In the silence of the twilight between the darkness before the light my body was completely shaken by the demons of the night....

My mind was somewhat troubled as I wandered in between for my feelings and emotions were swept away by the raging seas.

My body badly beaten my legs felt strong and true but everytime I moved forward you vanished from my view.

The darkness and the silence was catching up to me no matter how I struggled everything got further than it seemed.

My heart beat was racing faster until I thought I couldn't breathe it was then I lost direction and the demons were attacking me.

Then suddenly out of no where I envisioned Angels in the skies overwhelmed in such excitement I knew I was still alive.

As I reached above the rainbows to grasp the golden rays I felt your warmth and comfort as you quickly swept me away.

I opened my eyes and wondered and to my disbelief a beautiful angel was silently sleeping with her wings wrapped up beneath.

I am no longer in the darkness and my life is so full and complete for darling your love is forever with me even as I sleep.

I can see you standing closely but yet still you so far away
I hear your heart beat pounding just like it does everyday

I feel my body trembling as the blood rushes through my veins Being away from you my darling is such excruciating pain

The love we share together is far greater than the sun
As the feelings explode inside our bodies we both know our hearts beat as one

My love for you yearns for such excitement because you're the only one that makes our lives together so full of ~~life~~ ~~side~~ and so much fun

They say there's always tomorrow as the time just passes us by but my love for you is endless and as it grows deeper I can feel your love inside

Each night when I am sleeping I can feel you by my side you fill my heart and soul with such pleasures my love for you is so alive

Knowing that you're with me I feel your love inside darling I can't wait to hold you our love is so alive

Your skin so soft and warming and gently as we touch Your love your hugs and kisses I miss you oh so much So sexy loving and delicate you hold me close and tight You tell me that you want me for our love will glow so bright

I kiss your neck and then whisper as I nibble on your ear your goosebumps are rising faster as I gently brush your hair

I feel your heartbeat racing as I hold you in my arms darling I need to be with you I'll hold you all night long

Our breathing is so heavy and our blood is boiling hot as I hold you close and tighter our bodies become knots overwhelmed in our own desires we explode inside for more hugging and kissing each other our love continues to glow

Darling you're so beautiful you are the love of my life you make me feel so wanted let's make love all night

When I think of all our good times the first thought that comes to mind is that time we spent camping out on the inside on that cold and wintry night

And yes it was somewhat childish but we're all kids at heart sometimes beside it ~~sets~~^{leaves} the mind and body in a comfortable feeling inside

But then again if I think harder and go back just a bit in time I believe it first started when we both opened up our eyes

No - but really it's that time we spent together just hanging out and enjoying the simple things in life

Our hearts are forever bonding and my love for you is so intense I told you we should have used the real tent the blankets are falling and we'll have to start again...

And our souls are forever growing like the fire in the sun as our hearts are forming together our bodies become as one

Now that we are together and we know what lies ahead
A lifetime of true happiness and many nights snuggled up in bed

So tender and delicate and yet fragile as the glass a heart yearned for romance and a true love that would last

A simple gown of satin tied together at the waist with tiny layers of velvet made ribbons hang in place

Purely of innocence and a goddess of the heavens above She stood silently and patiently while in search of a Prince who'd catch her loving eyes

His eyes were wide open and his heart so alive burning with such passion he wanted her by his own side

Each time he envisioned her he felt deep down inside truly she'd be the new love of his life and be a fine bride

With their arms wide open and their eyes so bright their bodies came together blended in their own light

Together they'd found the new love of their life forever and always now vowed as Husband and Wife

Sometimes it always hit you especially when your feeling blue the memories that dwell deep inside you are heart felt and true

You know that I'm a romantic and I have no control over you so just close your eyes and kiss me I'm so in love with you

Our feelings are special and you know that much is true cause theres no other who makes me feel the way you do

Endless moments are in passing and each day gets further I must say And its worse than being on that deserted island ten ~~of~~ thousands miles away

