

Lance Sandifer      A prisoner's poetic expressions      Dedication

Dedication

I first have to thank the Almighty. I dedicate this to my gracious deceased grandmother, Renetta Sandifer. I pray you rest in peace my queen. Love ya. Next, I dedicate this to my extraordinary hero, Professor of Law, Susan Brooks. You are beyond amazing. Now I'd like to thank all my haters, open enemies and fake family and friends. Yall want to see me in ashes, but yall just fuel my fire and send this phoenix soaring. This is a result of your hard work and abandonment. The good and the bad went into this poetry, so I dedicate this to both. And I got to send a shout-out to all my nieces( Norie, Marie, Markya, Kay Kay, Samia, and Alexzandra) and nephews(Junior, Samari, and Xavier). I love yall dearly. I can't forget to send my love and appreciate to Jermaine, Alex, and Solo. Lastly this is dedicated to all of my readers. Thank you all.

Lance Sandifer      A prisoner's poetic expressions      Introduction

Introduction

I hope that all who read these words are well in body and spirit. This book was originally stolen from me by the prison officers, as was the soon to come "Land of Lust", and nearly gave up on writing. Nevertheless, as you see, I refused to allow these infested waters to put out my fire of creativity. So here I am, baring to all my mind, heart, and soul through my poetic expressions. There is a combination of poems that will take you along a road of laughter, pain, love, and inspiration. I hope this book can infuse you with life and love. Please enjoy. Thank you.

It is what it is

Am I wrong for wanting someone I was told that I shouldn't Or aspiring to bring happiness where most think that I couldn't Should I drown my feelings, ignore this attraction
Although there would be happiness, infinite satisfaction
But how could I, why would I, no sense living a lie
How could I deny that I could fly when I look into your eyes
I wanna hold you, kiss you, sing to you and I can't sing a note
I don't even know if you like me like that, but I do hope
My swag says I'm desirable, but ego can be misleading
I just know that I value your time and you'll never be mistreated
I cherish your smile and I cherish the words we share
And although I assume you know, I hope my actions show you I care
I can only do what I can and hope that's enough
And if it's meant then eventually we'll hook up

And then there was one

It's a struggle everyday
I'm just trying to make it
Opportunity knocks quietly
But never get it mistaken
Life is what you make it
So make it something you eat
And you better learn to bake
If you're the type who enjoys sweets
What I'm saying is this...
Depend on only you
And make your decisions wise decisions
Because your life is determined by what you do
We're our own worst enemy
A lot of times we get in our own way
The greatest master is one who's mastered self That's truly a glorious day
Learn thyself, love thyself
We determine who we are Don't be stagnate, shoot for the moon
Because at the least you'll land amongst the stars

A lil' something special

I just wanted to give you something special
A lil' something to get on your nerves
You deserve to feel cherished
And I know I can do it with words
If truth be told...
I've had a thing for you for awhile
From your lovely Hershey's skin
To your sparking eyes and your beautiful smile
Plus you're sweet and jazzy all in one
And you're smart and funny
So many things to love about you
You make my dark days sunny
True story, I think about you often
I be missing even the smallest things you do
I cherish the moments I'm in your presence
I guess I kinda like you

Words

What has the power to stimulate your body and caress your mind Mightier than any weapon and more valuable than a goldmine....

....Words

So allow me to form poetry so I can again see your beautiful smile
My words are as I am, sincere, unlike any man you've met in awhile

Do you like "I wanna know" by Joe or "Say Yes" by Floetry

What about "Hot Cocoa", you know .. Sandifer's poetry

What happened to companionship, conversing, and just holding hands

And sweet kisses and hugs just to feel close to your man

When was the last time you got flowers, a card or perfume just because it's

Monday

Have you had a man who considers every day with you a fun day

Don't you want a man who's strong enough to lead you, but incomplete enough to need you

A man who's man enough to provide for you and protect you, yet loving enough to feed you

You should have a man who cherishes you and values you above all the world's treasure

