I hope you really take in what it is I'm saying and that each and everyone of you treat everyone better and maybe avoid a demented, tortured soul from entering your life and taking it for something as simple as skipping them in line.
Have patients, Be kind, and Love everyone

THOUGHTS

As I sit and think of Ms. Green my thoughts are nice and never mean

I know her to be thoughtful, caring, and bright

I pray and the Holy Spirit tells me, She's my guiding light

She thinks of me every day and night
When she prays, the Holy Spirit will say I'm her guiding light

She doesn't want to be a french booty-call I'll never treat her like that, no, never at all

I want to be selfish with her love Keep it close, like the Lord above

As I ponder Ms. Green the day flies by as I've never seen

I think she's very extraordinary, she's my tweetie, but not a canary

As I lay in my bed, thoughts of her run through my head

I love my nickname that come to be It's very unique, like you and me

I'm waiting to see if she claims me as her own

She said she would keep in contact by phone

Say's she's content to be all alone
Maybe she will change her content tone

MRS. GRIFFIN

Mrs. Griffin sounds just fine Once her heart matches mine

I will always love, care, and protect But I shall never be perfect As I pledge my promise keep I love so deep, I start to weep

Tears of joy flow down my cheek She is the one that I seek Years gone by and here we are Still deep in-love, thus this far

Our passion grows to an arc
We made love at the park

The cops come to chase us away
We ran hand in hand, like lovers Gay

Here we are on our last date Hand in Hand in front of the Pearly Gate

S. Griffin 9/20/14

DADDY'S GIRL

Your father is proud of who you be he's up in heaven, just wait and you'll see

Your father approves of the man you pick he will protect just as quick

Your father delights in you guiding light

He loves your smile that shines so bright

Your beauty, he will always remember in times to come

Always remember the man and woman you were born from

I see your heart fully extended

As I run to catch it, I become winded

Love can conquer all your pain

You must trust to love again, it won't be in vain

You were raised a daddy's girl?

The man who's fond of you will treat you like a precious pearl?

He will hold you all the time and dispell your tears

Just as your daddy held you for all of thoes years

Your daddy looks down from above he see's the truth of the love

Your daddy wants to see you shine as the new love grows, you'll be just fine

Your daddy would treat him just like a son, because even he knows, he's the one

Your daddy raised you to be very strong, not to ignore the feelings that don't feel wrong

You will always be your daddy's daughter don't try to compare him to your father

You can love him all the same, you must try and let go of the past pain

This man that loves you, is he sane?, He understands Your a daddy's girl that's in pain

GOD'S PROMISE

I want to love you tender Love with me is a never-ender Respect, honesty, faithfulness, loyalty, and love

All are promised from God above

God, the Holy Ghost, and Jesus himself

Promise to be with us and never abandon

The Holy Ghost brought me my prayers answer

I shall do his will and know that the blessings will continue to pour forth

Into my heart and into my mind

Gods love always comes right on time

I give him my trust and blind faith

That he sent his son to be killed for my sake

God gives me Strength and patients God gives me Love and hope God gives me Truth and sight God gives me Honor and loyalty All he asks of me is to believe

S. Griffin. 9/21/14

IS IT TOO LATE?

Jesus Christ is your savior

As long as you repent and be on your best behavior

You are heaven bound, when you are put in the ground

God will come forth to collect his loyal children

You never know when your time is up One day it will be too late to praise him And you will be left where you are at
To be tortured for all eternity

So love with Gods love while you can
In the purest form as his will says When you love another, it's Gods will It's ment to be and it's very real

God wont punish you for doing your best Only if you don't care about sinning like the rest

He want's you to be happy in-love But you must not hold back God's love

There is only one Love, God's love
To love another person, must be through God

Do you love someone? Do they love you?
Don't hold back you may never get another chance

HOPE

Tweetin', Tweetin' it's our season
To fall in love with good reason I ask that you lock me away inside of your loving embrace If we do this right, it will be blessed by your daddy and God's grace