Deeper than any ocean but yet higher than the clouds

My love for you is everlasting Darling my heart and soul belongs to you

Early in the morning when the sun is on the rise my heart beat is constantly racing with thoughts of you on my mind

Your eyes are so lovely like the lustrous pearls from the seas and your body creates a special magic that flows inside of me

Even in the moonlight your essence is felt all around I can see you floating before your footsteps touch the ground
Your hair so long and flowing it has a style of its own Well beyond the beauty of Rupunsel or Lady Godiva riding bareback and alone

Now when I envision it all together I can truly see that when ever we are together your magic burns uncontrollably yet so wild and free

No matter how it hurts you you'll always know deep down inside that love will always conquer even if you're blind

It's like being in the middle of that forgotten childish dream no matter how you try to escape it it'll always haunt you regardless of your screams

And it's worse than being impaled by Cupid's arrows as he sits quietly and tries to hide for now your true feelings are flowing killing you from inside

The radiance of her beauty is breathless and to others it's unseen for our time is of the essence as our hearts beat in between

Trapped inside this bottle within the sands of time your love is forever with me and keeping me alive

The Power of love is beyond any magic and it will never keep us apart for the love we share together burns deeply within our hearts

As I looked into the sunset I felt those warming rays my mind so full of pleasures of you and I that day

Appearing out of no where like a destined Angel so true my whole life came together because I fell in love with you Your smile so breath taking so warm and loving to and your eyes so pure and free Cause darling when you hold me my heart beats faster than I can breathe

You have a special magic that flows around you in style my whole body warms in passion and desire it feels as though its on fire

So before I go any further I just wanted you to know Darling you so beautiful even as we walk hand in hand in the snow

They say love is the hardest feeling that grows inside of us yet our emotions are constantly yearning for each others tender touch

When Cupid shot his arrows our bodies burned deep inside our hearts were wanting warm compassion and a love that would survive

Your body so hot and tempting I can see it within your smile that every time I'm with you you drive me completely wild

I wrapped my arms around you as we grew hotter side by side and we took each other further seeing the fire in our eyes

Your touch your love and comfort your kisses the hottest of all my darling my only true lover you make me want you more Never before could I say this its only you that I desire For your love is so warm and special it sets my soul on fire

Our Love is always growing the warmth is felt inside Darling your so beautiful Forever I'll be at your side

I've often sat and wondered how your really feeling inside
I can hear the changes of your ~~my~~ rhythms and sense the silence when you've cried

My heart is always yearning for I want you by my side You're the only woman who's truly loved me and filled my soul with pride

Your love is very precious so warm and full of life
I thank the lord for blessing us and for you becoming my wife

My whole world revolves around us I pledge my love to you its you my darling sweetheart that makes the magic so strong and true

Love is our strongest feeling its an emotion felt deep inside And its our hearts an souls that guides us as we stand together forever side by side

For every night that passes my mind it never rests especially when I think of us opening up each others trust

If it came to wishing to share that day again I'd do it in a heartbeat and wait for it to begin

When we are together my heart is always in full bloom like a field of wild flowers reaching out just for you

Within six to seven hours and in between six to seven days
I believe that miracles do happen in so many loving ways

But then again too a day without sunshine we always seem to get the blues yet if not for all our memories we'd never make it through

Our lives were meant to happen our love so special and true I'll take it as a blessing cause darling I'm so in love with you

Once in your lifetime a miracle comes your way and when it's upon you your heart starts fluttering away

Somedays it seemed so endless and at times it might have passed you by but we always knew that one day that love would come our way

You've seen it in the movies and read about it in the books And you've often seen the faces of others with that glowing special look

Now that your body is warming and your mind is miles away You know that special feeling Love has you today

You know your more than special and beyond being #1

For darling you're so lovely I know you the ~~one~~

My hearts forever burning my love for you so grand I can't wait to hold you and marry you where we stand