A man who respects you at all times and lives to bring you pleasure

There's a man who just wants to see you happy and loves your every curve

A man who can caress your mind and stimulate your body with just words

A chocolate queen deserves such and I'm sure you agree

Not to be arrogant but the only man here of that standard is me

Hot Cocoa

Strong, brown and sweet

And just what a black man needs and wants

Good cold, but better warm

We desire it even when we say we don't

But how couldn't we, why shouldn't we

We love something that tastes so good

Smells good, feels good

Would have it all day if we could

Yep, I'm talking about you

Smooth chocolate skin wrapped around steel

Beautiful on the outside, strong inside

And 100% real

A man always wants more than just a sip

Gotta have it all once he's had a taste

You make a man feel warm in this cold world

With a voice that's music and an irresistible face

It's been a year since I seen you last

But remember who showed you love first

Because I cherish a strong sweet woman

And there's nothing like Hot Cocoa to quench my thirst

And a warrior is Nothing in this world is impossible to a willing heart

And 'can't' is a word a warrior looks upon with disdain
But a wise one knows all have limitations
Yet ambition remains
This world is a cold place
And there are several types of chill
Spite, ignorance, jealousy, depression..
The deeper it is, the colder it feels Rather chill, rain or whatever
A warrior remains steadfast
Regardless of the level of difficulty
Don't falter because it can't last Even a warrior is human
The difference is a warrior's hunger for life
A refusal to be defeated
The strength to persevere through strife
A warrior's key attribute is courage
Courage is placing your goals above your fears
A warrior leads by example
And fights on even through tears
Again, anything is possible
To one who's willing to fight
A warrior is fueled by a fiery will
And driven by his passion for life

One love my sistah

This is for my sistahs, not just my sistahs of relation
But my sistahs of this race, of this beautiful Nubian nation
I cherish you my sistah and I love you, flaws and all
I am your listening ear, your shield, your sword.. the man to pick you up when you fall

I got your back, your front.. your left, your right
I support you through your ups, your downs.. your days, your nights
I admire your style, your sass.. your grace, your class
Your beautiful brown eyes, your full lips and hips.. and yes, dat ass
You are the heat and pressure, and I am the coal you morph into a diamond

Through tomado, tsunami, or earthquake you always manage to come out shining

Your strength is without measure and often just beyond belief Even when you hold the world on your shoulders you're still our source of relief

Your love is comparable to none, a priceless treasure
From your loyalty, inspiration and support to your passionate kisses and sensual pleasure

And know that love is the sweetest but hate is a close second, so beware

Sistah I know we break your hearts but know that I care
And continue to care yourself, regardless of anyone else
Because you are God's blessing to us, a blessing beyond wealth
You are greatness in the flesh and never anything less Regardless of your tribulations, live through love not hate because love is best

May your tears fuel your fire and may your fire burn whatever I am yours and you are mine, one step at a time, there's nothing we can't achieve together

I LOVE YOU MY SISTAHS!

Mama Tried

Mama I just wanted to say thanks
Thanks for loving me and teaching me how to be a man
Mama I'm sorry I disappointed you
You did all that you can
I'll make you proud mama
Even if it's the last thing I do
Mama you'll always be my idol
And mama I love you

Before/After

Previously my eyes were wide shut
And the world was loud but only noise
Incomplete and didn't know it
Searching for a sign, a voice
A touch, a scent
Maybe even a taste
I don't know, I'm lost
But you can't see it on my face
My spirit was alive through God
But dead was my soul
I went on unknowing
Unknowing I wasn't whole
And then I was soaring and drowning
Liberated and smothered at the same time
I reside on Cloud Nine
True love fills my heart and mind
I have passion coursing through my veins
I've found the better half of me
I'm lost no longer
I'm living, I now clearly hear and see Most importantly, I feel
I feel a love so true
Baby you are my rock, my inspiration, my everything
Moreover, I hope I'm the same for you

Reflection

Sometimes good things fall apart so that better things can fall into place
That's the way this conversation began as I look into my friend's face
Friends aren't a necessity, they're a luxury and a real friend is truly rare Leaders lead by example so conduct yourself with care Thy can who believes thy can so we mustn't use time as a couch but as a tool

We all make mistakes, but it's those who don't learn from those mistakes who are fools

It takes courage to push oneself to break through one's barriers and test one's limits

So we can't let yesterday's failures bankrupt tomorrow's efforts because we must value every minute

One person can make a difference and every person should try

You are who you are so be strong enough to never live a lie

I gave my friend these gifts of wisdom to use for his betterment and protection

And I can assure all that this wisdom will be utilized because I am speaking to my own reflection

Ecstasy Therapy

It's only me and you, my love, amongst this world of chaos
I can feel that you need me and I love to please thee, so lets take the day off

I pull you into my embrace, kiss your lips and this is peace
Your burdens are mine to bare, and it's my duty and delight to give you release

And I kiss you, I kiss you with so much passion
So that when all else falls you feel my love, and know that my love is everlasting

Piece by piece I remove your clothes to reveal your curves
I kiss every inch of your body, giving you the love you deserve
I'm anxious to feast on your delicious treasure

