As for this medical / mental evaluation or whatever they call it — nevertheless very little is true & it appears to be a job justification for them more than anything. That said I do suffer ADD — ADHD & Dyslexia & it is extremely disadvantageous to my ability to write, especially. Let me see if I can show you what happens sometimes.

- 1) I will come up w/ a creative idea in my head — it maybe a song or an invention idea or a letter to write
- 2) when I try to write it down or articulate the idea a series of things happen — here's usually how it goes:
 - a. my creative side exposes an idea
 - b. my ADHD runs w/ it & most often my hand cannot keep up — so mistakes are made & words are left out — enter dyslexia — & other words will be there, but the letters will be misplaced
 - c. & a lot of the time once that I get it straightened out my ADD will have kicked in & I will lose my train of thought — oh I will get it back on track, most of the time but sometimes it takes minutes, hours, days, weeks or even decades, yes & that's why a few of the lyrics included in my collection are from like the 90's or older than expected.

That's just part of the frustration the most frustrating for me is that even when I get the right words & go to rewrite them my dyslexia & ADHD will fuck w/ me — My adhd wants to ZOOM — ZOOM ZOOM & my dyslexia, temperamental dyslexia will go along for the ride but misspell up to ten words along the way. hah! Sometimes you'll see where I crossed a word out & added ADD or dyslexia. — Anyway it sometimes takes me two or three rewrites to where I can be satisfied that it can be read & by that time I am so sick of the song that I don't even like it anymore or even want to see it.

So when I make my comments I flow & keep the flow going & try to outrun the ADD & simply pay the misspelled words no mind — I will try to go back & correct them — but you must consider that I am forced to write w/ a 4" ferable pen that slips or refuses to write. — nor do I have access to a typewriter no spell check — no type set & very limited paper = 25 sheets per month. so this is not fancy but I give it my best shot & I hope you enjoy at least a couple of pieces. This is my 3rd book (really manuscript because it's all hand written) of Lyrics, the 1st is simply titled Lyrics, "different sides of day", the 2nd is also titled Lyrics Vol. II "different sides of day" & this 3rd one is titled Lyrics Vol. III from behind the walls — check em out at www.PrisonFoundation.org.

PS! even so I can SLINK IT LIKE OTHERS ONLY WISHED THE CAUSE! Love you Lumbstone

I WROTE THIS SONG IN THE US Penitentiary, Compo California, I wrote it for a convict named Jo-Jo who was from Oakland, CA. This is one of the songs I wrote w/ Tupac Shurters step dad Doctor Shurters, Mr Shurters got caught up in some armored truck robberies — Anyway he liked the song — I had picked up a lot of the pimp's namba juabs from hearing some some real gangster pimps on the phones screaming at who ever "get my ends bitch" bla-bla-bla — I caught the gist of the pimp's game — I think + most of it's all talk so I came up w/ some lines even more outrageous than what I'd heard — we were all in the hole for some sort of prison infraction + not having anything else to do I thought why not — hey, I can make a song out of this madness + so I wrote two or three that were endorsed by Doctor Shurters so I thought maybe I had something because he backed a couple of rap hip hop people + his step son Tupac was in the music world making people pay attention — Jo-Jo odd a couple of days after his release + this song got "lost" but I did remember the hook + the 1st + 2nd verses so I rebuilt the rest of it + there it is — don't hate "it's a song" — if you don't like this one you really won't like "gotta put your pimp in" another one I wrote w/ Dr. Shurters. Love Dwight — 4 —

Oh, I don't think I need to explain this piece at all "Magic Touch" its ONE big climax after another — believe it or not I tamed this one down but I slipped in a tongue here & there. ^u this one I extracted from a poem I wrote back in 1980 or 81 its from a couple of lines that went "lock me in the lions den & call me dirty names — lock me in the lions den & throw away the key — how does that taste on your lips — a fuck w/out a kiss" — hah! ya that's a mouth full huh? — well, I didn't write it with an ulterior thought — it was, at first, to say Fuck you proestablishment assholes, I hope the fuck your happy to know you fucked us over — I'm quite the potty mouth at times huh? Anyway I remembered that or those lines & went Ahh! it really sounds sexual — well let me see if I can manipulate a few words & create something & there it is — hope you lick — oops I mean 'like it' — how does that taste on your lips — do I got that magic touch that sets off a rush — that's got you coming so much — oh mi — I love it when we play sex games you know how to bring it out of me — oh baby when we play sex games — you sure get the best of me — magic touch — I love so much —