Whether alone on a deserted island or adrift upon the seas theres no other woman so lovely who's blessed and meant for me

My love for you is constantly burning I feel the warmth deep inside our hearts are overflowing my love for you is so alive

Sometimes the days and nights are so endless I feel so all alone I close my to see you and your beautiful smile brings me home

I say to you I can feel it I know your going through it too darling I wish I could reach out and hold you to take away your blues

Our times of passion together so hot and thrilling too
I nearly go half crazy wishing I was with you

The future is close and before us at times it's hard to realize but before we both know it we'll be in each others arms with such surprise

My love for you is everlasting finally my dreams have come true My darling your so special I'm so in love with you

Lost in the world of the living dreaming for your touch the love we share together is stronger than most can trust

Destined to be lovers the memories burn deep down inside we treasure all those moments with such passion and such pride

Sometimes the silence can be golden we close our eyes to see to touch to feel and to listen As our hearts beat silently

Holding onto the darkness we feel the fire growing inside as our bodies come together making love side by side

Over and over so gently into all hours of the night we take each other higher Higher with such sheer delight

Wave after wave we shudder our bodies beyond control we hold onto each other as we tumble to the floor

Darling I need you beside me You are the love of my life I can't wait to truly hold you as we walk hand in hand into the Moonlight

Darling we're more than just lovers and the best of friends
For in the eyes of others true lovers till the end

Sweet hearts while we were dating and dancing into the nights And yes more than being romantically involved as we made love in the Moonlight

Beyond our wildest expectations and more than just a dream judging by our own expressions we were both beyond being mesmerized

Some would say we're a couple but our family always knew soul mates matched up in heaven darling I'm so in love with you

With this ring I pledge to you an undying love so true together forever my darling as Husband and Wife I do.....

I'm anxiously awaiting to see your loving face to tell you that I love you and you melt my heart in place

I'm anxiously awaiting to whisper in your ear and tell you you're so lovely so sweet and sincere

I'm anxiously awaiting to hold you in my arms and feel your body next to mine as we come together in the silence of time

I'm anxiously awaiting to taste your loving kiss your lips so warm and tender you put smiles upon my face

I'm anxiously awaiting to give my life to you as we share our love together so simple and true

I'm anxiously awaiting to hear your sexy voice while waking up in bed together sharing breakfast on one plate

I'm anxiously awaiting to have you as my wife

Darling you're so beautiful you mean more to me than life....

I miss you when I wake up and I miss you during the day but not as much as I miss you when we hold each other at night I miss your beautiful smile and your Drop dead gorgeous looks and I miss hearing your laughter when we stand side by side and Cook

I miss your warm sweet kisses and your tender loving touch I miss you when you hug me and tell me you miss it just as much

I miss you when your working and I miss you when your out it drives me half crazy and at times I try not to pout I miss you now as always and I miss you every day but not to worry my darling for soon we'll be having alot of lovely days

I miss you so much my darling you mean the world to me your such a beautiful person you've given me everything so lets join our hearts together and forever our love will be...

All alone inside the darkness in the silence of the night my heart beats so much faster thinking about your love tonight

My mind is overflowing and my body grows tired and weak
I need to hold you closely or I'll never go to sleep

I walk around in circles somewhat dazed and confused
For our love is strong and caring we are completely consumed

I hold onto the memories and the times that we have shared I truly miss you my darling I do love you and care

It is not always easy and I'm sure you feel it too
And at times if you let it the loneliness will eat away at you

The Power of the body let alone the mind if you force it all together sooner or later you'll need to unwind

So with this silent moment as I whisper out your name just close your eyes and listen while I kiss your lips again

True love is not in the open nor hidden or buried at sea for lifes most fulfilling pleasures were found by you and me It's way beyond any carvings or putting your initials into trees or simply putting symbols and heart shapes into wet cement while down upon your knees

Love is always building it can consume you everyday so hold on to those feelings and let it grow in a special way

Even when the moon is shining and the sun is glowing bright my love for you is constantly burning I miss you in my arms each night

