Volume VII; Saying Good-bye

Written by: Steven J. Griffin

TRUTH volume VII; Saying Goodbye

Author: Steven J. Griffin

Date: June 28th 2015

Poetry

So you believe you have heard it all?
Come inside my soul and mind, attempt to wrap
Your conscience around my cold, diabolical sense
Of release.

Acknowledgement

A friend of mine Gary Belle Isle showed me something I've been missing all these years. I've never needed you for closer -- that's something I had to discover and act upon w/in myself -- Thank You Gary.

Author Manifesto

I'm saying Good-bye to some people, to some ideas, to some dreams. Holding on to these things had left me closed off ... now that I say Good-bye -- my mind, heart, and soul are again open and ready to be loved. I hope you will understand.

I'm also sharing some more dark arts, sexual content, and fear.

Now that I've found closer... I must say I'm not going to live on this world forever -- My mind, body, heart, soul are open and receptive -- I'm seeking friendship, companionship, Love, to settle down and get married. At publication I still have 8 years left to do. I'm looking for a woman that will take the time to get to know me, not be judgemental. Using the Chinese Zodiac and birthdates I created a compatibility chart so if you meet the full birthdate and are interested, please feel free to write me: current address: Steven J. Good-Bye

Poems

Brat

My darling little brat

I don't care if you gain 100lbs and become fat

You know I'll suck your blood like a vampire bat

You can buzz around me like a swarm of gnats

I can show you, you don't need me to be happy

I'm saddened, I wanted to be your babies daddy

I no longer want to make you mine

I don't need you like grapes need their vine

Beautiful

I have pictures of you in my photo Album
You are still so beautiful, makes my heart hum
You have that long, dark, thick tigers' mane
The love I held for you, drove me insane
You have those beautiful little ears and nose
You know I even loved to caress your fingers and toes
Your eyes made me fall everyday in love
I always imagined us soulmates, always forever like dove
That beautiful laugh and sexy voice
Every other sound I heard was white noise
Your art talent and beautiful ~~mind~~
I used to believe you were my perfect find Your beautiful legs and thighs
Always mesmerized me like your eyes
Your tongue and double D breasts
Were just as beautiful as the rest

Three Words

Thoes three words I said to you
I ment them with the good parts of my heart, Boo
Although the disturbed parts burned bright
I tried to fight the mistakes, in the end they are right

The three words that you said back You ment them with your pure heart w/o lack Peer pressure swayed your heart
Your friends attacked like frenzied sharks

Three most powerful words I've ever heard
They effect everyone from Jocks to nerds
Do you know what thoes three words are?
There are no other words up to par

Everyone has a different set of three words
Your words could go low or fly high like birds I hate you? Go to hell? well, well, well what could they be?

You know I loved you and I know you loved me

Muse

While we made love, I drank blood from your left breast

You asked and I lied telling you, you were not the best
I told you to judge I had to again have sex with all the rest

Thoes words hurt you so bad, took away your zest

You still continued to do your best for me
I was too busy looking around to see
I had all I need, and so did you
Our love was blossoming, it grew, grew, grew

You were good to me, you were my MUSE
You opened yourself to me, for me to use
Use for the good of our relationship and love
I used you for my own guilty pleasures

NO Longer

I can no longer chase behind your shadow hoping to catch a glimpse

I can no longer invest my mind, body, heart, and soul on someone that's been over me

I can no longer take myself hostage, tormenting myself on false hope

I can no longer die each day reliving our errors

I can no longer be blinded by love and not see the truth

I can no longer hate myself for our failed relationship

I can no longer day dream about getting back with you

I can no longer hold on to my fantasy of reality

Broken vow

She hates me now

I cheated, lied, and broke my vow

To be faithful and honest for all time

I was young and stupid in my prime

I yelled and cussed her for no reason

I look back now, feeling like I committed treason

I told her I was not willing to wait for sex

That's about the time I became her ex

She told me that pregnancy could fade her away

I did not even take heed to what she had to say

I never knocked-up a faithful, so I said I'm sterile

I even said a doctor checked my seed, lying to my peril

I wanted her to ask me not to leave

All I longed to hear was please don't leave Steve

She asked when I was coming back

I told her she had to leave Nevada, that was like telling an addict to quit crack

Her mother caught us about to make love
She told me to grab my shit and gave a verbal shove
She lied and told her mom, it was our first time
In reality we had sex like rabbits, was it a crime?