But I'ma take my time for your pleasure

I love the way you softly moan my name as I work your nipples

And I reach down and caress your clit, the bliss washes over you in ripples

I take my time to make this reality a dream

I kiss my way to your paradise where my fingers are moist from your cream

And upon reaching my destination I work

With my hands and mouth, I bring you so much pleasure it nearly hurts

Exquisite, euphoria.. two words to describe this moment

I live for this baby so I take it and own it

And know that whenever you need it baby, I have your remedies

I savor your cum as we conclude part one of your Ecstasy Therapy

So many reasons

It's the love that pours from your pores when I come through the door

Baby it's worth a billion dollars and more

It's the way you squeeze me, please me, that I adore

So many reasons I do this for Baby it's the way you say I love you

It's the way you hold me when I hug you

It's those curls in your hair I love to rub too

So many reasons I place no other above you

Love it's your smile that's like a Christmas gift to a child

Rather playful, lustful, or joyful it makes my heart run wild

It's your laughter that soothes my soul

So many reasons you make me feel whole

It's the way I need your touch

The way your caress enflames lust

Before you I'd never experienced such

So many reasons I love you so much

Baby it's your gaze that paralyzes me

Your scent that hypnotizes me

Your aura that tantalizes me

So many reasons you delightfully mesmerize me

Baby it's your voice that's music to my ears

The way I feel like I've won the lottery whenever you're near

The fact that being without you is my deepest fear

So want reasons I want to be with you for the rest of my years

Beauty is her name

All natural, smooth skin and long curly dark hair
Bare before me, I can't help myself.. I stare
Gorgeous face with perfect lips, a cute nose and beautiful sparkling eyes
Short and curvy with wondrous hips atop luscious thighs
Fat soft round ass and a very sensually stimulating chest
A beautiful sexy body made to be kissed, licked, nibbled and caressed
I don't know what to use first, my hands, my mouth, or my dick
I want to touch her everywhere and just as badly I'd like to give her a lick
Yes I need a taste, so maybe I should sit her on my eager face
No, I think sliding down my pole is a better place
I want her in every way, especially from behind
I want to ravage her passionately, but it'll last longer if I take my time
Both of our bodies are aroused, our hearts beating rapid...
Stay tuned for part two, you'll love what's going to happen

Jealous

You're so sexy beautiful
So I do understand
But you don't need other's attention
All you need is your man's
I hate another man even looking at you
Because I know their thoughts and desires
And when you politely smile or laugh
It truly sets me on fire
Baby I trust you fully
I'm just stingy like Ginuwine
I can't stand anybody else having any of your attention
You're mine and baby only mine
I know it might seem childish
But baby, you bring out the worst and the best in me
I feel like the best of me is missing...
Whenever you're not next to me
I know I don't often show it
But that's just me being a man
We ain't suppose to show our feelings
But baby I cherish even holding your hand
I cherish you with every bit of my being Baby you're the essence of special
So if I see you smiling and batting your eyes at some man
I'll probably turn into the Tasmanian Devil

A bit of candy

This began with a kiss and quickly advanced
My tongue caressing yours, my hands over your hands
Your hands over your head as my mouth now journeys to your curves My hands all over your body combined with my lips, awakening your every nerve

I catch a whiff of your sweetness as your temperature rises
I won't try to fix what isn't broken, so there'll be no surprises
I dip a finger in your candy jar and coat your nipples with your caramel

And then I lick and suck your Hershey's Kisses, umm baby they're so sweet as hell

A wonderful taste of your candy but baby I'm greedy
Good thing it's good and plenty because I'm oh so needy
I lick every bit of your goodies, hooked from the first taste
And when I lift my head two orgasms later, your cream's all over my face

Ummm, so yummy baby, but I have some candy of my own
A bar of dark chocolate, hard candy thick and long
I slip it into your juicebox a few times before I pull it out
And with it fully candy-coated I slowly put it in your mouth
You lick it all over, taking your time, before you swallow it whole Enjoying yourself, savoring the flavor, ready for the cream to explode
No good effort goes w/o reward so you soon got what you were looking for

And we were only seeking a bit of candy, but we both ended up with so much more

When then

What up bitch

That's how we talk to each other

And that's just a common greeting

No respect to one another

And the sad part is..

