Meanwhile, I'm still trapped in a double-bunk cube, being retaliated against for daring to write up CO Staley.

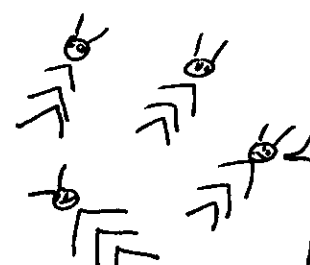

Do you really think that we'd be so stupid as to document our retaliation?

My latest grievance actually got filed. The Superintendent assigned the obfuscation to a sergeant. She asked me a really stupid question. By assigning the grievance to her in the first place, he showed that he doesn't care about the law. How can she investigate her superiors? IT'S all documented. Seriously, is there anything so stupid that people won't do and document it?

Roaches

Hey, bosses! We investigated you and didn't find anything! You're welcome!

I got a letter from the American Friends Service Committee. IT had four stamps on it, and I can see the outline of what used to be in it, but I got just one sheet of paper. Where's the rest of it? A grievance is useless.

So, you're saying that we stole something out of your last package? Nope, didn't happen! One more word and we'll plant a weapon in your cube.

Need I continue to describe the never-ending stupidity of Earth? How about this: Where's my writing paper? New York State budgets money for it, DOCCS buys it, 10 sheets per person per week. Here at Greene, someone has been PAPER 4 U stealing ALL of it for at least five years. Do the math. $$$$

Want more? How about Valerie Friedlander, a criminal in the Attorney General's office? She committed a Federal crime. Look!

At trial, a guy named Laspisa said that he told me that he wasn't going to read me my rights, the other officer did, he wasn't going to. That's a threat!

Uhoh!

I'm not gonna read you your Miranda rights!

Me, feeling threatened

If he isn't going to read them, he definitely isn't going to respect them, either.

Crime Central

Corrupt crime State

This is New York State, where the truth and the law mean absolutely NOTHING!

Want more? Huh? Is

That not enough already??

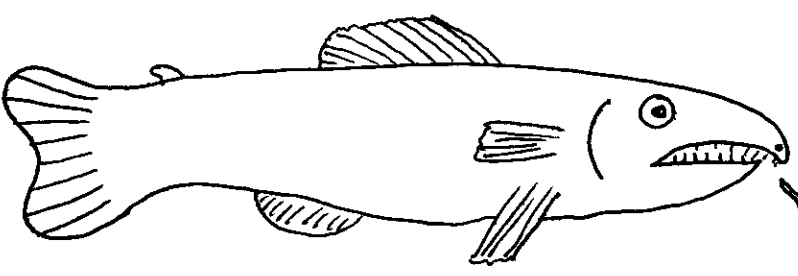

But wait! Here's more!
That's right, MORE!

Going through my Trial transcripts, I found something long forgotten: Detective
Salmon Testifying that he KNEW that

I was innocent. But wait! It he KNEW that I didn't murder
Germaine, why did he help to set me up???

Salmon never told me that he was a cop! He said that he was just a polygraph operator, not a cop. Look at how he ~~refers to~~ the "State Police" as someone else.

A. (CONT) He told me that he did not murder her.

He told me that he did not know who did murder her.

He told me that the last time he saw her was as I described to you before, at the campsite at around 10 AM, that she was OK physically. She may have been a little upset, but she was fine physically, and he told me that he had no idea where she was then, and there, at that particular moment during the test, that he had no idea where she might be at all.

In further discussion with him, I told him that that was not what the State Police believed to be the truth at all, that what they believed to be the truth was quite contrary to that.

We then, at that time, to my satisfaction, had a meeting of the minds, so that I understood what he said was the truth, and I imparted to him in simple terms as I am speaking here today what the concern, what the posture of the State Police was with respect to that, that having been done, I then proceeded to the next step of establishing a set of control questions.