This song's about a person that can't understand & has a hard time accepting that their partner don't feel the same anymore — yep — I been trying to write this one for about "28-years," huh! I know — I know — this song's been lost a couple of times but I always had the chorus in my head. "how can you be so cold hearted to the one that just lives to love you — how can you be so cruel to the one that just wants to hold you" but I was never satisfied w/ the surrounding body & I wrote it to death & brought it back to life [a]gain — & I just rewrote a line in the 1st 2nd & 3rd V & revamped the chorus "wow" but I think this version works the best — if you have an interest in this song I'll send you some of the other drafts — this song can be sung by either sex but must be sung w/ feeling eg. do not just say the words — it must be sung — if you don't get it don't worry — hope ya-all like it, Love ya-all,

I Miss My Innocence

did you ever stop to think about where you came from when you didn't have a care in the world - - - except for momma yelling - you better get back home I wish I could go back to those days & do it all again there was gum in our hair & dirt on our face we were singing silly songs in the warm summer breeze

 I see London - I see France - I see the teachers underpants oh man, who wouldn't miss that - I sure miss my innocence chasing rabbits - catching frogs - fishing off the bank at ^{wetters} ~~Walters~~ pond running amok from dusk till dawn - just high on adventure - - - when it only took oxygen to stay amused - - - & there was no such thing as bad news (oh I can remember)

there was gum in our hair & dirt on our face
 we were singing silly songs in the warm summer breeze
 I see London - I see France - I see the teachers underpants
 oh man, who wouldn't miss that - I sure miss my innocence now it feels like I've climbed the hill & I'm headed down the other side when you go too fast you'll miss the ride life is gonna catch you when you least expect it when there's no place left to hide & all these memories come rushing back - I sure miss my innocence hot wheels - GI Joe - remote control tree fort - camp-out - football mini skirts - oh la-la - gotta be cool

 I see London - I see France - I see the teachers underpants
 oh man, who wouldn't miss that - I sure miss my innocence

THERE WAS gum in our hair & dirt on our face
 we were singing silly songs in the warm summer breeze
 I SEE London - I see France - I see the teachers underpants oh nT who wouldn't miss that - I sure miss my innocence hot wheels - GI Joe - remote control - tree fort - camp out - foot ball - mini skirts - oh la-la - gotta be cool

- I miss my innocence -

I see London — I see France I see the teachers underpants
oh man — who wouldn't miss that — I sure miss my innocence oh mi — who wouldn't miss that — there goes my innocence
I see London — I see France — I see the teachers underpants EUM IN OUR HAIR & DIET ON OUR FACE oh I sure miss my innocence — oh man who wouldn't miss that./

Um, I don't I kinda like this one — I think it really express' how I was feeling it — & man can it ever stir up the feelings — my youth wasn't typical by any stretch but there was a couple of years that were pretty good — when my friends & I would hike out to my Kramoas pond to fish & catch frogs & camp out & act like men of the wild — at the time we were only 1/8 mile from the house — anyway, I remembered those silly school songs & what better than "I see London — I see France" — mm! I just reread this piece & it is like nostalgic ~~as~~ as hell, I hope it has the same affect on you —

I can't get over how simple, but profound, the subject matter of this song is "when it only took oxygen to stay amused" do you remember those days? Now people sit around pushing buttons on a hand held computer & the kids have no idea what they're missing out on — I wonder if this song will make them think a little? he! Ya good luck!

Well it's been my pleasure — what color is yours? huh? oh you know what I'm talking about so don't act all shy? hum? are they silk or cotton? lace? I? thong? old school? oh la-la! Umm! hum! Umm! Love Ya.