She was my dime piece and I spent her
I took everything about her for granted, I'm sure
If I had been mature, she would be my wife now Instead all I've got are the words of my
broken vow

Seek and Hide

I open my heart thinking she's the one
One that will soothe me and not break me for fun Fun she enjoys with her entire being,
Being my death that my hearts not seeing

Seeing her past, we have no future
Future for love, she has many suitors Suitors for every day of the week she has Has not the love that I seek

Seek and hide, spy and peek
Peek I must to see the truth
Truth in lies, in that evil bitches eyes
Eyes for men, while my heart cries

Cries with pain of being cheated Cheated from Love that I needed
Needed to survive this hurtful world
World in which this life unfurled

Tell me

You told me a sports took your virginity
Later you called me up crying, saying you were molested
But you condemn me for telling you a lie Infact you refuse to even talk to me

Why hate me so, when a lie is a lie
I don't hate you for telling me a lie Infact I don't hate you at all
I forgave your dishonesty, why could you not forgive mine?

I sent the last letter to you
Next you hear will be by phone
I just want to hear you are happy
That you received all my letters

I would like to hear or read your words
That you are done for sure

I still have some hope, am I a dope?
Just write me a few words to say,
I'm done with you forever and a day

LOSE YOU

We used to make love all the time
If it were in Florida, it would have been a crime
We would always cuddle, talk about the future like we had a clue
I never imagined that one day I would lose you

Lose you I did, forever and a day
With-out you my world has turned dark and Gray Beside you, I wished I could Lay
I try to talk to you, you say nay as you walk away

Last I heard, you turned Gay
I understand I love women too, what can I say?
If I were a woman, you would hold me close but as a man you push me away
I never really believed our love could Fray

Lose you I did forever and a day

STAY WITH ME

Stay with me, don't go, I love you from the depths of my soul

Stay with me, you know, you fill the gaping hole

Stay with me, my dear, you will always be woman of the year

Stay with me, listen here, I'll fight away all of your fear

Stay with me, don't hate, I love you my perfect mate

Stay with me, it's fate, it's safe to remove your heart's gate

Stay with me, don't cry, you love me still and can't

Stay with me, you deny, let's give us another try

Stay with me, it's fair, please no games like truth or dare

Stay with me, we pair, allow me to show that I care

Stay with me, Gina D, our relationship will work this time wait and see

Stay with me, Brat G, your heart is locked and you took away my key

IF I HAD

If I had control over my own life
I would not be in prison, I would be there with you as my wife
I would lay in bed holding you while you sung your version of "Strangers in the night"

If I had decided to do as you asked and wait
When you think of me now would be love and not hate
We would be looking forward to making love after our next date

If I had opted to never leave
You would be saying "yes, I will Steve"
As I'm down on bended knee asking will you marry me

If I had taken the time to really listen
We would have made a better decision Not having ended our beautiful relationship in dissention

If I had never told you a lie
I would not have to listen to you Just Sigh
You would still care if I live or die

If I had stayed faithful and true
We would hold while you say "I love you"
Instead I sit here alone feeling blue When all I want is to hold and say I love you

USED UP USER

I'm a used up user
At the time I did not know but I mentally abused her

I used to yell and cuss for no reason
I always thought she was flirtin' and teasing

I would always get insanely jealous when she spoke to other men

I did not realize, that was my pride and a sin

I never hit her or ~~even~~ raised my hand
If I had I know I would have felt like less than a man

I always told her how beautiful I found her ^{to be}
But my positive does not justify the negative, you see

I did not know how sick I am, back then

I've fixed a lot of my sickness, will I see her again?

