I AM

My Spiritual Entity refuses despondency, Thus the "I Am" in me refuses to be broken

Although self gratification is no longer obtained from activities I normally participate

The divinity is inseparable, The power wisdom bestows offers satisfaction Immeasurable

Today I view tomorrow; the future manifest in the present
One with the Universe, Connected to all whom Comprehends the Unspoken message

Meanings within meanings, significant words hold life
Pay attention to the Conversationalist, direct expressions the writer writes Felicitate the performance This is the inner most "being" being exposed

The Nocturnal Visionary hoping to shine light on all Seeking Unification Crying for Edification Tired of relating with Alone Empower me as I search for my rightful position as I validate self worth

Witness the growth, prosperous mentally I am instrumental Can you see the life within?

No More words needed For "I AM"

Knowing, Feeling, Understanding

Johnny L. Jones

Know it in your heart, Feel it in your soul, Understand it in your mind
What means nothing is easily forgotten, what matters withstands the hardship of time

The struggle means nothing, overcoming them builds Character and Pride Through the struggle we fight knowing God will protect and provide Even in those moments when all seems bleak and lost
Or in those seconds where we lose all train of thought

Know it in your heart, Feel it in your soul, Understand it in your mind
No one is perfect and even the greatest makes mistakes sometimes As long as we admit them and learn from em we're better then we were at first

At the same time we must forgive even the transgressions that hurt the worst
Only then can we achieve the glory that's ours to hold
Only then can we withstand the weight that seems unwilling to let us unload

Know it in your heart, Feel it in your soul, Understand it in your mind
The greatest times are to come and get claimed as yours and mine
The doubt that cloud judgement will never effect me so this is one battle the devil will not win

My faith in you continues even when circumstances have you deterring
I will persevere, we will reunite, the fire will burn, the light will shine
You will make it, you will hold on, that something I know inside

Know it in your heart, Feel it in your soul, Understand it in your mind
Relationships may fail, associates may bail, A true friend last a lifetime
Even when you don't move to the rhythm they beat or get how they want you to
Still the loyalty lives and they accept your faults without trying to belittle you

That's why I'm still here for you, you'll recognize and respect it in due time
I know it in my heart, I feel it in my soul, I understand it in my mind

FIRE

Sometimes I cry but no tears leave my eyes
So I sit round meditating while constantly crying inside
"What are you crying for I ask myself? What are you yearning for?"
Sometimes I'll answer myself but sometimes the answers I abhor secretly wanting more never fully satisfied Appreciating what I have and thanking Yehweh at all times still wondering why its so hard for me to obtain what I desire
Fire.. Fire... Fire.... Fire.....

Shes just a woman nothing more and nothing less
But I see so much in her; thats because she's realized she's blessed
What am I supposed to say, how can I remain respectful and aloof
Why do I feel as though there should be something I can do
How can I imagine to smother something that I can't even define Sometimes I feel as though I am truly losing my mind
Fire.. Fire... Fire.... Fire.....

Shadows are playing tricks, Voices are calling again
Every heartbeat seems to have embraced a twin Visions of Fairy tales that come true in a Fantasy Land
Candy Coated rain drops Soda water Falls Chocolate and Vanilla Sand Words hold deeper meanings then the average can comprehend No more listening to respond, its all come to listening to take it in still wondering why its so hard for me to obtain what I desire
Fire.. Fire... Fire.... Fire.....

From the soles of my feet to the pit of my stomach it continues to rise higher
It warms, It heats, It burns Its.....

Fire.. Fire... Fire.... Fire.....

