"QUIET * PAINS"

They set hidden deep, the diseases that kill...
weakening your defenses with painful regrets, always ill.
QUIET pains that you not dare openly share... inner demons holding you hostage in dreadful scare.

You struggle to somehow give visible pain signs...
seizing all your abilities as you quietly whine.
Seeking memories eye for pastimes to temporarily escape...
finally submitting to pains as you silently ache.

Desiring rest within slumber while binded in fears...
tearing away your emotions, quietly drying up tears.
Vicious and painful dreams, violently filled with screams...
pains you've caused long ago, reavening in teams.

Subdued without doubt, finding no helpful outlet left...
robbing you of comfort... crime of peaceful theft.
Fight as you may... cry as you might...
remember, you'll yearn for any allowed sleep tonight.

" MENTALLY * I * CRY! "

In my mind I cry evening through night... restraining my emotions, I cry accusingly to say.
My cries are for mother out of sight...
within my prayers I cry an awful way.

I often cry my sanity wasn't so aloft...
where is my comforter in this crying stress.
As I'm psychologically shifted to be kept tossed... submitting to this trauma, I'll never obtain rest.

My GOD's word, believe; trust in His son... can't be lukewarm the BIBLE has truly told.
Having faith in GOD, all will be done... living as Christ, must be hot not cold.

Mom's missing from me in this distant land...
still I'll forever cry for HER sightful confirmation.
This feeling of unsure abandonment I can't stand...
grounded in Christ, I'll secure my mental salvation.

" IN * WORDS * OF * CONCERN "

Feeling exempt of His promise to always protect... fearing their intense, threatening plan within my head.
 My safety concerns go with cruel, intelligent neglect...
 lead by lawless deceit while drugged in bed.

Factual truths aren't heedful by corruption that pursue...
 prayerful of my fate to survive this lie,
 Words of innocence heard, but still won't do...
 by GOD's delivering hands, I shall not die.

No one's sincerely supportive as their cages rattle...
 concerning words seeded one of faith's ugliest test.
 I'm grieved and weary of this troubled battle...
 praying hopeful words for release from liars nest.

Weeping and crying from concerns, the restless miles...
 vowing I'll never submit to this sinful act.
 O LORD, I'm prayerful I'll conquer the trials... surrendering my concerns to you in victory... FACT!!

A * REAL * WOMAN "

Ms. REAL, high spirited, gifted with contagious smile...
speaking joyful jokes, you're laughing; acting like child.
Still she's respected in seriousness, in every way...
always willing to assist you, cheerfully she'll obey.

She moves about with grace all the time...
men everywhere swearing, I wish she were mine.
Her appearance proves of certain class and taste...
voicing her wants, needs; you'll respond with haste.

As you contemplate the right and responsive line...
you take the precautions hoping it's justly benign.
Entering her domain boldly to plead your will...
careful of intrusive moves, using a persuasive appeal.

Mind you, she'll not shift; shake nor mislead...
get caught in disrespect, you've wasted your need.
All in all, this woman, collective; surely cool...
gives the necessities she's able, according to rule.

"MY LOVE... for you, "MY VALENTINE'S DEDICATION!"

Ribbons of love shall always tie our hearts together...
withstanding the hearsay and rays of jealous, envious weather.
our deepest desires explored in blessed matrimony of insanity...
before the presence of our LORD, protected against vanity.

I'll guard your honor with a sacred, tested trust...
giving you this solemn promise of love... never lust.
Keep these words close to heart through lonely nights...
for they are bonded, honestly my love... it's alright.

Time spent in wonderment of your evident... declared strength... fills me thoroughly with assurance, securing me with content.
my entire being is fulfilled with woman... undoubtably you...
I'm complete as man... "You and I," lovingly true.

It's my pleasurable duty to provide for loves sake...
never giving in to temptation, committed not to forsake.
come to me... accept my sincere love, passionately real...
together our journey will forever be sexy with appeal.

" RUNAWAY * JUDGEMENT! "

She professed yes, I craved her, my sincere desire...
denied at the appointed time... burned me like fire.
Her glow is lovingly seductive, it instantly mesmerizes me...
whispering promising words in ear, together, we'll always be.

Gazing upon her curviness, wanting her graceful, womanly lips...
pleasingly, the petite figure she possess, gives satisfying hips.
Yearning to mold with her emotionally, to truly belong...
realizing afterwards in honesty, I should've left her alone.

Leaving it to reality, because now she worldly thrives...
secretly judging of self wisdom, rejected from their lives.
No one knows my circumstances in innocence or guilt...
accordingly judged as guilty still, that's how societies built.

I hope to find refuge from wrongful, judgemental stress...
practicing in self-criticism through mirror, inwardly judgement test.
unaccepted within any stereotyped group, my just due adjustment...
For convictions with political gain, guilty by runaway judgement.

"STATE * OF * MIND"

In being true to ourselves, remember that no one is more capable of being one's self as self! No one will be as good to one's self as we can be!!

However, "Anyone" is prone to attempting to be someone or something they're not.