It don't look good, not with the no contact order

That should be a clear sign that she's no longer a supporter

I'm a used up user

I've been abused and I've been the Abuser

Twice As Shy

Gina is 4 1/2 years my Junior to the day
She's always been more mature, hear what I say
Mature body, mature heart, mature mind, maybe She's fae

Generous with her time and always kind
She was a diamond in the rough, a rare find
Beautiful body, Beautiful heart, Beautiful soul, Beautiful mind

Hurt once twice as shy
I pray that she's happy, I guess I was not the right guy
Her Beautiful body, heart, mind, soul has said good-bye

GOOD-BYE SWEETHEART

Good-bye sweetheart, it's time to go Would we have made it on a 2nd chance? we'll never know

You memories fade to clarity to and fro

Good-bye sweetheart, won't you stay?
You should give us a 2nd chance this very day
Clarity fades to void, gone away

Good-bye Sweetheart, are you coming back?
A 2nd chance we could go forward and not back-track I'm addicted to your memories, like an addict to crack

Good-bye Sweetheart, we had a blast
All I'm asking is a 2nd chance, it would be the last
Your voice stirs with-in my head, that's who I ask

Good-bye Sweetheart, lets take it slow
A 2nd chance would be of Good Faith Show Your shadow of an old memory that continues to grow

Good-bye Sweetheart, you've finally left To each request of a 2nd chance you've been deaf
Losing you completely used to cause me horror and grief

FEAR
POEM

Past, Present, Future

Past

I sense that you had a real rocky past
You were down and even fell on your ass
The man involved was trash at best
You still feel the pain, fear, and torment
It has lasted more than a moment
You were made to believe that you did not deserve better

Present

I understand your fear but I'll never put you in a cast
I'll always pick you up, even from the grass
I'm different and I'll pass all your tests
I'll love, honor, and hold you
It will last as long as you allow it I'm worthy of your love, I'm the man you deserve

Future

Ordained by the state you choose, we are here to celebrate these two beautiful people in matrimony

This is your future as you show your love
I promise to love, cherish, honor, be loyal, faithful, respectful, and make love to you every night.

I've learned from my past, my present, and look forward to our future

Past,
Present,
future!

You Would

Do you remember what you said you would do, when next we meet?

You said you would drop to your knees and blow me

You would take me deep until my penis weeps! Oh baby
You would swallow my cum, not drop a drop, drinking it down like Gravy

You would drop to your back and open your legs

I would kiss and lick up your inner thighs as your pussy begs

I would suck and chew on your clit, teasing your core as you moan for more

You would grab my head, thrusting your hips into my mouth

I finger your butt and suck your clit

I can feel your pussy ready for my dick

Your hips gyrate as I extend my tongue to lick

I penetrate your core and you come real quick

I eat your pussy for many hours
My dick is real hard, like a castles towers Me eating your pussy gives me powers
I always enjoy your pussy, it never sours

I kiss up your stomach to reach your breasts
Just give me time and I'll kiss the rest
I chew your nipples until you cum
You feel my hardness against your bum

You tilt your hips and I slide right in This feels so good, even tho it's a sin
Do you realize 20 years is what's it been I kiss you deep and hard, while you cum again

I pump, we grind and your pussy's soaked You're my Goddess I just evoked
My desire burns as you stroke
This is much better than when I stroke

Sweat is pouring out our pours
She's having multiple orgasms in sets of four I'm hard and long pushed deep into her core
I'm drilling like I'm mining for ore

Your finger nails dig into my back
I feel my seed building in my sack
As I cum I explode and my cum runs down your crack

I gaze into your eyes after making love, you give me a love smack

HOLE

My Ideas of happy are twisted and sick
Looking at your pink gets my fuck stick hard quick Now get on your knees and roughly suck my dick
Be ready to drink my stream of cum, it's thick

I want to tie you up, blind fold you, and insert a gag ball

I want to dress you up like a barbie doll

I want to cut you and watch your blood fall

Then I want to suck and lick it all

I'll eat your pussy and your asshole

I'll really open you up and drink your soul

You'll fight real hard when you learn my ultimate goal

I'm going to fuck real hard every hole

ASS, PUSSY, mouth, nose, I'll cut you open to create a few more

Bed, car, table, bench, wall, hall, Door, I'll even fuck you on the floor

Scream, CUSS, Squirm, and fight while I do more

Bleed blood, Squirt cum, as I fuck your core

Defeated

As I sit in my empty Shell of lonely Visions of our love torment my soul fully My heart hopes for your return, beating for you only Ice cold burning Pain severs my Life force Dually

As I try to stand my mind overcomes me and I fall
Split in two my soul battled my heart and lost

Torment becomes my way of life, I'm at it's becking call

Searing cold Flash freezes my entire being, love comes at a cost

As I crawl toward her feet, I beg for mercy My entire body Freezes and burns, sores open and close

All I smell is my defeat, mercy is denied
My heart and soul die continuously

She laughs at my constant death
She kicks me as I beg for her love
She turns and walks away as I breathe my last breath
My memory replays our time as lovers.....