The first set of control questions that I will speak of now involved a person who we fully believe could not be involved in the particular situation, in

He articulated to me, and I will ask you that question as question number one, and I want you to answer that truthfully with a no, and he said that he would do that, and I read to him, do you live in Canada, and he responded, no.

The next question was, with another person, did you plan to murder Germaine Ross, and he responded, no, and I want to specify here and now that that is a control question, absolutely, that is one of the control questions. How could he know that?

The next question I asked him was, do you know for sure exactly who murdered Germaine, and he responded, no. TRUTH!

The next question was, did you murder Germaine. He responded, no. TRUTH!

The next question, which is a control question, is besides what you saw me write down, do you now recall hurting even one other person, that is a control question.

The next question was, right now, can you take me to Germaine. He answered, no.

The next question was, with somebody, did you hurt

With who?

4 A. (CONT) Germaine. That is a control question. ↑

5 The next question is, the last time you saw Ger-
6 maine was she OK, and the next question was, besides
7 what you saw me write down, can you now remember telling
8 any other lies, that is a control question.

9 The last question, again, is, do you live in 10 Canada, and he answered, no.

11 Q. Now, as you went over these questions with him, did
12 you identify to him which ones were control questions?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Will you explain for me in a little more detail what 15 you are referring to as a control question and what 16 its relationship and significance to the administration
17 of the exam is?

18 A. Certainly, it is necessary to establish and use con-
19 trol questions in a certain manner to enable the poly-
20 graph examiner at the end of the test to look at the 21 charts and discern from the charts whether or not the 22 person is truthful or lying.

23 So, I could not tell him, I can't tell anybody
24 as I am testing that this is a control question, that 25 would defeat the purpose of it.

26 Q. But it is a question concerning which you know the 27 truthfulness of the answer?

Q. All right, please continue, if you would, with your conversations and interview with Robert Richter.

A. The time was about ten-fifteen PM at night, and I scrutinized the polygraph charts, and with respect to the polygraph charts, I came to a conclusion that the test with respect to the charts in my mind was indefinite.

I could not discern from looking at those charts whether or not this man was telling me the truth about those crime questions that I spoke to you.

However, based upon my experience of giving polygraph tests approximately twelve years, based upon my experience of speaking with people as a detective since 1978, and upon my experience as a police officer for 27 years, I came to an opinion that that man was lying as to the questions that I asked him.

I told him that.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY: Your Honor ---

Q. What do you recall ---

DEFENSE ATTORNEY: Your Honor, I will just, firstly, object to that conclusion, I told him that as opposed to the witness stating that he said to the Defendant.

THE WITNESS: I will be glad to.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY: Fine.

THE WITNESS: I said ---

DISTRICT ATTORNEY: Let me continue.

Q. After you formed that conclusion, what did you say to Robert Richter?

A. I said to him that I know you are lying about this.

I took it step by step.

I said to him in particular, I know that you are lying to me about, and I articulated two questions to him.

One of them was, right now, can you take me to Germaine, and the other one was, the last time that you saw Germaine, was she OK, that is what I said to him.

In my mind, I fully believed ---

DEFENSE ATTORNEY: Objection to what he had in his mind, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I will sustain the objection.

Q. All right, that is OK.

Tell us what you said to him and what you are explaining to him about what you said to him and what he said to you?

A. I took the polygraph chart off and I brought it over to Robert Richter and I asked him if he would put his initials or name on the chart so that it would not be

So, he "knew" that I was lying about those two things, but not about the FACT that I did not kill her!

4 A. That is one of the forms, yes.

5 Q. And that is People's Exhibit 87, and now, on top of 6 that form there is a notation, [I, Robert J. Richter
7 wish to see an attorney. I have been denied this
8 right, RJR,] does that appear on your form?

9 A. Yes, it does.

10 Q. Did you write that?

11 A. I did not.

12 Q. Did you see anyone write this?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Was there ever anybody that had access to this paper-
15 work before you recovered it that morning, the 29th,
16 other than you, Investigator Swansen, Investigator La-
17 spisa and Robert Richter?

