Field of Dragon Flies is a poetic expression of a spiritual transformation which has occurred within me...
... in truth, there are no words to express this experience, it must be lived to be understood.

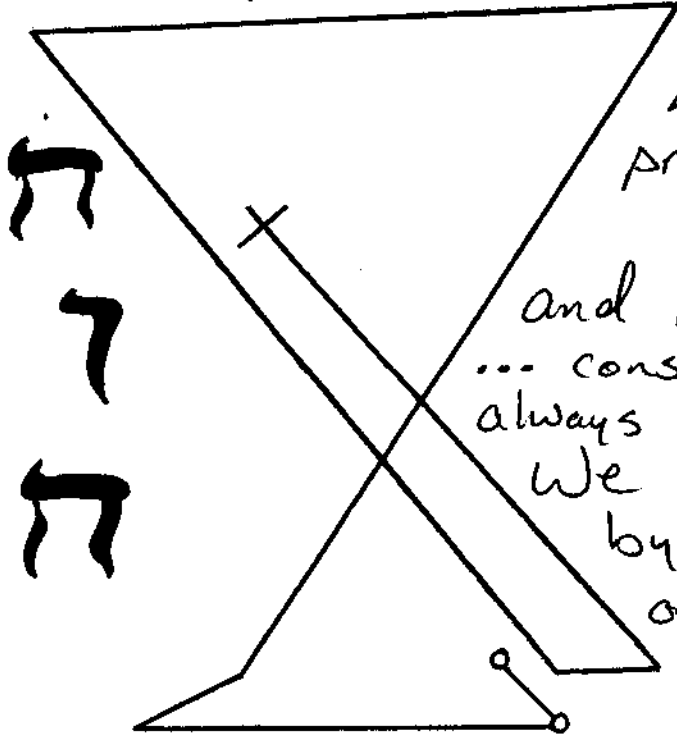

This project went into production on Mabon 2014.
This book was completed on Samhain, 2014.
This work is dedicated to my Best friend; My Twin Flame, Tina Elizabeth! Love is the Law, and Love chose you! My Light in the Darkness.

The seeker of truth is not content with what is found on the surface. The seeker peers beyond the veil; to experience what exists beyond the naked eye.

Wisdom to Contrive,
 Strength to Support,
 Beauty to Adorn.

Life is a process of Change,
 and Development.
 ... constantly changing,
 always developing anew.
 We cause change
 by the actions of
 of our will...
 Know Thyself!

"The Letter"

Written with love and hope,
The letter was sealed in an envelope.
All it needed was a 49¢ stamp.
When you left it lying beside your lamp.
A day goes by, a week then three.
Life goes on as you forget about me.
A stroke of your pen, a piece of your heart.
All it takes to keep me from falling apart.

"The Cards"

Mysteries in the cards revealed unto me.
What's going on, what might be.
Secrets in the cards, I see what is told.
Ideas in the ether, I pour the mold.
The Goddess is my light, she never fails.
My path is guided by what she tells.
Mysteries in the cards revealed unto me.
What has been, what might be.
Secrets in the cards, the mysteries unfold.
Telling tales not meant to be told.
The God is my light, he never fails.
By his word I cast my spells.

"Quiet Contemplation"

In Solitary Confinement awaiting mail call,
The smell of perfume and pictures for my wall.
Counting concrete blocks ten blocks tall,
In quiet contemplation watching a spider crawl.
I don't count the days, all I do is read.
Dreaming about the day when I'm finally freed.
I've read all the classics, I don't read westerns;
I'm into esoteric philosophy and history lessons.
Quantum physics, Buddhism, and Qabalistic meditation;
Eliphas Levi, Aleister Crowley, and quiet contemplation.
Recalling the memories, of not so long ago,
Facing the Shadow as the four winds blow.

"If Our Day Never Comes"

If our day never comes, I never hold you again;
I need you to know you was my best friend.
If our day never comes, and I can't say goodbye;
The ecstasy of your love was my favorite high.
If our day never comes, my best days are done.
You was the most beautiful thing under this sun.
If our day never comes, I hope you will feel,
The happiness you deserve because my love for you is real.
If our day never comes, I just want you to know,
I'll carry you in my heart wherever I go.