22 CUTS

I took a blade and made a new scar
I silenced my emotions with physical pain
This love I hold for you drives me too far
One day I may get so down, that I hit my vein

I hold 22 self-inflicted cuts on my arms
Love, Lust, Happy, Glad, excited, Fear
When people look at me in their head they hear alarms

These are the emotions I still hold for you my dear

Physical Scars hold no candle to emotional scars Pain, Numb, depression, damned, hated

You strip my heart, drown my soul, rape my mind, over par

12 years has passed and love has not faded

Death Embrace

The Grim Reaper is the immortal sleeper
I failed in my job as my brother's keeper

Grim took my father in '01 and my mother in '07
Then came back in '13 and took my brother

To look into his eyes is to die
From the ice inside his true lies

To touch the one they call Grim
Is to experience every death known to him

To feel the touch of death's touch
Is to catch every disease and such

To experience the instantaneous death of Grim's scythe

Is to die suddenly, never knowing you are going to the grave

To be marked by Grim's Kiss

Is to live forever as it is your wish

To be realistic and embrace death

Is to waste away until nothing is left

Haunted

I am in hostile court

There is no fairness here

This is exhausting

I am drained

I am Empty

I am not only in a cold dark place but I am a cold dark place

And I'm haunted, don't forget that I'm haunted by their lies

Because of them I have no hope

It's hard to go on

Terminate my power supply; shut me down
No wait; Give me time to cope

Slice the veins!

It is not my fault I don't have the capacity for tears

You are the one's whom created me to be who I am

You should not be so judgemental

Why should I be called a villain and confined to this dark, silent void?

Something is very wrong here; Is anyone listening?
I feel so abandoned, small, and lost

The world is against me; no justice, no hope, no room for truth -- that their lies cover

You insist their lies are truth

My many voices know it's all lies, so why, why, why?
Am I alone with my voices in this cold, dark void you people created when I was made this way by lies that ruin and drain us of all hope!

Mind, Body, and Soul

My name is Steven J. Griffin inside-out my mind is trippin'

You pierce my soul with good intent in the end it was all bent

My body is an empty shell with your good intent I'll go to hell

My soul feels like burning cold when love surrounds me like poisonous mold

My mind lusts for love of a woman I can trust it must not corrode me, like steel to rust

My body is mortal, full of sin i love the cold death that comes in the end

My body decays with each passing day when I'm dead, down I shall lay

My soul will be eager to escape this life just as hers was, when I murdered my wife

My mind is fragil with each broken part ive lost it forever, like Divinci's lost art

My mind spirals down lusts empty trenches
Just as my soul is caught by Satan's henchmen
My body stands all on it's own as society says
"let's lynch him"

Steven Jr Griffin

Demented

I'm a demented unleashed freak
The things I do are not for the mind of the weak I'll open your skull and give your brain a tweak
When I peel your face off, it will leave a blood streak

I'll rip an eye out of your head
It's going to hurt so bad, you'll wish you were dead Should have never cut me in line, they said my mind hung by a thread

After the people I've tortured, I'll have near street cred.

What I do, I do real smart
I do it piece by piece, I pick you apart
At some point it will stop, it being your heart Now your dead and gone, like painters and their lost art

Psycho?

I'm a hostage inside my own mind
I don't think in reality, what do I find?
I live in a fantasy, to everything else I'm blind Society has a hard time with why I'm not kind

My mind works like a prison pound
All chaos and disorder, never sound
My aggression and anger are always wound
When I looked inside and studied me, It's not me I found

I found some sick, twisted, and deranged things I don't like
I'm really a good person, pure and innocent -- Sike

I want to torture and murder people to see how it feel

I'm not bullshittin', I'm 100% real.
Not just their body, I want to test their mind and will Society says it's not normal to want to know the thrill of the Kill

I fit the 3 bench marks wet the bed, tortured animals, and played with fire

I progressed as the pleasurable feelings grew higher
I want to find a woman just like me, I'll be her sire
We will make love in a tub of blood to stoke our desire