A Hoodsta Got Feelings

How Could a man Like me Imagine to find a Compatible mate? Someone whos strong enough to take the situations I bring... My Lifestyle aint been the best, And my point of view was so messed up I Couldn't even realize when I was blessed. Done had some good Chics on some good tips, furnished those relationships to Copulate a No good Chic. Now Im sitting with my head in my hands, reminiscing while the good times playing. I guess I finally Understand that A man need a woman, and a woman need a man IF we gone keep it honest. But am I having Selfish intents to want someone to come and share me with this, A Lifestyle of Continuous twist? Even though I promise permanent bliss, I Cant forget to mention that loving me is a Continuous risk. But hold my hand and I vow to try to do better, One day we'll walk away together

This Girl told me she loved me, I had to wonder IF she meant it, did she realize the type of man she was getting. All I wanted to do was Chase Cash and drink liquor, while running behind dreams that I made when I was little. My heart was pumping wanting more my mind was telling me to change, but my spirit was afflicted so my soul was telling me to bang. Didn't wanna hurt her but I didn't wanna lose her, so I did the best I could to hold on to her. Now Im looking for A New one, will somebody please touch me, A Hoodsta got Feelings will somebody please love me? The last one that loved me ended up ended up saying Fuck me, the judge gave me a date that wasn't ever coming. I guess I broke so many hearts that it came back on me, Had alot of sex still ended up lonely. Now IF I could only get one woman to pray, And mean every word when she finally say it.....

UnCovered

From the beginning My destiny was written and I abused the feelings of others

Only to come to this point in my life where the true me has been UnCovered

Remember the days when the world revolved around me and what "I" wanted to do

That's such a far cry from my wishing I could share the world with you

How could emotional attachments become so emotionally jumbled
I guess this comes with growth and being emotionally humbled Sometimes I sit and wish I could change past actions but I know that's wishful thinking

Wouldn't it be wonderful though IF life could be as a eye that's blinking

Once protected twice cleansing without even giving it a thought Months on month without you feels as though I've reached a drought

All the days I thought I had it all together and feeling like the big man

Now I look back and see those were days I was playing
I can clearly see how foolish we are at times
Willing to deceive without the least bit of regret in the heart or mind
Increasing bad karma planting bad seeds
Loving every moment of unethical morals and deeds Leaving that behind, fatality ways must be smothered, Everything I didn't know was inside of me has finally been UnCovered

In Complete Thought

At once everything turns into something that it didn't seem to be
All of a sudden the noise begins and it's an end to peace Maybe the noise was there all along and I didn't wanna hear it maybe it would've been immaterial if I wouldn't have let it near me Either way it goes it's there and it must have always been
The true reason why I'm constantly saying and feeling that I have no friends
An outsider to the world, Yehweh please keep your hands on my life
I can't relate to most of these mortals that's been in and out of my life Damn! My head is hurting, am I thinking too much, too hard, too long Should I put this pen down and rest or should I continue to go on It's a wrap for the moment; for the moment it's a wrap still I remain positive and constantly find a way to survive and adapt Changing and growing the way we all must do if we hope to achieve and advance
Paving a way for the generation that's still to come and needs to understand

Forever

Permanent, Indefinitely, Eternally, Forever
Could those four words had meanings so deep that some will never comprehend?
Words that barely justify an emotion that was never asked to begin Or would it C wrong for someone to expect this kind of Commitment from someone else?

When the person asking has no idea what would happen while he/she is not there
I'm just asking because those words define so much its almost unthinkable

Think about it; Permanent, Indefinitely, Eternally, Forever
Now do you see what I mean?

Maybe its just wishful thinking but these are the words I seem to need
At the same time though I'm not even sure that I'm completely worthy of this

Do you think I deserve something thats permanent?

Can someone offer me anything Indefinitely?

Would I appreciate something Eternally?

Should I even have anything forever?

I'm not even sure so I wont even pretend

But I do know I could stay beside you this way to the end

I'm positive that the way I feel will last as long as the river flows
My spirit will search for yours through good and bad, highs and lows

As long as you're willing, If you're willing I want to see us together Happily beside eachother with a permanent love thats built to last I'm definitely eternally and forever.

Slowly Fading Away

One of the hardest things in this world to do is watch someone you love as they slowly die and fade away. To see their body deteriorate and not being able to do anything about. "Its hard".