Accepting a comfortable life style in this "STATE * OF * MIND" environment will allow a long term of troublous times that he/she will also find it very difficult to be their true selves for socializing honestly in life.

This is a different realm of socialism as well as a protected social society of trust within itself.

For most, yes!; simply it's a inside life of change and exchange war stories, drug crimes gone bad, extreme exaggerations being what you want to be and just out right lies.

Why? In this: there's pain, hate, jealousy outraged individuals, laughter, freedom, forgiveness as well as peace of mind at the end of some of the roads within associations and relationships.

Both good and bad!! Personally, I've found in several particular social relations, love was still found at the intersections of separation. Anything's possible when effort is put to use!

Also in truth! Failure to change at the opportune time due to social and/or inner conflict of self, maybe you'll need to take flight before someone considers and acts to make change of you.

"Personal opinion of view of life as it is, has taken a psychological, diverse, social twist to condemn itself by the very inhabitants that have been given the gracious gift to create and recreate. Behold and restore it to a certain degree to survive for an extended period of time ... "SELF!"

Depressingly as it may be, some have chosen to exterminate itself by means of itself rather than to bond as a whole decisive entity "HUMAN" solution to address the deepest issues of "FEAR" for it's destination for termination to survive as a people.

What is this, what am I speaking on? "OPEN YOUR MINDS EYE!!" in order to see and mentally contemplate the (Undoubtable FACT) of the "FREE SOCIETY" is at this very moment voluntarily participating in a form of genocide, self-destruction from within itself as well as from each corner of the "EARTH!"

Turn on the very entertainment device that builds us up on hope with dreams, then tears us down mentally, spiritually if possible from afar and within. Bonds us together with many, then divides us socially, emotionally and racially for the greatest fall of our lives.

That desirable, but yet; undeniable "BOTTOMLESS PIT" of LIFE!!

Yours and MINE only! "THE NEWS STATION!"

The "EARTH" itself has begun to redefine, regenerate, reform as well as renew itself although the unfearing, self-destructable hands that inhabit our land will not adhere to her warning signs.

"PLEASE!" Look not only at her, for man, woman and sometimes even an older child has also chosen to destroy and self-destruct!

~~xxxx~~ NOTE: One last fact of experienced pain to share on being yourself or who you want to be... "Be very attentive of the people you make claims to as to what you are and who, in "REALITY" to these and perhaps even more: you'll always be who and what they feel in their hearts and minds until they feel the need to think otherwise.

"This is why it's also given as wise advice: You can't tell everyone everything and most genuinely, nothing at all due solely this day and time!!"

This is sincerely shared.

"PERSONALLY AND STRAIGHT UP!"

This seasoning of one's mind has been shared by a mindful and thoughtful associate with food for one's soul... one's inner soul of one's self to find peace as well as over, under and within understanding on a higher level.

Come... get mindful, thoughtful with me;

"My heart is congested, my mind is full and my soul is well seasoned!"

"I'd like countless moments of silence... I need silence to sort out my thoughts, put my emotions aside and relax."

I'm tired, not just of prison... but of being under, within a system; a system controlled to maintain a foothold on your neck.

Is there anywhere on "EARTH" unlike this... there's no life that I know of outside the realm of the "PLANET EARTH" that I personally know of.

I don't prescribe to any "RELIGION" that tells me I must die to reach such a place. With that being said, I can imagine it brings many people comfort; the ones whom prescribe to that... must be nice; but "STRAIGHT UP," I'm no longer ignorant!!

Along with "Knowledge," comes pain, which brings me to my current change of status that has occurred... which deems what has passed emotions; emotions come and go.

Come... get mindful, thoughtful with me;

"My heart is no longer congested, my mind can never be full; I could stand to share some of the seasoning I have for my soul... "I just needed to speak to "GOD" for a moment so we could sort things out!"

PEACE!!

CH

The "HIGHEST" principal of a friendship is to always keep you... not behind me, not in front of me; but "FOREVER" by my side... "HARMONIZING" within the same "RHYTHM" of LIFE!!

IN TRUE FRIENDSHIP WE ARE....

EVERLASTING!

"WAYWARD * SOLUTIONS * SOLVE * PROBLEMS!"

From personal experience and instilled wisdom, I've found that to remedy a situation abroad or near; I must first seek the solution(s) to the core of the problem(s) within myself that may have contributed to it.

By doing this, I can secondly work to find the solution(s) as how to solve the other concerns in my life as a whole.

Taking the necessary time to work out the best way(s) to minimize and/or eliminate the issues, matters, problems, situations in general first and foremost; is a deeply embedded wayward process for a most satisfying outcome in the end.

 This exercise has shown and proven to be extremely valuable by a high caliber standard. *****

It's by popular and inner respect as well as a demand that I've found that to go about living my life with blame, complaint and confusion; the past or present daily happenings can prove at times likely impossible to move forward for a future of a peaceful, settled mind of self. NOT to mention the people or person I've encountered for that day or time!!"

Releasing these bothersome problems that devalue an individual's life, enables a higher power in lives to allow them/me as said to seek a suitable solution to justify the end result which is found to be the best for all; furthermore... the peace.