Applehead, Applehead beg your pardon
He pray's to God that you'll want him He expresses his love without heed He pray's and pray's that he has the love you need

Green, Green don't be horrid Don't hide your love, don't be morbid Express your love with great passion
The Lords waiting to celebrate in fashion

Griffin, Griffin the Lord grants you permission to love her purely

As you know your love is God blessed Surely

I take God's blessed oath, which grants me love and great hope

I give the Lord my Solemn oath, to heal your wounds and help you cope

LDS

The Latter-day Saints, Mormon's are considered to be a cult because they are not conformists

They don't believe in just any old damn thing

They believe in God's love and that's a fact

They even follow rules of how you're supposed to act

They don't believe in several wives

They do believe in bringing life into this world

It's something God commands

Get married, have children, and populate the earth with believers

It's said for a man that when his penis gets erect, he produces semen, and gets the urge, that's his sign to start breeding

It's said for a woman, that as soon as she has her first menstrual cycle, it's time for her to start breeding

These are signs from our creator, so why does so many people ignore this and punish people who go about doing it?

The LDS believe that God, Jesus, and the Holy Ghost are not one being

I don't see why more don't see that, since it's always been three that you see

The LDS teach the same doctrine on the same day worldwide

They are very organized and don't have anything to hide

They believe they are the true christians and that's why they are persecuted by every other faith, even other christian sects.

They believe you should be accountable for your actions

And that everyone one day will belong to one of the three heavenly factions

DEAR BEST FRIEND FOREVER/BFF

No matter what age I've been, you have always been there.

Sometimes you are gentle and sometimes you are not.

Everytime I've needed you, you have been there and sometimes when I did not want to see you, you were there.

We have become such good friends.

You are always willing to listen and not judge me on anything I do or say

You continue to tell me that you are ready for me to come home

I'm ready but you tell me it's not my time

We talk about all the great things we have accomplished and the ones we will accomplish

You even tell me everyday that when I come home, I will get to run the family business

I look forward to it and you will not be displeased

I promise to be the best bringer that there is Everyone that's ever died, every pet that's ever passed, everything I've ever lost, and to think you have always been there

I've brought customers to the business when I was younger

I've been slacked the last few years and you understand

I guess what I'm trying to say to you here is that I love you very much Death, you have taught me so much. XOXO

S. Griffin 2011

DEATH

Death is upon you Death is upon me
We shall all die
Utterly alone
Depressed and Fucked in the head is how we will die
But alone we will die
Maybe not now
But you will die soon

When everything is right
It will knock you back down
When everything is wrong
It just gets worse
Life means nothing
To those who don't care

Life is shitty
I don't like pity I wished it would go away
Pain and anger every day It always gets worse in every way

When I'm fine
Death takes it's toll
And we will soon all die alone

TRAPPED

You are the element of my annihilation

Your passion raises havoc with my insidious nature

Your pure fondness of me drives me mad

Your delicious, unparalleled eyes they eat me alive

I'm the slave to your very existence Without you there would be no eye-witness There's fatal darkness within my heart
You illuminate the darkest parts

I have a diabolic dilemma

I could sell my soul and live forever but my heart would surely die

With the death of that part, you die too and you knew it from the start

So what do I do, sell my soul and kill you?

Your disastrous prevention of my timely
death

Honor bounds me to serve you eternally

I don't have your permission to fade Death before Dishonor!

I am your protector, nothing will befall you

Disgrace keeps me from being a Coward and selling my soul

Make a choice my love?

Love me or allow me to fade into the void

I'm not permitted to harm you

To take your maidenhead, would be to harm
you

You refuse to let another take you and I can't allow anyone to harm you

We are trapped forever in this paradox, Why did you save me?

S. Griffin 9/25/14

POWER TRIP

It is said that everyone is born from their dark side

If that were true, there would not be so many people alive

People would run wild in the streets, with guns blazing because they have something to teach

Oh wait, that seems to happen everyday People kill people what can I say?