Psycho's Woman

She must be like me with perfect love and trust

She must use me as I use her to fulfill my lust

She must not drink or do drugs, not even angel dust Honesty, Loyalty, faithfulness and such are a must

She must have secret sick desires to share with me
I'll embrace whatever they are, I will not flee I'll bring her desires to life, just wait and see
Even if it's to have sex with the bark of a tree

We will drink each other fluids for real
She must want to experience the thrill of the kill
We can torture them first with a saw and then a drill
We can torture, drink blood, and kill until we get our fill

That fill will never come, we shall have progressive thrill

The killings will be so gruesome, sochies blood will chill

We will drain their blood until nothing is left, Nil

We will alternate each others sick desires, that will be the deal

Forsaken

The dark man enters your dreams when you awaken

It's your life that's for the taken

You will not be able to pay the boatman you are forsaken

You scream "no", he's got to be mistaken

You start to feel numb from head to toe

The dark man is taking your soul, it's so

Your shadow starts to fade, you say "please don't go"

You see the Ivory gates up high, you must be down low

You see nobody, like you are here all alone

That was your biggest fear in life, to die alone

Your mind manifests devils made of Bone

Pain seizes your entire being, you are standing in front of Satan's throne made of Bone

You skeleton sheds it's muscle and skin
A whole new wave of pain began
You are now no longer a denizen

You are now a son in the house of Satan
"Don't just stand there, it's my time your a wastin'!"

Grab a dead man's scythe, It's time for you to awaken, there are forsaken lives that need to be taken, I'm not mistaken"

Society bleeds

I'm looking for love in all the wrong places
I'm looking toward the light, instead of the dark spaces

I want the love of a woman, over Gods graces
It don't matter her skin color, I love all races

Come out of your dim space and enter my dark mind

It's true love, lust of the heart and body you will

Lets become one, get married and get on our grind
You need me and I need you, like a watch needs it's wind

It's you and me against society
US together dosen't need piety

We can take life and drink blood in variety

We can worship each other, non-conformity

We can have sex, make love, or JUST fuck
You can grab me, stroke me, and give me a suck
Then I'll kiss, lick, and eat you, then we can run a muck

We'll go to the local church where the pastor wants to save our souls after he caught us having sex in his truck

I want to knock you up with my demonic seed
We can recruit and raise an army to do evil deeds Lets torture and kill random people to satisfy our needs

We will kill, rape, and raze, Society bleeds

Gutter Bitch

What I need is a gutter bitch
I'm not looking for the bait and switch
A bitch that will ride with me if I'm poor or rich

Can't be one that will snitch

Shorty ride with me all these years
I'll be loyal to you, don't shed no tears
I'll hold you close and fight away all your fears
You can't have any other man, no mater who tell you what in your ears

You must ~~trust~~ trust me 100 with-out a doubt
Even when I get angry, CUSS, and shout
Show you are loyal even as you pout
You must always put-out and never freeze me out

If I ever catch you cheatin'

I'm a kill you bitch, you won't catch a beatin'

I won't put up with that, there's a reason

It's because I consider that treason

Fate of twist

What is the fate of twist?

When someone can't talk right because of a lisp

When someone don't think right, their brain skips

When a family loses a kid and can't quite regrip

To live with a twist, you must come to grip
And not focus on your disability and start to trip

If you live ~~your~~ life around the twist One day you will get so depressed you will slice the veins in your wrist

Different means special in this day

I don't care I'll love you anyway

Now you know what the fate of twists are Anything damaging you to below par
Let it not matter, life is still good thus far

Fatal twist

Have you ever felt the fatal twist?
Like a sharp blade across your wrist
The love of your life giving you a good-bye kiss
Your drug of choice, after taking the final fix

How did you feel, when you did the deed?
Did you fall to your knees from loss of blood?
Did she tell you that it was over?
When the plungers sunk down, what did you feel?

Mixed emotions must of clouded your mind
"Too bad" you whispered, you were found in time
She left you for him because her period was late
The drug took it all away, it was worse the next day

The arrival of the final twist
Is to know love has failed
Is to know the drugs have failed
Is to know you ~~feel~~ cold, dead, and alone