Well "hey now", I bet the ladies can imagine that? ha!
I use to use that line, "love you like a love starved convict," a lot. It's deep, don't you think? How deep is your love?
No foot & scoot here — no-no I'm not gonna boast & brag & all that but when it comes to throwing down I've never had any complaints. Now for all you studs out there that think your handling yours = go back to my "lick-it-eddy-split" song — don't be afraid to get your face wet & travel different "paths" & hey — you don't have two hands for nothing — no I'm not 'Down Juan' — I'm Doug Wilson & if you're not doing what you should someone like me will be given her all the man she's been missing — so go ahead & let her know she's wanted — love her like a love starved convict that just escaped prison. For any artist out there — this could prove to be a fun song to do? let me know.

Love,

"Heroes just die harder" Ya this piece is about life in southern California - Los Angeles, Venice & San Diego especially "wow" talk about a mixed bag of nuts, huh! Everyones hustling "something" its fun to just sit on a bench & watch the action & try to guess what individuals are up to - sellers, & buyers, & cops trying to bust em. Its a crazy game & most of the time I was to caught up in it to sit down & trip on it - huh! I think about those folks that visit from small farm towns, & especially in two areas I like to call home Venice, & west hollywood - you'll meet people from all walks of life & many of them are very talented - many, many great musicians & artist & well - we all probably looked just as weird to folks - folks from those small towns no doubt trip out - I just built around the "so you wanna be a night rider - a gun tout'n - bust'n crime fighter - that's fine indeed but everybody bleeds & heroes just die harder" - I had that run / hate for years - I think I was tripp'n on cops - not in a negative way - believe it or not - you know not many of ~~them~~ are getting sick & they certainly could be working in other professions - I think that its one of those things where the profession & the person chose each other - their addicted to the action - I don't - even some of those sincere females have become attracted to the law enforcement profession - & im like damn - lets play cops & robbers - huh! heck ya - just a diff. kinda trip - did ya ever think about it? peace well how about that one? I know wishful thinking huh? oh what were you thinking? no-no-no I'm talking about "plumbing" so get your head out of the gutter, frackin', huh! of course I'm talking about that special spot gettin' the business um, huh! more than you expected - all that you can stand -

I'm sure I was quite horny when I scratched this one down. I can remember that I was conflicted about that line 'I'm a missionary man' because the missionary position is quite boring when it comes to sex, right? yep! that's why I added that line 'I'm gonna bend you & twist you in every position I can' I wanted to let everyone know right off the top that I was talking about a 'missionary man' & not a 'missionary position' man & that's why I also switched the attention to tongue gymnastics - I for some reason wanted to keep the flow of the first two runs "I'm on a mission of mercy - I'm a missionary man" & that meant I had to rewrite this piece - so anyway, well, I think it could be racted - huh! I have reason to believe that the gals will dig it - where's my head at? oh la la - I'm such a dirty boy - huh? I had some reservations about this one but here it is nevertheless so eat it up, & love,

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

Civil Action No. 666

DOUGLAS EUGENE WILSON, a.k.a. Tombstone Dog

Plaintiff,

v.

The Whole Fucking World,

Defendant.

SET THIS INNOCENT MAN FREE TODAY!

COMES NOW, I hereby submit motion for immediate release based on overwhelming evidence of "Actual INNOCENCE" (please see Vol. I pages 76-104). No, it's not the whole world I challenge - just the powers that be for me here in Colorado. Check out those exhibits I offer in "Lyrics Vol. II" - so please help me. ~~Respectfully Submitted~~
p. 76-104 Tombstone

"Your devil incarnate" - I'm sure folks will take this piece out of context so let me say a few words to facilitate your understanding - I wrote this piece after I seen some fools on TV that were supposed to be summoning the devil through chants & fire - of course it's ridiculous at best but I came to discover that there are people that just don't get it - see I believe that everyone has their own relationship w/ their God & their devil - it's a universal thing I can't have one w/out the other - the devil is present 24-7-365 & we will be tempted to the very end - remember it is even written that sweet Jesus was tempted? It's true - when one acts on negative things - whatever it is - they are in fact doing the devil's dirty deeds & when we do positive things we are doing the work of God - people would like to complicate this subject matter but it is that simple: Yin vs. Yang - cause & effect - good karma vs. bad karma - we got the power.
God bless you all

"I'm Hurt Bad" Ya — it's ridiculous already — you'd think it's been said enough + it probably seems like I just had suffered a breakup but no it's been — well — the last time was 12 1/2 years ago — yes, I already know — why am I still writing songs like this over, + over, + over, like an old broken record — it's sickening + I'm embarrassed to say the least — you know what I really think it is — is my desire — need — to master this love thing because no matter how I break it down it is a main-root to most of my problems now, but it is — hey I'll sack a dude in the mouth but not a woman — she managed to bring me to my knees w/out saying a word — just a lone tear in her eye + I was done, she K O D me 100 X?