It's not just accepted, but expected

This is the males and females

Nobody is respected

We only see fear as respect

Morals and values neglected

So many young careless mothers and fathers

Not caring how their children are affected

Affected by their words and actions

And the decisions they make

So infatuated with the ghetto glories

They repeatedly make the same mistakes

But we're a product of our environment

Surely, if you fall victim to distractions

We are a product of our thoughts

And our thoughts become our actions

We must learn true unity and understanding

Each one must teach one

We must support one another through love

And we must stay resilient until it's done

You ask what is "it"

"It" is bringing us together again

And the time for change is now

And if not now then when

May love be the reason

A mind is a terrible thing to waste
And passion is a horrible force to misdirect
It's said that hindsight is 20/20
So we see clearly in retrospect
I've hoped, I've prayed
I've wished, I've dreamed
Through all my aspirations
I've found love isn't what it seems

....

...

..

It's hader
At best, It's difficult
We search so hard, so long
Love seemingly becomes mythical
But love is as most things in life...
Perception
Our emotions cloud our way of thinking
Causing us to even misperceive reflections
Truly.. when you act out in anger..
Does it not cause your loved one to do the same
And does it not cause your thoughts distortion
And you feel that your partner is playing games
Hence you act accordingly
Bringing about your perception's misdirection
Due to heated misdirection
There's anger where there could, and should, be affection
So I challenge all to take up arms in this battle Because often times you get what you give
So don't fight against one another, fight together
And let love be the reason you live

Prince or Princess

Been thinking about you a lot lately
So I just wanted to write you a letter
I love you more than I could explain
And I'm so anxious for the day we're together
You are my sunshine
My latest and greatest inspiration
I'd do anything for you
No procrastination
You inspire daddy so much
For you I truly wanna be Superman
I aspire to be you and your mama's superhero
I'll always do all I can
I'm so anxious to kiss your fat face
Your little hands and your little feet
Looking into your loving eyes...
Hardly believing you came from me
Rather you're daddy's prince or princess
I'm eager to teach you life
Eager to shower you with love
Eager to show you how a man treats his wife
You're my greatest blessing
And I just wanted you to know daddy loves you
I'm anxiously awaiting your creation
So that I can nurture you, kiss you, and hug you

Say you love me

Age 60, 70, or 80, I'll need you forever
I'll love you wherever you are Even if you weren't so sexy
You'd still be my sun, my moon, my stars
Fireworks
Just hearing your voice
All the women in the world...
And you're my only choice
I once felt your love
Now I feel barely entertained
This misery isn't what I deserve
Baby this is driving me insane
You're all I want, all I need
I don't know what I've did wrong
And as much as it breaks me
I feel I need to move on
And it's crazy because...
I once felt you put no man above me
I've given you all of me
And after this long you've never said you love me

Nothing even matters

I can hear thunder and see lightning
And on my skin I feel the rain splatter
But standing here with you
Nothing even matters
In the mission hungry as a hostage
Surrounded by men crazy as the mad hatter
But as long as I can hold you
Nothing even matters
I could have all the women in the world
And billions of dollars to scatter
But if I didn't have you..
Nothing even matters
Using my last breath
I'd say I love you with all the air I could gather Truth be told, outside of our love...

Unbreakable

Through thick and thin, jealousy and rumors
Rich or poor, disease and tumors
I'm down for you through whatever
I feel we're meant to be together
I wanna grow into a better me for you
I think about us in all that I do
I'm paper-and you're the pen, you're water-and I'm a fish
Without you I'm nothing, baby you're my every wish
I need you and hope you need me
You make me better, baby you complete me
My faith in you, in US, is completely unshakable
And what we're building is infinitely unbreakable

Rubberband

There'll always be ups and downs
I cherish those ups and downs
Even when we aren't great
I still need you around
We may not seem perfect
But we understand love
Love is the good, the bad, and all in-between Love is us
Just hearing your name sends my heart soaring
I couldn't do this without you
I can't imagine fumbling your heart
Baby I'm crazy about you
I love loving you
Because of you I'm a lucky man
You hold me together baby
Sweetheart, you're my rubberband

When day comes and night falls

I hate to see you go, but I love to watch you leave
I watch you when you sleep, even see you in my dreams
You inspire poetry, you make my words spark
You constantly on my mind, have the key to my heart
When day comes, so does my cravings
And I'm proud to say I'm happily in your enslavement
But I can't complain, I'm feeling lovely
Who'd ever thought a man like me would be feeling bubbly
When the sun rise I think about my sunshine
And when I go to sleep I thank the lord you're all mine Forever and always baby, I'll always give you my all
I dedicate myself to you from when day comes and night falls