"Tina"

Hey Tina, Nobody knows better than you,
Loving a prisoner is not easy to do.

Love you say is worth all you pay,
Lonelier and lonelier each passing day.

Uneasy of the promises, afraid to wait.
Longing for the day I walk out that gate.
Soft kiss on the lips, a whisper in the ear,
Before you realize it passes another year.

I'm so in love with you Tina, and I miss you so.
Promise that you will wait and never let me go.
I'll make it worth the wait when my time is done,
I know loving a prisoner can't be much fun.

Hey Tina, Nobody knows better than you,
Loving a prisoner is not easy to do.
Love you say is worth all you pay,
I promise to love you forever and a day.

Keep sending me pictures and loving me so,
Promise that you will wait and never let me go.
Tina Elizabeth, I needed you all my life,
I hope the day I'm free you'll become my wife.

"The Mask"

I smile a smile that I wear in vain.
I take it off when I dance in the rain.

Life is full of suffering, the Teacher said,
Clinging leads to suffering, it's all in your head.

From a seed sprouts a tree,
Through the tree travels not the seed,
The seed is produced from the fruit,
Same seed, some old memories, different set of roots,
The spirit within, animates the body,
Leaving an impression to remind society.

I take off the mask in the midnight air,

Goat Foot God I know you are there.
For a moment I was hollow, but solid as an oak,
Only the lost can be found the summer breeze spoke.

A mask on my face painted with a smile,
I'll open my pupils to let you in for a while,
The mask comes off at every bend in the road,
I leave an offering for Hekate and take off a load.

Life contains suffering, the Teacher said,
Clinging leads to suffering, it's all in your head.

I smile a smile that I wear in vain.
I take it off when I dance in the rain.
I take off the mask in the midnight air,
Goat Foot God I see you over there.

"Spirit of Nature"

Come to me when you go away,
You go away when you arrive.
I'm the life within the trees,
Now that you know I'm alive.

The static in the storm,
The bringer of the rain.
I taught you in silence,
The importance of pain.

She gave you black onyx,
When you had that fire in your eyes,
The day you peaked behind the veil,
In the field of dragonflies.
I am the fifth element; Pan,
Baphomet, Cernunnos, the Divine Hand.
The smile on her face told you what to do.
But you said too much, so away I flew.

The undercurrent of force,
When you're perfectly in tune,
The secret of the source,
The essence of June!

That feeling of oneness,
The lightning in the skies,
Instrument of transformation,
In the field of dragonflies.
The feeling of inner conviction,
The state of mind that you want,
The apple on the tree,
The past that comes back to haunt.

The spirit of dynamic balance,
Shining from the pupils of your eyes.

The Spirit of Nature,
In the field of Dragonflies.

The perpetual intelligence,
The astral light,
An eagle in the day,
An owl at night.

The Great Magickal Agent,
The lever of Archimedes.

Brigid's Fire,
Messenger of the Pleiades.

I am the Shadow of the rain.
The diamonds in her eyes.

The sylphs of the air,
In the field of Dragonflies.

Once in an age I choose a human host,
A nobody to carry my ghost.

I taught you in Silence,
The importance of pain,
The static in the storm,
The medicine in the rain.

I am the fifth Element; Pan,

Baphomet, Cernunnos, the Divine Hand.

The smile on her face never gives up on you,
Beautiful babe out of the Abyss of blue.

She gave you black onyx,
Cause you had that Fire in your Eyes,
So I Showed you Everything,
In the Field of Dragonflies.

"The Hammock"

Under the birch tree,
Blooms Tina's roses.
So beautiful they are,
Even from afar.

We have a hammock,
Only a few feet away.
We lay in it together,
On many Spring days.

Today I suprized her,
With an emerald ring.
As we lay by the roses,
Because she is my Queen.

She jumped to her feet,
Shouting oh what a blessing!
The roses began to sing
When she started undressing.

"Lay Still My Love"

Call me old Fashioned, but I don't believe
True Love is ever lost.

I think that True Love is worth
Chasing at any cost.

Without the ups,
There would be no downs!