One day I had a visit from some of my people and I saw it in her eyes, I saw it in her face before she even told me. A part of me honestly believes that I knew it before that day. SubConsciously I was warned, prepared,

That didn't make me love her any less, In fact, it made me love her that much more. She could never be an outcast in my eyes but that was something she feared. The world had already given her too much of it's back. Although I couldn't exactly say I felt her, I could comprehend and relate on some level. That feeling of slowly dying, slowly fading away, while the world kept moving is one that I've had. I guess she's in her own prison.

So to everyone that has this terrible disease that she has. This disease that I believe is man made. I want you all to know, I hold you all close to my heart, I've never been through it and I pray daily it never shows up but I do know it gets painful. I do know it makes you feel alienated, some people don't understand it and many are afraid to try, but don't let the ways of others kill your spirit. Pray daily and do what you can to make the best of the life that you do have left.

And to everyone in this world that shies away from the people afflicted with this disease; it's time to step up and embrace. As they slowly fade away, we must reach out and help the sparkie spark. Bringing smiles to faces that rarely smile. Putting the stars in eyes that rarely shine. Think about if the situation was reversed...

...Think about the whole situation...

I love You and you know it's for you...

More Than Anything (T.Y.)

Wonderfully Created by A wonderful Creator

While the wilderness calls as she strives for greatness
More than anything she wishes to elevate

Mentally Spiritually Emotionally Invigorate

Vowing to live for self protection repressing attachments of feelings

Trust has died as the hardness settles and the heart becomes bitter Man seems to be the adversary, the villain whose Unsympathetic

She's been deceived and discriminated against No longer willing to accept

As the roots of her hair digs in the soil of her skull

The locks continue to entwine and bud

Her strength is found

No longer being suppressed No longer remaining silent and still

The true essence of her, the fire that burns within desires to be revealed She recognizes the falsehood of nihilism, her alleviation comes through meditation

Subconsciously, More than anything peace and contentment Iterating Experiencing the spirit but refusing to accept all the spirit produces

Hiding in the open Civilly reclusive

Falling while climbing, swimming with her head above water but drowning Refusing a hand, the feeling or thought of a debt to anyone; profounding

So insightful Intelligent knowing wise

So stubborn Confused blind

More than anything else she's over protective of herself

More than anything else I want to show, she is loved and honored Recognized and respected by someone else

Two Compatible Uncompatible Hearts

When two hearts agree exactly in value having the necessary strength or ability to beat in unison it is a blessing from the highest and nothing or no one should be able to come between that.

Two people can smile and rejoice together, promoting the culture that has kept great grandmothers and great grandfathers together.

Think about that for a minute... Isn't that Stevie Wonder Wonderful and Lovely?

Knowing that your soul can relax in perfect harmony and peace: Allowing your spirit to dwell in a state of ease.

That's what I had... A perfect feeling from the heart to the soul and you're the one who gave me that.

Then two hearts disagreed and started beefing. The friendly touches and words faded and started dying.

One heart soon became quiet while one began to make the inarticulate sounds of grief and pain that usually accompanied by tears

Feeling left out for dead but unwilling to travel about. Especially in search of adventure; Not wanting to stray from a proper course or standard

Not given to conversation but truly yearning for inspiration: Motivation

Does this make any sense at all?

From love blessed by Yahweh to beef inspired by the world

How can two exist in the same heart and soul?

ONE must go...

Think about that for a minute... Isn't that music Soul Child Love Sad?

This may not make sense to the masses but you and I know and that's all that really matters.

We don't wanna beef with yall...

Can we agree on that?