Burning

Have you had nightmares of being the psycho from a scary movie
And the same night you're a rap star with plenty groupies
Burning up inside, anger and pain stoking your fire
It's untamed but it's the same flame that fuels your desire
You try to maintain but this damn flame grows higher and higher
It's engulfed your heart and if it gets your brain you're sure to expire
Let me calm down..i'm getting carried away
No.. I'm just expressing myself, I've felt this way on many days
Can you imagine a narcissist contemplating suicide
Because he feels no love and no hope, feels like he's dead inside
Although he wants to die, his ambition and passion keeps him alive
And the people he loves .. he's now grown to despise
A horrible feeling, but you learn to deal with it
Although this feeling eats you up you learn to live with it
Gotta let it give you strength and let the pain move you Because regardless of your struggles you can't ever lose you

Blessing

I very rarely watched the sunsets
Truthfully, I felt I had no reason
It's hard to appreciate such beauty
So hard with a broken heart that's bleeding
And then you brought your light baby
And it hasn't at all started fading
I've never felt such power
So to me it's amazing
Now I cherish the sunsets and butterflies
All the infinite beautiful things
And my eyes only saw darkness
Now I see by the glow of your halo ring
I now know that love can heal
My broken heart now whole
I was only existing, now I live
You brought life to my soul
You're the bliss in my happiness
You're the relief when I'm stressing You're more than I could ever deserve
Baby you're my greatest blessing

Questions

Sit down with me baby
Some things I need to know
Because the way I'm starting feel
Don't wanna let you go
Am I your one and only
Or are we just fundaling
Sometimes you throw me off
So I was just wondering
Am I special to you
Do you feel how I feel
And when you say you love me
Are you keeping it real
Do you believe I want you more and more
Every time that I see you
Do you believe you my everything
Do you believe that I need you
Where do you see us now
Baby where are we going
And when we writing and kickin' it
Do you really enjoy it
Am I your lover and friend
Your joy and your pain
Your strength and your weakness
Am I your everything
I see now and forever
Matching last names
What I'm asking you is Do you see the same
If someone said I was creeping
What would you say to that
Would you rely on your trust in me
Or accept a lie as fact
Are we for richer or poorer
What if I was more poor than rich
Would you still ride with me

Or would you up and dip
If I was down and out
Fucked up about myself
Would you pick me up, keep me
And nurse me back to health
Could I depend on you
As you depend on me
Could you be the strength of us
Through the time of a tragedy
I'm serious about us
This a serious discussion
And if you feeling how I'm feeling
Baby answer my questions

Everyday

Being in your loving arms ...
A feeling I couldn't describe
Your love fills me like no other
It makes me feel alive
I want to be your superhero
I want to be your everything
You are my light, my life
For you I will do anything
Many people fall in love
But it's nothing like this
My heart races when you say my name
My heart soars with every kiss
You are everything I need and more
I feel blessed every time that you touch me
It's a dream come true
Every time you say that you love me
Baby i'm the luckiest man alive
I love you more than I could say
Nothing can overcome our love
And I fall deeper in love everyday

Chosen

I could put together something <sup>long</sup> and extravagant
But I'ma keep it short and straightforward, yet still magnificent I'm not your average prisoner
My mind is where the difference is Can't you tell
I'm exposing a peek for you to see
Obviously I'm interested in you
And I hope I'm peaking your interest in me
Surely I am...
But if not ... it's all good
Not many men like me
You should snatch one if you could Well, I said I'd keep this short
And sweetheart my word's golden
We really should get to know each other
Beautiful you've been chosen

Not Quite

There's always that spark
Every time that we talk
You change me, inspire me
From the way I think to how I walk
When I'm awake I think about you
When I'm asleep I dream about you
God made you for me
I don't ever wanna be without you
You are the reason I even dream
The reason I watch the sunsets
Just the thought of you invigorates me
You make my heart beat like a drum set
I am your sword and shield in war
I'm your umbrella in the rain
I am the reason you smile, the reason you moan
I'm the man to relieve your pain
You're an amazing woman
Any man would like you
And even love you
But not quite like I do

Don't look down

I've learned that life isn't easy
There's a reaction to every action
And if we expect joy around every corner
We'll never find satisfaction
We must come to an understanding
There is no rainbow without rain
And regardless of what we desire
Joy wouldn't exist without pain
Experience is the best teacher
So a mistake is just a lesson learned
When you learn to truly appreciate your strength
You'll see that triumphing over trials is just a blessing earned
So keep your head up through your struggles
It takes less effort to smile than to frown
Remember thy can who believes thy can Be resilient and don't look down