No Smiles, without those frowns!

Love is like a bottle of whiskey in an
Adult toy store!

The endorphines rain down but the Pain hurts more!

Lay still my love, I need to feel your skin,

My blue-eyed devil with the juicy grin.

Tease me, Tempt me, drive me wild!

Lock me in your basement, anything allowed!

Lay still my love, my sweet soul mate,

The pain is so worth the love we'll make,

Love is like a bottle of whiskey in an
Adult toy store!

Drink it slow all night and lock the door.

Lay still my love, so smooth is your skin,

My Blue-Eyed Devil with Aphrodite's grin.

"She Haunts Me At Night"

She slithers up to me in the Static Astral Air.
Crystal blue eyes and long brown hair.

Smells so sweet, like the Beltane dew.
Rubbing the hair on my chest whispering, "I love you."

I cherish these moments with all my heart.

She haunts me at night 'cause we are apart.

I get no sleep until the dawn.

When she leaves me in the web I've spun.
Lying in her bed at night, she may not know.

She's out making love in the moonlight's glow.
Drifting to sleep, drifting to the stars,

Delivered to me behind these prison bars.

I cherish these moments with all my heart.

She haunts me at night 'cause we are apart.

I get no sleep until the dawn.

When she leaves me in the web I've spun.

Hoping for a day without a goodbye;

I wish to hold you until the day I die!

I'll cherish every moment with all my heart,
When the day comes that we are no longer apart.

"Love of the Ages"

Light divided before there was time.

Objective realities is what we find.

Sometimes joy Sometimes pain,
Love of the ages over and over again.

You danced in the Temple of Goddess Astarte.

I ran with Dionysus and his party.

You Shined with the Strega in ancient Italy.

Every cycle we learned a new ability.

You collected herbs with the Maiden Aradia.

We almost connected in Arcadia!

You protected the flame in Southern France.

For the widow's son I dared every chance!

Love of the ages over and over again,

Sometimes joy Sometimes pain.

In Scandinavia a cruel spell was cast.

That little troll stole the power of my past.

Divided for the sake of union the Sages declare.

Love is the law nothing can compare!

Finally we have connected for a chance at Joy.

That little troll's momentum we must destroy.

~~I~~ adore you Tina, my true twin flame.

I love the joy I love the pain!

Harmony we find between those extremes.

My love of the ages, woman of my dreams,

"Nothing Is Free"

Everything has a Price,
Nothing Is Free!

Give and take and give it back!

I hope my heart covers the fee.

Your voice is like a Slow Drug.
Got me feeling in control and looking Smug.

Just wish for a while,
So I can enjoy your Smile!

Your Seamless Strut,
Is like the daggers cut!

Those thick thighs round hips!
A Four dimensional sway in your butt!

So what I'm a freak!

You know I love the pain!

Put my heart out over and over again!
I'm seeing more Stars than should be

In the SKY!
One at a time I'll examine each eye!
Oh I see it, here, take my Soul
To cover the fee

Everything has a price, Nothing is Free!

"Man of the Day"

He's cool, calm, and collected.

Hoping she hasn't the least suspected.

The fire in him that is burning through.
Wondering if that fire burns in her too.

Diana kept him on the sidelines all these years.

She was the source of many whiskey tears.

Diana drew her power from a broken heart.
It's crazy that he knew this from the start.

Elizabeth's fire is burning through.

Wondering if his fire burns for her too.

All the time a friend to her men out of the way.

Hoping someday he'll be the man of the day.

Diana's silky smooth skin and magnetic grin,
Her hunger for passion often drew him in.

Kissed him so hard and didn't let up.

Made him keep it a secret hoping he wouldn't erupt.

Diana cared the least with all the control.

Elizabeth cares the most so Diana's gotta go.

Diana pouts when she don't get her way.

She shoulda let him be the man of the day!

Genesis 3:22

There exists in Nature a force more powerful than Steam
Direct the world around you and live the dream.

Neutralizing it's components is the test.

Equilibrium is the Condition of Success.

Just keep your focus and keep it real.

Change occurs by the actions of the will.

Vibrations Feeding the mind are twofold.

May your intentions never be told.