Other people say you are born good and that how you are raised

Will decide on if you become bad, a killing disgrace

I believe if you enjoy it, you should go and do it

Who are they to say your parents blew it?

Things that were legal and society approved fifty years ago

Will now get you locked away, for the rest of your days, why? Because we allow society that power..

S. Griffin 10/1/14

POWER STRUGGLE

I could go to a field and pick flowers, or I can grab an AK and cause a shower?

I can search for a wife and fall in-love or I can go pick up a hooker and fuck her in the bath tub?

I can stop and help you change a tire or I can stop and bash your head in with a tire iron?

I can go to college and get educated or I can sell drugs and become a thug?

I can stay positive with everything that happens or I can believe that everyone is out to fuck me over?

I can be a heroic Soldier on the front line or I can be the Coward that sell's secrets to the other side?

I can be free and go out planting tree's or I can be me and go on a killing spree?

I can change my life for the better or I can be a raging terror?

I can be a good, God-fearing, and loving man or I can be an Evil, Devil-loving, and dangerous man?

I can be the man that never comes back to prison, falls in-love, get's married, and dies happy or not?

What would you choose?

S. Griffin 10/1/14

SOUL BURNER

My soul dies a little each day

I don't know what to do or how to save it,

Short of devouring someone else's

I have not been close enough to anyone to get a willing soul

If I take an unwilling soul, then I get very little of what matters

The soul comes to me in tatters, it only satisfies my craving for a short time Then I'm back in the same bind

On the streets I could bathe in their blood and digest some too

That staves the cravings for longer with the unwilling tattered soul

A willing soul does not lose their body, but I feed off of them slowly

Our souls join as if we are one then it's really time to have some fun

We join in every way body, mind, soul, and all bodily fluids

If she breaks any of the rules, she dies I take out her eyes, I take bites of her thighs

I sacrifice her to the one and only Soul burner and for that I retain a part of her soul

That's the myth of the soul burner I was given....

S. Griffin 10/1/14

DEATH IS ALIVE

I'm living proof that death is alive Hold me close and look into my eyes I bet you don't see what you thought you saw

When you hold me close and gaze into my stare

Your mind freezes and you go somewhere When you return you will be less than what you were when you left

What is it that you think you saw?
As I gaze into his deep and penetrating stare, my mind goes blank

When I awake, I'm no longer me, and what I think I saw is confusion

I don't know what's in there, but I'll never look again

Everytime I think of my experience, fear seizes me in it's death clutch

I don't envy the next human that dares gaze into that store

I believe something in me died that day or maybe something entered me

The one with the store is not human or what's inside is not

The words pure evil, diabolical parasite, and death's love clutch come to mind

I am he who you gaze into, what have you done?

You released the thing I cannot name

Gaze into my store as if it's the first time Allow me to rebind the thing into my mind Don't fight, it's mine and you stole it from me

As you gaze into my wicked store, the trenches pulsate and open

It rushes out, back into my mind, bringing your mind with it

We are now living proof that death is alive!

S. Griffin 10/1/14

KILL?

I can choose to kill and I can kill against my will

I can will myself to even kill myself

Do I control my will or does my will control me?

If I control my will and choose to kill

How can I kill against my will?

And why would I will myself to kill myself?

If I inspire you to expire, is that me choosing to kill?

If a voice inside the outside of my mind tells me to kill, is that against my will?

If a voice outside the inside of my mind tells me to kill, is that willing myself to kill?

If I pop pills to get high but I get so high, I die

Is that me willing myself to kill myself?

S. Griffin 10/2/14

AUTHOR MANIFESTO

This book contains poems of religion, faith, and things of God, I hope it inspires.

I also have poems from the dark reaches of my mind.

Enjoy all of my works... I'm inspired by positive thinking.

I hope you really take in what it is I'm saying and that each and everyone of you treat everyone better and maybe avoid a demented, tortured soul from entering your life and taking it for something as simple as skipping them in line.