In a wisp of smoke

In a wisp of smoke
That quick you could be gone
I just want to love you baby
I never want to do you wrong
Just the thought gives me pain
Baby you are my life
I would perish without your love
You're my friend, my lover, my wife
Baby you're my beginning and my end
You are my first thought every day
I couldn't fathom taking you for granted
I love and cherish you in every way
You're so beyond beautiful
You're my dreams and fantasies come true
I'll cherish you always and forever
Baby I love you

Ghost

So beautiful
I mean truly stunning
But it seems the closer I get to her
The more she seems to be running
And she comes back
She always comes back
It feels so great to have her close
But what is this act
The good moments are great
But they're always only temporary
Sadly, I still need those special times
That's what's so incredibly scary
Can you imagine a woman you can't touch
But you can feel her in your veins
A woman who gives you joy like no other
But also drives you insane
By appearance and affect, she's real Until I need her most Then, the woman I cherish so deeply
She's only just a ghost

I wonder

Just sitting here watching you, my mind wonders
I wonder how it'd feel to kiss your lips
How it'd feel to see love sparkling in your eyes
How it'd feel to have my arms around your hips
I know that your voice is music
And that you can cast spells with your smile
I know that your flawless chocolate skin is beautiful
And that you're the sexiest woman I've met in awhile
But I wonder still ...
I wonder could you find joy with me
I wonder if I'd met you before now
Would you'd filled this space inside me that's empty
I just wonder why I meet you now
And why you make me feel some kind of way
I know I'd do anything to be the man who makes you happy
So I wonder why we couldn't have met back in the day

I'll be good to you

I'll be good to you
You need nobody else
It doesn't matter what you need
I'll take care of it all by myself
Just holding your hand means something to me
I dream of having you in my arms
I'll take on all the world's pain
Just to prevent you harm
I'll treat you like gold and diamonds
Although you're worth so much more
And you'll always be my queen
Rather we're rich or poor
As long as I'm alive ...
Baby you're never alone
Just believe in me, in US
And our bond will always be strong
There isn't many things I wouldn't do for you
And many things I would do
I got ya through thick and thin
Baby I'll forever be good to you

Surely it's love

This sensation is what I guess they call love
I'm not sure ... I just know that it's strong
And we usually don't like what we don't understand
But this ... this can't be wrong
Or maybe I'm wrong
I just know that this feeling's amazing
Have you ever felt as though you're floating
But at the same time blazing
A flame roaring inside my soul
Consuming, unadulterated bliss
This is better than I could ever dream of I sprout wings with every kiss
Your touch melts away my every stress
Your affection eases all my pain away
I have become an addict
I thirst for you greedily, needingly, everyday
And everyday you refresh me, bless me
But truthfully .. I could never get enough
This euphoria is deeper than any ocean
And has given birth to an unrelenting lust
It's said that love and lust go hand in hand
But this all just seems like a cliché musical
... I have no complaint though
I'm lucky to be in love with a queen so beautiful

Ain't love a mufucka

So what happens when wrong turns into right
And "it'll never happen" happens tonight
Yeah, when intoxication turns to motivation
And a 69 turns into doggystyle, no hesitation
"As we lay" turns into the soundtrack of life
She's forgot about her husband, he's forgot about his wife
The vicious part is ... we'll do it all again
Not because we ain't in love, but because we enjoy this sin
Tangled in the sheets trying to make this bliss last for infinity
And when we don't find what we seek with this one, on to the next for the remedy
At home we cover our guilt with honey as though she won't know
As though she isn't creeping as soon as she sees you go
Funny the games we play all in the name of pleasure
A lot of times taking for granted our priceless treasures
We make the best of what we have when we have it
But sometimes love isn't even enough to break a bad habit

What about now

I don't even know how to start
Me speechless, my mama wouldn't believe it
To be honest ...
It's hard for me to see it
I'm just thinking about us
Thinking about me and you
Thinking about how we faded
Wondering what did I do
It's said one shouldn't dwell on the past
To say I don't would be a lie
Because you were truly the reason I smiled
You were the twinkle in my eye
Never thought I'd be so disappointed
So I'm stuck wondering how It's just that you were so uplifting
But damn what about now

And so it is

It's crazy how things always change
And usually not for the better
Smiles to frowns, laughter to tears
What happened to sunny weather
As hard as it is at times
You just gotta move on
But where do you go when you feel exposed
About to lose home
From love and hugs to barbs and insults
Rainbows and sunshine to cold thunderstorms
I haven't did anything to deserve it
So I don't understand where it's coming from Gary was peeking at you in the shower
Your engagement went to hell
And you aspired to be in the dental profession
That hasn't gone so well
Taren I NEVER crossed you
I've only wanted to see you up
Now I give up
And you've made it where I don't wanna give a fuck