Keep Silent to Will, Dare and Know.
Magnetic respiration produces about the soul,
A radiation projecting every single thought.
Into the ether where it is forgotten or caught.

Liberty of faith and freedom of words.

Save the bees and watch the birds.

This is Knowledge goddess bless the fall.

The lever of Archimedes belongs to us all.

The Story of our life is Genesis 3:22.

That was us in the Garden, Me and you.

I'll inhale your exhale while you inhale mine.

Gaze at each others eyes to transcend Time.

White Stag

Fair haired God of the Ravens, Hail unto Thee!
God of Initiation, Blessings upon me!

Witness of the Light,
Middle of the Night,
Frozen in awe but not a fight!
When the white Stag approached me,
Falling leaves from the Oak tree,
I knew it was you,

Long Arm Lugh!

Rhiannon inhales the smoke when the
Light descends sweeping away the dust.
Angus your mirror is broke and your sword is covered with rust.

Oh Shining One, Middle of the night,
Left me standing amazed by the Sight.

Witness of the Light, on a foggy night.
The white Stag delivers me into the fight.

The South wind blew, Oh Lugh!
I see the records impressed upon crystal ice.

A charitable warmhole is your device.
The golden ring appeared around the Full Moon.

White Stag you know I seek your boon.
Slide your hooves passed the veil and empower once more my will I will not tell!
Topaz rain and Emeralds divide the air,
Of the White Stag's Black Eyes beware.

"Moonstone"

One day I ventured through the forest,
A patch of lillies caught my eye.
So I took a seat next to them on the ground.

Such a lovely scent!
How I adore the beauty!
While listening to the forest sound.

Crossed my legs and made a wish,
I prayed to Artemis to hear my call.

For it was love I was hunting,
And Aphrodite I dared not call at all!

I opened my eyes to a
Nice surprize; it was a
Moonstone that I saw!
It was not there before,
Of this I am very sure,
The wind whispered, "Love is the Law"!

Thank you Artemis, thank you very much; my wildest dreams have come true!

She has big blue eyes, a
Big beautiful heart,
I owe it all to you!

"Treasure"

A severe heartbreak is the demon's breath.
Incurable madness is an incomplete death.

Some still live that didn't survive.

Many are buried but still alive.

When a spirit suffers strain that it cannot bear,
It separates from the body to exist in the air.

Impressions of passion and much despair,

Haunting the wind whenever you are there.

Liberate the soul with focused concentration.

The subtle from the gross is the first operation.

Prejudice and vice and immoral fault,

Shot of tequila with some philosophical salt.

Wisdom must be applied with great skill,

Vital energy is the fire of the will.

The body rests while the spirit flies,

Only those who suffer are truly wise.

To it's treasure haunts the ghost,

The astral creature needs a host.

Sorry bout the vase that fell from your hutch,

It wasn't the treasure I was trying to touch.

The stars draw up noble souls don't you know?

Your sinister smile has such an earthly glow.

Those diamonds look so beautiful on your chest,

Your gold rimmed mirror is simply the best.

"Madonna of the Mystery"

Priestess of Atargatis,
Secret keeper of the cups,
Great widow of the legend,
The patriarchs were so corrupt.

Madonna of the Mystery,
Lady of the fish and the dove,
Let's re-write history,
Telling your true story of love.

Madonna of the Mystery,
The Teachers Bride,
I hope we can re-write history,
For my daughters pride.

Royal Mother of the Creed,
Humble enough to wash his feet,
North you carried his seed,
After he was tortured and beat.

How did he make wine from water,
I'd love to see the whole family tree,
Down to my 3rd daughter,
Holy Madonna of the Mystery.

"Walking Meditation"

Walking meditation around the maze,
Focus on the breathing not the days.

Clear every cloud within the mind,
Don't look forward, don't look behind!
Everything is happening now Stay in control.
The body is the byproduct of the soul.

Let's go back to the breathing,

Don't go anywhere!

Just be in the body,

Stay out of the air!

Walk the maze and don't lose your way.
In this moment is where you must stay.

There is no Time or Space here,

No days, No weeks, No Months, No Years!