For each day and every passing moment my life is full and so complete I owe it all to you my darling You've given me your love so pure and sweet

Marilyn my darling you mean the World to me truly God has blessed us together forever We shall Be

The gift of love is not to reason or even second guess God blessed us both together because we deserved the best

Our love for one another is truly recognized we share so much in common it's right before our eyes

Although there ups and downs in a relationship and yes our marriage too everyday we go through all the trials and tribulations and make the best of it so true

So darling throughout the seasons yet alone the holidays remember it's our anniversary that makes us feel so special in a million wonderful ways

Your beauty is beyond any goddess and I know I've said it before but your love is forever glowing and I love you even more

My mind is forever drifting like the clouds up in the skies yearning to hear your laughter and to see your sweet loving smile

I close my eyes to see you and imagine you next to me as our bodies melt together so perfectly and yes so naturally

Our gift of love is a true magic that we share ~~insist~~ together forever my darling we've withstood the tests
of time

RW Boone 2016i-21

Never ever have I known this or even felt this way before my heart is constantly burning to share our love once more The days and weeks have seemed to pass us as the months flew by so fast I treasure all our moments forever for our love will surely last

They say that true love is a blessing and you know it cause it feels so right for the love we share together Keeps us warm throughout the night

As my heart beats out the seconds into all the hours of each day Our love is forever growing in so many special ways

Our love is everlasting and I need you in my life darling I can't wait to marry you and be blessed forever having you as my loving wife

Living within the silence and existing it may seem wishing for tomorrow and the passion of our dreams

Our simplest times are treasured the memories full fill our hearts the love the beauty the patience Our love will never part

Within your arms I'm living without you I am lost darling your forever with me my soul to you I entrust

So many nights of happiness living out our dreams we conquered each others loneliness and everything in between

Over and over with such passion And the desires above and beyond Our love flowed brighter than the moonlight till the rising of the sun

Darling you're so lovely and the magic that we share only with you my darling do I think or even dare

For years I felt so lonely so lost and all alone
And then one day God blessed me with an Angel of my own I've got tear drops on my pillow from the tears running down my face For your love my darling has captured my heart in place

My whole world flashed before me when you stepped into my life I had to have you forever and now you're my beloved wife

You touched my soul and saved me and made me realize that together we'd be a loving couple for the rest of our lives

I thank the lord for listening and opening my eyes to see for truly he did grant us a world beyond true love and belief

The Planets are all in alignment and the stars burn so bright I made ten wishes on the shooting stars last night my first wish was to hug you and hold you and feel you in my arms while my second wish was to kiss you and hold you even more. my third wish is to comfort you and make you feel at home so right, as the fourth wish is to serenade you then pamper you to your hearts delight.

My fifth wish is to hear your laughter and see your smiles of joy and for the sixth is to ~~wine~~ and dine you and treat you like a queen. while the seventh is to adore you then adore you even more

My Eighth wish is to say I love you over and over again like we did last summer where it all first began As for my ninth wish is to marry you and cherish you for life And my tenth wish is, I thank God for blessing us for now we are as man and wife.

Now that I've told you, you say how can this be cause the simple pleasures in life are the easiest but nothing comes for free

Regardless of the wishes the main thing to see is if you put your heart into it All you have to do is believe.....

Darling as I lay here dreaming of the lovely times of our past My thoughts of us are overwhelming for I knew our love would last It warms my heart so quickly and my body through and through Our memories so special I'm so in love with you

Even when the suns not shining my thoughts of you are so alive Because its you My darling lover that keeps our magic burning As our hearts melt together inside

Each night I grow so restless that at times I can't even sleep but when I dream about you tears of joy run down my cheeks

They say true love is always wanted to make you feel whole and complete but darling when your arms are around me theres nothing else I want or need

Like true colors of the Rainbow and the sparkling of your eyes Darling your love has completely consumed me I can feel it deep down inside