18 A. Nobody else.

19 Q. And isn't it a fact that Robert Richter had to write
20 this on your form because you continually denied him
21 the right to an attorney?

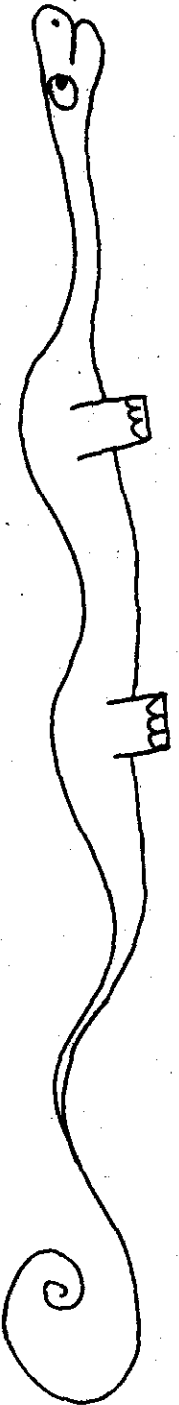

22 A. No, that is not a fact at all.

23 Q. I want to go back for a moment, again, Investigator, to 24 People's Exhibit 83 which we have referred to as the 25 Polygraph Examination Agreement, OK?

I'm drawing your attention back to that.

Now, again, that is a form that you, I will

It's kind of obvious that he asked for a lawyer!

4 Q. (CONT)withdraw that.

5 That is the form that Robert Richter did not sign
6 at the end of the polygraph, is that correct?

7 A. That is true.

8 Q. And this is an official State Police form that requires 9 the signature of the person who took the test once the 10 test is over, does it not?

11 DISTRICT ATTORNEY: Objection as to form.

12 DEFENSE ATTORNEY: I will withdraw the question.

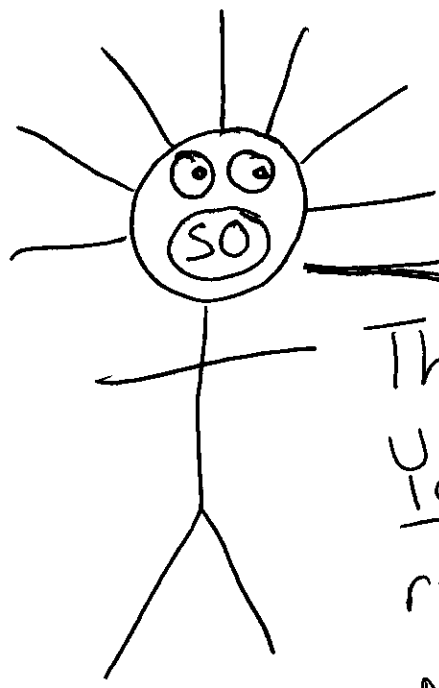

13 Q. On the back of that, on the back of your form, Investi-
14 gator, I want to refer to an area at the very bottom of 15 the form where it indicates, [I, Robert J. Richter wish
16 to speak to an attorney. I have been denied this right
17 for one hour and have been assaulted by the polygraph
18 expert, RJR, did you write that?

19 A. I did not. Where did that come from?

20 Q. Did anyone that evening of the 28th and the morning of 21 the 29th have access to this paper other than you,
22 Investigator Laspisa, Investigator Swansen or Robert
23 Richter?

24 A. Nobody else.

25 Q. Isn't it a fact that Robert Richter had to write this on this form because you wouldn't let him call an attorney?

So why did that asshole jury convict me?

This is New York State, remember? Neither the law nor the evidence mean anything here.

Me, asking

Spacefillosaurus

Well, that's enough about my case for now. I don't, REALLY don't like to write about it. Even though Germaine died more than 22 years ago, I still think about her every single day, and it still hurts. What could I have done differently? I will never know.