So high

I feel high baby
This feeling is so beautiful
And I'm truly addicted
So far from the usual
All that matters is my high
I don't care about anything else
I just fiend for your affection
I just can't help myself
But this curse is blessing
You make me feel whole
You set my body on fire
But this love also soothes my soul
Baby I'm so far gone
I'd do anything just to touch you
You're all I need and more
Baby I cherish you and I love you

My Boo

Listening to Faith Evans' "As soon as I get home"

I'm thinking about you, my baby

I want to know that this is real

Because for you I'm crazy

I'm in my feelings about you

Literally tears in my eyes

I wasn't expecting to feel this way

Wasn't expecting such a prize

I need to hear your voice regularly

I think about you everyday

You're so special to me

More than I could say

You make me feel so good

All I want is you

I can take on the world

I'm Superman because you're my boo

Hold Me

You're my only weakness
Nothing else could harm me
And for another man to have you ..
Baby he'll need an army
Only you can pick me up
Baby, when I'm down
You're the strength of me, my love, my energy
So baby I need you around
I wish I could find the words to ..
To say how much you mean to my heart
I was dead, you brought me alive
Without you my heart couldn't start
Baby you mean the world to me
But now I don't feel like you chose me
Shit is ugly right now and you're my savior
Baby I need you to hold me

All Yours

If you're a mistake
Then I'll just mess up repeatedly
Because if I know only one thing
I know you're meant for me
You're the only girl in the world
At least that's how it seems Yeah, there's plenty in reality
But you're the only one from my dreams
I'd drown water for you
Baby you just put something on me
Now through eternity baby
I'm all yours and yours only

Locked outta heaven

Reminiscing on our good days
Remembering when things were better
Wishing I could go back to being Bonnie and Clyde Thought we'd always be together
I was your knight in shining armor
And your cuddly teddy bear
Although we're separated
Baby I still care
I still wanna be your everything
I feel incomplete without you
I can't go on like this Tell me what I need to do
I need just one wish from a genie
One love spell from a wizard
If my kisses were snowflakes
Baby I'd send you a blizzard
I love you 25/8
I need more than 24/7
Being without your love ...
Is like being locked outta heaven

A dab of sugar

You may not believe it
But you've growing to be special to me
I daily look forward to your mail
Who'd thought this could be I'll never take you for granted
Because I cherish this bond that we're creating And I value your companionship
Never get that mistaken
You truly do bring sunshine into my life
Even with the simplest things you do
I want you to know you're special
And I'm always thinking about you

365

Rain rain go away
That used to be my life story
Not much glamour or sunshine
Very little glory
And then came you
My angel in disguise
You soothed my soul
Brought happiness back into my eyes
Your voice alone brings me joy
I could never truly explain how I feel
But I can promise you this ...
My love for you is real
It's been a year now
Will you be here through anything
Are you down for me and only me
Will you be my everything
All I want is you
You are all I need
What can I do baby ..
To make you feel that way about me

You're so beautiful

Again and again you amaze me
You amaze me just by who you are
You light up my entire world
Your smile is bright as a star
Baby I'm in-love with your voice
In-love with your conversation
I'd climb a mountain, swim an ocean
Anything for you, no hesitation
I love your lips, your eyes
Your fragrance, your touch
I love your strength and your style
There's so many reasons I love you so much Baby you're so beautiful
Beautiful in every way
You're all I could ever need in a woman
And I fall for you more everyday

Broken Man

Homicidal thoughts, no discriminating
Bodies in acid, limbs sawed and battered faces
Humble dude gone bad due to circumstances
Idiots playing with their lives not realizing they're taking chances
My patience is tried and my pride tested
And if I lose my cool I lose all my hard work invested
I'll give my all to help another, that only makes me weak
It's said that in the end the world's inherited by the meek
In desperate situations sometimes the humble turn into hyenas
It's hard being treated like baby food, marshmallows, viennas
"Fuck it" is the mindset that wins in this jungle Get what you need by any means, rather conniving or a rumble
My life is enough to drive a lesser man bananas
Locked down and penniless, surrounded by guys representing bandanas
Losing weight I can't stand to spare and bumming soap
Wondering where is the love, barely hanging onto hope
The greatest master is one who master's self Once self is understood, one can deal with anything else
So I pray for patience, knowledge, understanding, forgiveness, and perseverance
Because in this gloom and despair I terribly need God's nearness
I know that in these dire situations only god can fix a broken man
These are the moments when there is only one set of footprints in the sand

If it isn't love

If it isn't love ...