I know already — I'm love stupid or "ignorant" is probably a better word because I sure missed the memo w/ the instructions — hell that sounds like a new song — I must of been absent when they passed out the memo — so how was I to know — were not born knowing these things so ex-cuse — use me " but, whatever — sue me if you dont agree " — okay I'm gonna get gone for now — as always it has truly been my pleasure, peace + love,

dog rub it!
anyway!

did you get the memo?

 it's a love connection — oh don't you know inside my heart — you only grow you touch my skin + I lose control because you got that body — you got soul

This is what I call a 'warn song' — have you ever had that special person in your life — you know that one that can simply touch your hand, or any part of your body, + it goes straight to your heart + soul? You can interact w/ people all day long + even flirt but it don't mean nothing, but, just one little touch by that special person + your heart soars w/ eagles? — well that's what this piece is all about — the love of that special one — I write it as I yearn for someone that can do that to me — oh, I express the bad sides of my love experiences in my songs but I don't think I realized how much I was missing that touch until I wrote "magic touch"

It's been too damn long w/out that special person in my life I probably cheated myself out of some good women — ya I'd often sabotage + create situations everywhere I thought I'd start having any serious feelings toward someone I was seeing. I know right — dogs a sissy when it comes to love. My friends would say all kinds of stupid shit — "oh (my ex) she's got you so whipped still (even after we'd went our own ways) that you scared of women" what? No it wasn't about gettin some pussy — it was about the 'L' word they were talking + I'll be damned if they weren't right — but I am so damn lonely, even more so as I write this from a prison bunk but I really look forward to a loving relationship + that special touch.

God willing love

"Get a life" This one I wrote for Taylor Swift, (I hear she writes all her own songs so I went pitch this to her), A couple of times I've heard people on TV crying about her relationships "oh it looks like yet another one of Taylor's relationships has soured" + they have a whining disgusted tone to their voices. As if it affects them any kind of way? So that line "get a life + stop poisoning the water" popped in my head + I ran w/ it + this song is the product. I do not know Taylor Swift but I've heard some of her work + I'm way impressed - I knew she was going to be a huge star the first time I seen her singing to Tim McILRAW at the CMA awards - I don't know how she feels about those people exploiting her private life for money but I submit the following for everyone =

No one should be allowed to allege, assert, declare, claim, profess, state, contend or ~~propose~~ ^{support} anything about anyone without absolute bona-fide proof. Sure there exists liability suits for defamation of character = a statement used as FACT that causes injury to ones character but the gossip creeps can'as a matter of existing law ^{is} ~~is~~ one simple word to stick their way around liability of defamation + that word is "alleged" she allegedly said this or done that. That is way too vague i.e. either she did or she didn't + if you can't prove it as a matter of law then you should not be able to guess what ANYONE done based on "what someone else said", the information should, as a matter of law, be tested for TRUTH prior to subjecting it to publicity of any kind. right? Let's call this "doug's law" when these people allege + don't know they become their own fool because only a fool basis' an opinion w/out a full scale of knowledge, thus they are twice the fool! keep on rockin' Taylor I'll buy your work when I get out. peace,

Tombstone Dog ~~ed~~

I extracted this piece from a poem I'd written back in the early 90's. At the time I was in the hole & strung out like a dog on heroin & my homemade wine. I had it DAD BAD! It was disgusting, surreal — I remember that I couldn't even think about eating anything w/out chargin' the dragon or at least slamm'ing a quart of wine. I thought about the disease & diabolical schemes connected to tryin' to support the disease — the pimp of flowers is obviously that bitch poppy — yep, those pretty redish-pink flowers & I can't figure it out — how the sap from this pretty flower can, & does, cause so much pain & sufferin' "Pow" I mean damnit!! I refer to it as "King Heroin" but it's really just a bitch — ain't it always a bitch in a red dress? lol! So I wrote that piece & play the poisons advocate — & I'm pretty sure you've figured as much out? There's another song called "Pain" that is made up of the same subject matter. The writer enough songs high on heroin¹ to fill at least 10-albums — heroin & alcohol — I don't know if "PAIN" will be included in this collection or not because I'm tryin' to stick to this new index — - - -

1. & about heroin & alcohol — believe me that's a lot of justice lyrics for a man that don't shoot dope but snortin' it isn't any better.