No one ever said that life was easy
Who knew it would or could be so hard
Being born in a world of sin and before you even start teething
Your momm~~am~~ and daddy are both behind bars
Where is mommy? Where is daddy?
Wouldn't anyone ask these questions?
Who knows what you'll be told to keep you happy and to keep you from stressing

Lord Please Bless My Journey

The picture is being painted
Is anyone truly paying attention?
The innocent has been tainted
In my mind it's crystal clear and vivid; more than an image
The sorrow that is hidden
The smiles that are shown
Is Auntie really forgetting
That momma and Daddy may never come home?

Lord Please Bless My Journey

The road is rough and bumpy
The load is heavy and lumpy
Everything seems to be crumbling
We have to hold on to something
There's nothing I can do
To make it lighter or to smooth it out
Witnessing this Journey from a distance
With only prayers to send out
Years have passed and it seems like only last week
From the fetal position to walking and now being able to speak
They say she's my child and I don't know what's truth
I'll rather chance claiming her before I chance denying someone so pure Never did I imagine I would cause so much pain
I've left my Baby Girl without me and Journey is her name

After the IF's

IF I Could tell you everyday as long as we live I will Never stop loving you

That is something that I am more than willing and ready to do
IF you don't feel beautiful at all times, think about the last time you heard it from me

Whats up Beautiful? How you doing Beautiful? I Love you beautiful, Now do you see?

IF A few words from me could pull us together please smile when I say them

Make sure that I Catch on so I will never forget to replay them
IF we could press rewind, IF I could try it again, If you would allow it
Your shine could be our shine And My shine would constantly blossom
IF you only wanted to prove that some IF's can turn into dids and do's
Before the world read this It would have been sent to you IF you are reading it now I pray you are smiling out and within
IF you are then theres a chance I will have my shine again

Ma Wookie

The day you were born was a day of blessings
The Angels sang songs and taught the baby angels lessons
You are one of the greatest creations of Gods hands
A perfect symbol of his divine love and his ultimate plan
Year after year you've been constantly blessed
Given the opportunity to celebrate in the midst of all this mess
Year after year you've been allowed to enrich other lives
As a friend, mother, mentor, Girlfriend or Common law wife Everyday I pray for you and thank the Creator
You've been my encouragement and my biggest motivator
Over the years many have turned and love was not shown
When it came to you I always knew your love would stay strong
The tribulations and trials bring us closer the struggle kept you fighting
The power you possessed was contagious and I admit I like it You're my everything and I'll do anything to show and prove Ma Wookie I love you and I'm sorry for hurting you.

I Know God Got me

When all else fails and it seems there is no where to turn
While I'm feeling confused and so eager to learn

When I know deep down that everything will turn out fine
Even though I'm incarcerated and men sentenced me to a lot of time

I Know God Got me

When I do or say something that others don't agree with
And the ones that say they love me and are loyal flee away speedily Leaving me to face the situations I put myself in on my own Giving me a reason to say "I knew it wouldn't last long"

I Know God Got me

When the funds are low and I can't offer or receive a helping hand
And prayers are the only reason I keep the strength to stand
When stress comes and depression seems like it isn't that far away
All I do is keep hope alive by never losing faith

I Know God Got me

I stare at the walls and the ceiling and talk to the one that created
I pour my troubles out to him and let him deal with the ones that's faking and hating

Refusing to play a game to be accepted by the world's religious masses Never betraying myself by giving the answer the desire when they start question asking

Knowing that if I'm gonna pray, worry I must deny
So I continue to travel this road, learning as I live, never live a lie Bowing down to the only one that I know will always keep it real Regardless of what "they" say, "they" think or how "they" feel
I know the only one I have to justify anything to is him

I Know God Got me

Johnny L. Jones V15226

Reasons To Thank God

Another day that my eyes have opened
Another chance to walk and speak words that's chosen
My mind is still in tact, all my senses are in tune
I have been able to send up prayers and praise in the morning and noon
No worries necessary and I know my situations are settled
A long way I have come, he truly has made me better
My body feels no pain and the doctors say I'm in good health
Test results come negative so taking any kinds of meds are rare
My family is being taken care of even while I'm away
Sometimes it's a struggle but they make it through each day
At times I receive mail, God touched somebody's heart
Even when it's not a letter and it's just a few words written in a card
My sleeps are not fitful, rest comes easy and sweet
I can walk around with my head high not worry about anything happening to me
A breath of fresh air is another day to hope and keep the faith
While a simple hello and God Bless you brings a smile to the face
Some wonder how I can smile and rejoice even when times seem so hard
And to me that is just another reason for me to thank God.

