ~~I'll~~ Shave every gray hair on my body and make a snowman. I was a grown man the day I was born. My first words was Show me the tits im ^{thirsty}. Now its Show me the money im broke. I am going to find an old retired woman to take care of my life.

I'm a black man, ex-con and muslim. One of these got to go. I am too damn black. That's black panther black. That's F.B.I watch a nissa too black. Because of my back ground I have to play it Cautious. Anytime the Cops pull me over; I am already hand-cuffed and ~~in~~ in the back seat. License and registration is in the glove department. Anytime you do something wrong your Conviction/Felony is always broad-casted like the news. Breaking news, ex-con Mike Allen lift the toilet seat up. Causing his girlfriend to fall him in the toilet. She might do a exclusive and tell the world you forgot, "because he is a felon."

My first car was a ^{red} Honda-CR-X Color
red. ~~for~~ out five (^{including me}) of my niggas will squeeze in this little ass car. And we always made room for the bitches. You can't complain about how small the car is when you got pussy in your face. Its been many nights I had to drive with my chin. You would have sworn we were contortionists. We would step-out of a smoke filled car looking like the walking dead.
And start dancing like a michael jackson video.
I had my license, no insurance and a license
plate made out of card-board.

So, women, do that thing you use to do when you first met. Make your ass clap! I'm black a man in America. I should get a standing ^{ovation} when I come home. Matter fact, you should be in the drive way twerking wif
a drink in one hand and stake potatoes in the other. Every man in my neighborhood is waiting for me to get home, looking out their window. Checking their watch. "He Should be coming around the corner any min - their
he go!"

I had a dream I was a famous rapper. Nissas wanted to be just like me.
Women throw their panties at me. I was on every magazine. Cars, Jewelry and it was all rented. I had a number one song called "Flipper was my favorite dolphin."
I had gold teeth. And my grills read not real gold. I wrote my best rhymes when I had diarrhea. I rapped like the rappers today - gurgling water. I stayed high.
Every time I performed I ~~wore~~^{that's} a diaper —
~~I~~ bullet proof. I never walked I rode a pony.
Then I woke up.

My baby mother ~~is~~^{is} my type. She ~~got~~^{had} a bad attitude and ^{would} give headaches - headaches. She is a five-foot nothing and She can fit inside of a boot. She talks shit like ~~I~~ was her job to do so.

Some times ~~I~~ forget shes white because she says "nigga" more than I do. I am always going to have love for her. Because shes my little nigga.

Like most teenagers growing up I was taught about sex watching the Nature Channel.

My mother never gave me "the talk."

My pop never had time to give me the talk.

He was to busy doing the walk. Every chance I got I was watching porn. I jerked off so much my ^{Penis} ~~butt~~ needed ChapStick.

Whatever I learned on porn, I did on women.

The only thing I did not do is eat ass.

I dont even eat pork what I look like eating butt?

My mother moved around a lot. Like we were on tour. Chester PA, Media, Delaware, Morton, PA and back to Delaware. Once our lease was up ~~we~~ we were gone. Each state I lived in I learned something new and each one was no discipline for the law. I stole cars with a screwdriver. I kept a screwdriver in my back pocket like a key. I stole fire trucks just to climb the ladders. But, there is one thing I did like to do besides breaking the law.

At the end of the day I love my fam unconditionally. If it wasn't for them I wouldn't have mental health issues. You have to understand my position growing up with a family in the ghetto. I get my sense of humor from my family. If I lose that I'll lose my sanity. Jokes at the dinner table-like when a family member shouts you are adopted across the table made me feel, this is what life is all about.

If you listen closely you can hear me
playing the drums in my grand parents Church.
Can you hear it?

Growing up.

Where [REDACTED] most of my family showed up. After a weekend of dancing with the devil. Some even ^{were} falling asleep while the sermon was being held.

Some stood and testified. Men and women both, one guy stood up and said, "I would like God to bless me with a nice woman and not one from the choir because she ^{gave} me [REDACTED] CRABS [REDACTED]. One thing you need to know about Black churches is they love to eat and gossip. You can be the topic of the day and [REDACTED] ^{not} even know it until you leave the church and everyone is looking at you. ☺ ☺

You know what I mean. When there is only a little bit of milk in the carton.. add water. Growing up poor you gain a special ability. I call this special ability "ghetto Senses." Its kind of like Spider man when he ~~has~~ his Spidy Senses ^{tingle}. With ghetto Senses your awareness goes up ^{by} 10 ~~times~~. When your ghetto Senses start tingling you can feel something is about to go down. Like 20 niggas come into the club with no women. Shit is about to go down. ~~and~~ ^{That} loud knock at the door that comes at 5 or 6 in the morning. Grand-mom

When I was born.

You may be keeping accounts,
and presently you shall walk
out of the door that for so long has seemed to you the barrier of your ideals, and shall find yourself before an audience
the pen still behind your ear,
the ink stains on fingers—
and then and there shall pour out the torrent of your inspiration—