-- of the songs that I think have hit potential, 'break out songs'. If I don't stay to the index I'll become confused & my OCD will fuck me up! hi! seriously numbers & words are both my best friend & worse enemy - I'm doing better than - but I am still sick w/ it - etc for example this ant. piece - it's a gold mine - I have literally written 3 or 4 other songs from 4 or 5 of the 21-23 verses, but nevertheless, that's not good enough for my OCD so when I went to rewrite this draft for you - I felt the need to change a few words - nothing major but my OCD is never happy & it drives me nuts that I'm thru right? I need give me a break - it is a miracle that I even remembered those verses after not seeing them for 22-years? don't ask me - but I'm glad I can remember some of those lists - see all my works; manuscripts - art - songs/poetry - etc - were supposedly "lost" when they transferred me from USP Lanpac to USP Leavenworth. I was so sick - I swore off writing, painting or anything creative - oh yes, years of engineering & drafting new products/inventions were "lost" as well - anyway from late 92-97 I didn't do a lot of anything creative there were a few exceptions, however, on Sep. 11, 1997 my property would be "lost" again ~~xxx~~ when the feds turned me over to the California state authorities. I was told they would "lose" my property so I had some of my more important papers sent out for safekeeping prior to that transfer of custody - I still lost a "LOT" of my work again - so you see that's a big issue w/ me & that's why I'm publishing this here work at hand - so I can at least get some of - - - my work on computer for safekeeping - I'm so tired of being fucked over by cowards - none - not one of em would try to take ANYTHING from me in person - so they take the cowards route & steal behind my back. I've said enough!!

2 words in one? h.1

I hope you like this piece - I believe this anti-heroic heroin could be a serious R + R hit - so pass it around - I wish I could rock it myself but I can't even press a demo - I'm in this Ad beg. shit slammed down 23/24 hours a day - been like that for over a decade - hopefully I'll get some action in the Colo. St. Supreme Ct. - they have elected to hear my case & I've been waiting for 2-years - so what I'm trying to do is put together some money to file another writ in the U.S. Supreme Ct., The ~~State~~ ^{States} ~~are~~ slow playing this thing & they need know for a fact that I could not have committed ANY crime because it was, & is, physically impossible - so I sit here & spin lyrics & do my best to retain compassion - I still got long love & respect for ya-all. IF you want to contribute to my defense fund that would be way cool - you'll find out how below - if you can't help me please help one homeless person today - just one & you will be rewarded instantly. " Love Ya

"hang em high - lay em low" - there's a lot to this one - this is another little phrase I use to say - it actually went "hang em high lay em low - first your money then your clothes - head, nose, toes + everything inbetween" - it was my way of saying "see ya later + have a good-bye" I started to do something w/ it when I was in the hole in the United States Penitentiary in Lumpoc California but this would be yet another piece that was "lost" ya they "lost" my property during transfer to Leavenworth, Kansas - Anyway, I'd forgotten all about that one but when I was rewriting "the walking dead man" one of the lines made me remember it -

Now as for the rest of the lyrics - no - there are no what I call "dummy words"; words to use as filler to connect lines + verses - usually used for the sake of connecting a rhyme - you will be hard pressed to find any dummy words in my songs I don't get down that way -

Okay the line "everyones an outlaw in their own way" is to say that no one is totally innocent + everyone has their own character defects - hookers, boosters etc - - I'll get back to the gals love gangsters line in a few but I want to tell you how the piece was actually put together.

There's a piece in this collection of lyrics titled "a real thing Heroin" - "thing Heroin" was extracted from a 21-verse poem I wrote - well - about heroin + I was high on heroin when I wrote it - anyway that piece has contributed to this song as well as three others. The original title was "The Pimp of Flowers" - that part that goes!