Alone

As the night kisses the morning and the sun begins to wipe the Cold from its eyes

I find myself accepting hugs from dew filled and my mind turns on its axis in over time

My solitude kisses in and the confines are more than eager to be felt
This ain't living, this can't be life, more has to come before I reach death Contemporaries exclude me due to my failures in certain areas and my openness in others

But a perfect man there has never been and theres no such thing as half gudda
So even as I pen this, my "o" side is battling to get released, crying to speak out

While spirits lay dormant that I really need to find ways to speak about
But even as darkness fades into lighter shades and songs get song by Blue Jays

The fan blows and the light glows but still my soul is in disarray Old wounds resurface and past hate or anguish caused by deceit lifts its head and gnaws at my inside

I find myself wishing, wanting, searching and beggin for a display of love to come from some side

The emptiness and hollowness is finally becoming to much to bear
Now I understand the emotional conflict that comes from watching
"Good time friends" disappear

Struggle relates understand, so they feel what I feel coming from deep within

Trust dies, loyalty lingers with a vow to never get crossed again
In the end it amounts to nothing and the world continues to spin Going on as though alone should have never been allowed in while I agree, I understand, it's just like a child, it never asked to be born

Intellectually Inclined Sophisticated mind / When I grind its a grind for more than just a shine

Wonna see my whole family with it / And open doors for those that Affiliatw with me

So many penitentiary Chances taken just trying to make it / And doing time was my last vacation

A based off my observation you procrastinating / thinking crime the only way to make it

So aint no patiently waiting no no time for pacing / Im on the move like its time for racing

Take a look at the nation understand my occupation / Is defined by what feed the babies

The moves Im making got a outcome predestinated / I can see it thats Visualization DNE stand my statements Im laying the basics / want the whole world to have to face it

"Im More Than Just Another Nigga"

A proud man I stand with my gun in hand / wit reasons to spare him steady running through my head

Is it worth it? If I decide it is does that make me Imperfect? / Will pulling the triqga curse me?

All I know is gun blazin money Chasin / Maccin a Chic for Copulation Im just relating

The fact of the matter is, my environment put me in predicaments / where I had to handle shit

But Im more than just another nigga that wanna run the street / I know the true definition of love and loyalty

The code of a G I understand perfectly / Its been breded in me before I heard of the streets

So pay attention when a Hoodsta speak / I done earned the Authority to use a bar and give you a "v"

Never step on one like me / It runs through me deep Cant you see

Im more than just another Nigga

Cuz, My Lil Homie, My rida

I hate I had to miss times behind times I was jammed up / I hate I had to miss chances to teach you how to man up

But I promise you I neva forgot about you at all / That's why b4 you could write
I still wrote if I couldn't call

If I only had a dollar I would split it with you / You 3 Journey get 49 I'm good with two

It's true love like everytime I see one of your pictures / I see you getting bigger and I'm wishin I was there with you Sittin on my bunk vibin to the music and chillin / blowed like a horn storin up ~~at~~ the ceiling

Wonderin what you hoping you good in school / Prayin you don't get caught up with the wrong lil dudes

Prayin you don't get caught up the same way I did / I done heard it's worse when it comes to your kids

You my Lil Homie 3 I love you to death. forgive me for the times I wasn't there. I know sometimes it seemed like I didn't care, but I swear I'm right here

I'm so proud of you Lil Homie 3 I want you to know / You touched me to my heart with that lil rhyme you wrote