At times, I'd found myself in a particular mindset day in and day out examining the downward spiral(s) I'd created for myself. It helped me to realize and see that in order to live without this negative life-style, I had to find positive ways to solve the sometimes difficult areas of and in my life within the present so I could... can move forward without inner or surfacing confusion not needed as a surrounding gray cloud in my future.

CASE and POINT: "It's not (WHAT) I chose to do that brought forth the best and reasonable result in dealing with the things in life, but (HOW) I decided to execute the act while attentively respecting the concerns by far!"

"SINCERE  NOTABLE  NOTE!!!"

Justifiable as well as acceptable, understood communication on behalf of both parties with a level of consideration and respect

"LOVE ENDURING" the GEOGRAPHICAL SPACE OF DISTANCE, AND UTMOST STRAIN "TIME!!"

"BONDING in TRUST to LOVE" from a distance for foundations of life's lasting success by two to become one!!"

In experienced, inner thought and observance over time,
I've viewed and come to the personal opinion that the cities, countries as well as states of the world are different in their own respective rights for the sole purpose of identified independance.

Yet and still, a likeness of another across the miles, plains and rivers to bond with another or one; sometimes more for different supportive reasons of a love. Some love that's sustained when held true between themselves.

As humans of a different gender for the purpose of bonding to sometimes reproduce to populate, we too are completely the same.

We seek a distance of a distant place to find ourselves independantly within success for the growth and whole purpose to better live a life while bonding completely for that true sought and/or committed to love from a distance.

 We must remember, it's been stated many times over for the sake of fighting for that "TRUE LOVE"; "Absence makes the HEART grow fonder!"

In same, if we're striving for this same lasting purpose doing all to "LOVE" while enduring space and distance; in the emotional feelings of "TRUE LOVE"! we're also ensuring the long lasting (BOND in and for EVERLASTING LOVE.).

Realizing far into a happier future, that the distancing sacrificed for that love will never be or become a factor knowing the "HEARTS FIGHTING as ONE" shall (ALWAYS) overcome this temporary unsettling.

"STRONG, SETTLED LOVE" for two to become one for a lifetime will always be that, "STRONG, SETTLED, EVERLASTING LOVE!!"

Another experienced, personal thought on lasting for love from the pains of space and distance, YES; AND TIME!

Sincerely,

"THE QUESTIONING OF ME, KNOWING THY FABRIC"

Living life as I was, day in and day out meeting people here, there, everywhere; I was questioned many times over as to: "WHO are YOU?"

Naturally, I'd respond... Roderick!

While never actually taking the time to ponder this theory of self more in depth, I grew older with this thought in my head as I fell and rose from difficult times in life that became repetitive by fault of no one; but I.

Now as I sit at the ripe age of a little beyond half a century, my "TRUE" answer to this inquiry of me is: I'm a physical spirit in same of flesh with interest of people and places far and near with differences.

Just as I'm an interest of me and the differences I have within the world of all I come personally in contact with and myself.

All in all, I am (only) allowed to be as much as I've chose or choose to be alone and within until I encounter others interacting to be as they'd wish with positive uplifting or in a down spiral if I so choose.

-SURELY-
"As I'm being ME!"

"Another part of ME!"

RAA

Who am I...

I'm a spirit within flesh of want in search of need to become out of existence to form a purposeful life to live, remember the question... Do you exist or are you just living?

By achieving actual existence, I become life!

This is who I AM... LIFE!!

"TEARS... I call BLACK RAIN!"

Capturing a moment of truth within one breath, remembering promises that are broken that can never be redeemed... a tear drops and many others followed.

Though they seem to be senseless to some, these tears are indeed true!

Keeping in mind what is, what's not and thoughts of what should've been is shattered into millions of pieces... scattered in an ocean of flaming fire.

Not knowing if this fire will purify or just destroy these thoughts of a future life or not, still I'm pushing on with my tears I call... "BLACK RAIN!"

The wisdom gained from knowledge of life:

Crucified through "Genocide" could be a number of things such as addiction, death, homelessness or being committed forever into a life of incarceration.

Certainly!, this "confined society" will not possess me as a product of it's environment... the pattern of that'll never bind my body, mind nor soul!!!

THESE ARE "TEARS... I call BLACK RAIN!"

Convince me that you believe in you and I'll believe in you too!

Anything^{*} you're attempting to achieve as a desire or need, I'll do all in my power of knowledge and physical being to assist you indeed.

In life, I've learned the most fulfilling aspect to have for self... in self, for you; is to always be true!

Of self observance, inner high self-esteem constructed on a positive foundation will always be strong and indestructible asset for a successful life.

"Always believing there's a place for everything and everything has it's place!"

Finding these places in life for which you're able to find peace and harmony within it, life, it'll offer you the solitude of happiness to share... just be sure you make that place for you as well!"

"Again, Black RAIN!"
at

"To and for me, I'll always be true; this will and has abled me to do all that I've did and now strive to accomplish!!"