Relax your Shoulders, relax your face,

A body of water moving at your own pace.

Walking meditation around the maze,

Focus on the breathing not the days.

Clear every cloud within the mind,

Don't look forward, Don't look behind.

"Gift of the Goddess"

The dreams I dream sometimes come true,
Not that I want them to it's just what they do.

Symbols from the Goddess, messages about you,

She Shows me things to guide me through!

When I was young and afraid and full of tears,
She waited patiently for me to overcome my fears.

Protected me and carried my through the years.
To talk to me in my dreams where She appears.
She wants me to pay my debts and be of worth.
From the Gates of Hades She brought me to birth.

Through the Elements and Gaia's hearth.

Spawn of the Stars and a child of Earth.

In this classroom I create my own space.

Time is an illusion not a race.

Lesson by lesson at my own pace.

Rewarded by the beauty I found in your face.

I've held you, I've tasted you, I need your kiss,

Lying next to you was Heaven's bliss!

Time is my illusion and you my gift.

Instructed by the Goddess to wait for this.

"Tawtsee Untsaw Pootseev"

Light so long has been the desire
Square the Compass on the Pleiadean Empire
Fallen and hollow we can get no higher
Holding the hammer, the mediums of power
Through the smoke the mirror is encrusted
Covered with deceit expecting to be trusted
Excalibur has landed ashore bloody and rusted
A heart once pure so sour and disgusted
Involuntary twitching with reckless defiance
Light and Darkness have become an alliance
Silence is Golden, the number one rule
Too little too late learns the fool
Taken by surprise we've become so cruel
Hoping in love in the mists we cool
Transpersonal therapy from the chime
From Darkness to Light it is our time
Silence has reigned, now we manifest
Masters of the dream, born to be the best
Manipulating the illusion better than the rest
Shining so bright in the now we invest

"Dare to Prepare"

The capstone is settling

A recession is the cost

Order will emerge

from the despair and loss

Bankers have ruled on our fears

Wake up to the wrath and wipe away the tears

The masses will rise up

With a new kind of wealth

Desperation and fortitude

Coming for their health

The masses will rise up

The war has only begun

Daddy pushes the plow

Momma holds the gun

Vomit the prophets when they speak

Spewing prophecy of ultimate defeat

Doomsday messiah's squaring perception

Breaking crosses and Digital injections

Agents of Chaos gather

In the Air

Rise, Resist, Dare to Prepare

"Consciousness"

Consciousness is the Controlling Component of energy and mass

Of course you'll never learn this
In a high school physics class

Consciousness brings the most elegant order to all things

It's the unifying element of existence

Nothing is unknowable to the conscious mind

It can cause change from a great distance

Individual consciousness is a big responsibility

It was developed in humans through symbols and metaphors

It was the consummation of some really cool plants

That opened up a lot of other doors

Collective Consciousness is the palace of the Gods

Life generates nature's evolutionary process

By transcending matter and energy

We make spiritual progress

There are billions of galaxies with millions of stars

Solar systems where Earth like planets form a new with water and oxygen and some really cool plants

And conscious beings like me and you

"Sun and the Stone"

Sun and the Stone
Marrow of the bone
Mind and the soul
Light and the Gold
Logos moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform
Planting his Feet within the sea
While riding upon the storm

Bringing Order to the chaos
With great skill
He treasures the human heart
Where he carries out his will

Sun and the Stone
Marrow of the bone
Mind and the soul
Light and the Gold

His power ripens without waste
Placing a seal on every hour
The bud has a bitter taste
Sweet like honey the flower
Necessity and Liberty alone do err
Wisdom and Reason apart are vain
She brings Him pleasure
He separates Her pain

Sun and the Stone
Marrow of the bone
Mind and the Soul
Light and the Gold
Transmutation of the imagination
Active and Passive in Sublimation
Deep veneration and devotion
Fixed spirit of motion

Volatile matter His Bride
Nothing exists out of nothing
We do not absolutely create
Increase and Multiply
Mathematically sublimate the weight

Sun and the Stone
Marrow of the bone
Mind and the soul
Light and the Gold
Transmutation of the imagination
Active and Passive in Sublimation