You ain't seen your Dad in 4-5 years you know what I'm living / Friends turn they baes on you then you think they trippin

You probably don't remember that but I ain't throw it away / I still got that same letter right now til this day

That's when you told you was crazy bout that Lil Wayne / I told you Pies. B.G
Jeezy spit that game

Never forget none of the times we had / Fliz'ing it up at the lake you 3 Dad

I sent them pictures up the road to T.J and Jah / Mario from Arkansas and to Dolph

I asked you which ones to send / And you told me all of em if them boys my friends

I just smiled and ain't say nothing / Paige say Yeah, that's Lil Johnny

In Our Times

At times we get lost and we don't know which way to go
At times we reap from Harvest what we didn't intentionally sow
At times our pride gets in the way of rational thought
At times our patience is tested and we forget everything we've been taught
At times we feel stranded as though we are all alone
At times we feel as though we don't have the strength to carry on

Those are the times we should pray and ask God for direction
Those are the times we should seek forgiveness and count on him for protection

When pride gets in the way, it's time to humble ourselves Taking the time to remember we won't get tempted beyond what we can bear

So we praise him all the time and thank him for the ones that remain a true friend

We learn from those times and use it as strength for the times that we're in

Points of Collaboration

Johnny L. Jones

Heartbeats racing Emotions Escalating
Thoughts coincide, Pride being put aside
The past being left behind, Future left to find

As the wind blows and the river flows
The clouds roll the sun glows
The rain falls the ground dissolves
What was once fades as what is Evolves

Points of Collaboration

The mind begins to accept the changes
From not wanting and not caring to seeking more and becoming famous
There was a time when love was lost

Then times came where the same was sought
Who can say where it begins or where it truly ends Words were spoken and things were chosen but was it ever truly about friends

From the beginning it was written
Something inside was silently clicking
Souls spoke in volumes when eye contact was made
What was meant was already in its second or third stage

Points of Collaboration

Being able to vibe was without a question
At the time we didn't even know that was part of the blessing
Conscious meeting subconscious soulbody reaching for the spirit
The flesh being left behind as we aim to please whats in it

Your words, My words, Your thoughts, My thoughts
Your feelings, My feelings, Love we unknowingly sought Touched by an Angel is how it seems when you're left with that Inspiration

You end up wondering when, where and how you ever collaborated

Symbols OF Love

Soft touches, Gentle Caresses
Heightening the senses, Sending Sensations down to your deepest sections Enchanting glances, mesmerizing Stares Defining things past present or to get Futures shared Words whispered, statements declared
The Vibe was right before the Fruits were beared Respect shown, Trust earned
Allowing Loyalty the opportunity to learn Commitment agreed, dedication Volunteered
Connections made that can continue to strengthen over the years
Common goals, United plans
Expenditures Experienced together hand in hand

Symbols OF Love

Passionate days, Erotic nights
Bodies entwined Causing souls to ignite sensual thrusts, Intensive poundings Fashioning Climaxes to be released Astoundingly
Yells of pleasure, grunts of fulfillment
Signifying the joy from an adventurous and Thrilling rendition

Empty Feelings when seperated
Cant wait to be united again
Simple days Feel like a Celebration
Heres a toast to being lovers and friends
Self no longer Comes first Sharing decisions about everything
Heart so filled it might burst
All in a four letter word name sympathizing with another
There is no such thing as only your pain
Two hearts beating with each other
We feel, we Need, We desire
Symbols of love are our things

Finding the strength to live up to my potential

I Am A Black Sun

I have, do, ³ will shine even in darkness

Giving light to those that need to see providing nourishment for those that wish to eat

I Am A Black Sun

I have, do ³ will shine even in darkness

Even while I am being held hostage as an Inmate in Florida D.O.C, Mentally, Spiritually and Emotionally I remain with you all those on the other side of these walls and Gates

I will not stagnate Nothing will stop me from Shining

Johnny L. Jones

The END.... For Now