Why do I feel this way

Why do I think about you everyday

Why did I ask you to be my wife

Why don't I wanna live without you in my life

If it isn't love ...

Why does my body crave you so much

Why do I fiend for your touch

Why do I feel better than I ever have

Why do I need you so bad ...

... If it isn't love

Disconnected

Shaking my head in sorrow
But no tears drop
No sense lying, I thought I was dying
Thought my heart would stop
Hell yeah love hurts
When you're in-love alone
Music playing in my head
Melanie Fiona
Jazmine Sullivan
Mz.Keyshia Cole
I just may never love again
It's a clear sign interest is lost ...
When affection is being neglected
You've made it obvious how you feel
We are obviously disconnected

Boy meets girl

Boy meets girl
That's how this story begins
And they like each other
So they quickly become friends
They enjoy their friendship
But boy soon wants more
Girl isn't ready to go to the next level
But she's worth waiting for Girl is an amazing woman
So naturally boy falls in-love
She's sexy, sassy and sophisticated
She's a treasure from above
Boy lives to please girl
For girl, boy will conquer the world
And regardless of what they go through Boy is going to always love girl

Stand by me

It's said there's strength in numbers
Well I've fiended for you a million times
You've opened me up by just being you
Even when you're not around, you're still on my mind
Like bees to honey
You have an aura that draws me to you
It's your smile, your style
Baby it's everything you do
I can't say I deserve you
But I'm willing to earn your affection
And I know I'm not the perfect man
But I'll learn to be your perfection
I can't promise you the world
But still I say...baby try me
Because all of me is what I can promise
If you're willing to be the woman to stand by me

Tomorrow isn't promised

I'm ashamed of what I'm about to say
But a man must speak honestly Initially I didn't adore you as I should
I didn't cherish your modesty
I didn't appreciate your sacrifices
I didn't understand your depth
You care for me unconditionally
And I was only concerned about myself
But still you've been there for me
You loved me through it all
I've stumbled again and again
And repeatedly you'd pick me up when I fall
I don't know how I got to be so blessed
But baby my love for you is 10x deeper than any ocean
I'd describe this if I could
But it's too far beyond any known emotion
Losing you is NOT an option
Because of you I'm a man more polished
And I deeply value every moment we share
Because I know tomorrow isn't promised

I Fight

I fight
I fight with all my strength
I fight because I know
I know this isn't meant
The greatest master is ...
The one who masters self
We know our strengths and weaknesses
We know better than anyone else
Old habits are hard to break
And there's a reason virtues are virtues
Available to be utilized by everybody
But only mastered by few
So I fight
I fight to see with my mind
I fight to understand my flaws
To stick to my path over time
It's so easy to do what's wrong
Even though we know what's right
Daily I struggle with myself, but ...
I'll never give up , forever I fight

True Luv

True luv is those whispers that soothe the soul
True luv is holding hands even when we're asleep just to feel whole
True luv is your sweet kisses even when you're mad at me
True luv is trials and tribulations, and feeling blessed even in tragedy
True luv is the strength I get from your hugs when I'm in pain
True luv is the joy I feel when you say my name
True luv is the deep conversations we have when we're not even talking True luv is how you turn me on doing something simple as walking
True luv is faith in our bond and trust in our unity True luv is butterflies in my stomach and the heart racing, that's what you do to me
True luv is thinking about you daily and seeing you in my dreams
True luv is always trying to make us work and believing in our team
True luv is having you in my arms and knowing that's where you belong True luv is that caress in your voice, that passion in your eyes that makes me feel so strong
True love is respect, affection, loyalty, communication, and trust
True luv is the blissful joy I'm proud to say is shared by us

Wonder Woman

I bet you've wondered why I call you Wonder Woman
Because you truly are my hero
I'm crying writing this
You are the only person who's forever lifted me up from zero
I could never truly explain how much you mean to me
You've always been there when everyone else has left me for dead
You've been the wings beneath my wings
The voice encouraging me to lift my head
You've believed in me even when I've disappointed you You'd just always focus on the good
You continue your support just because you truly care
Even when others slacked or disappeared as quick as they could No blood relation, nor race relation, and two decades apart
So most can't understand
But I do because I care on the same level
I've always imitated you as best as I can
I couldn't ever thank you enough
But that doesn't mean I won't try
Thank ya, thank ya, thank ya, thank ya, thank ya, thank ya
I'd havta keep going until I die
I'll love and appreciate you forever
You even suffer my conversation when my breath is tart
Seriously though, you are the greatest hero ever
And you'll always have a special place in my heart