Hookers - Boosters - Bigger - man thieves Junkies on wall street its all the same I'll make you feel so good you'll fall in love I'll make you feel like dying + put a gun to your head etc - -

That is me representing the disease of heroin as I became the junkies - but here in this "hang em high" song I just use that part to say no ones immune - I'll make you feel so good - I'll make you fall in love - - -

--but when you look for me I'll have gone & taken your heart w/ me -- yep! gangster of love a little I've said so many times I've only loved one woman as a lover but there's been a bunch that said they loved me & some of them knew I was the poster child of the one your mother warned you about. I mean guns & drugs, cher length hair, all pimped out w/ gold & diamonds, a careless attitude & a bottle of whiskey in my hand -- no there was nothing normal about me & you might say I have a lot of character even today -- I cut about 1/3 of my hair but it's still to the middle of my ass, buffed up w/ a thick ass gangster mustache. ha! --- Anyway these women & I mean all sorts of women -- women you'd never expect (a couple few -- you ~~were~~ many times, but no, I'm not naming names) would attach themselves to me & I'd take em for a ride they'd never forget -- it wasn't R+R it was doug de' Tombstone Dog & I'd turn em inside - - out & have em doing things they never dared to do -- "but I'd get that itch" & I'd be gone -- ah! hell ya they'd be all pissed off -- ya, I was running from that dirty "L" word! that 4-letter mother-fucker -- hey that's a song right -- "I'm on the road running from that dirty thing they call love -- no I don't want none of it -- I been burned before -- I'm out the door -- running from a 4-letter word -- I can't stand it anymore -- I might love you today but I'll be gone tomorrow -- I spell love come -- I'm on the road running from that dirty 4-letter word -- that 4-letter mother-fucker -- I've been burned before no I don't want to hear that word no more & I'm running" -- ha! ya I was feeling it & that's just like me --

-- in those days but not anymore. Don't get me wrong these sadistic motherfuckers that have me caged will never break my spirit fuck no -- but now I find myself lonesome for someone to love -- ya I'm way over my ex & I know I only have 29-years left so I'd like to find me a bad ass spittin' that would like to consider datin' that nize w/me -- oh I can keep her amused but never used -- I'll be your tūng fuck do it all -- your stand up -- knock down protector -- so anyone of you gals that might wanna try something different you can find me at that address below & for all you brothers that just suffered thro' my spill "keep your trousers it goes" -- hang em high -- lay em low -- first your money then your clothes and hose & toes & everything inbetween -- that's just me that's the way it goes." ya -- all king tough -- I'm still fighting the good fight so do me a favor -- fax this piece, or even whole collection, to someone that might need or be interested in some convict work -- ya all be safe & do something for a homeless person today & the thanks all yours , peace ,

" - Forgive Me - "

Ya this piece is an I hope I let you down easy song. First off why do women even want to try to tie a man like me down? I pride myself at being a good fock + I don't think I'm hard on the eyes, but that's a matter of individual perception. I have a long list of nasty habits that should make women go Uhhhh! I don't think so, but it seems the harder I tried to get run off the harder they'd cling "what" hell to the no they really weren't thinking w/ their brains. Please don't confuse what I'm saying here it's certainly all my fault — so anyway—when I'd start feeling that they were clinging a little too much — well no, I wouldn't usually say anything + you wouldn't see me from the snoot as I was peeln rubber gettin away but I will say this for myself—I would warn em up front that I'm not a teeper—so in that sense it's their own fault — oh I'd feel bad about it—no it didn't give me any pleasure—so anyway th's ones for all those that fell for my BIS—I am truly sorry—please forgive me — hey, did you all life long I snuck that "but I'll see you every now + then if you want to", in there? hah well heck sex is at least half the relationship I think—so I'm willing to be that half every now + then, oh I know—what a jerk—+ I won't deny—but no means no—right—oh shut up—yur know how it goes—hey I don't know if it's me or not but I've noticed when I write my comments down that I find new lines to make other songs with— I think I've noticed that when I write letters as well but that's just me maybe. Anyway please forgive me I may not be able to give you all you want but I'm good for half—I know—I know—but have you ever met dough? lol, it may!

Love ya just the same
