Fate

Jayson
Willis

Darkness creeps into my heart something is taking over I'm no longer in control
The weight is off my shoulders Someone is looking through my eyes but I can't control the stare Those who thought they knew me best proceed with care Because I'm not who you thought I was I'm not who I want to be
I'm not the one who cares
and this body isn't me
Darkness creeps into my soul
Evil is taking over
I've lost all sense of control I'm feeling so much closer to a fate that's black as night
I feel the fires burning Raging out of control and all the world is learning I'm not who they thought I was
I'm not who I want to be
I'm not the one who cares
and this body isn't me
No, I'm not who you thought I was I'm not who you want to see
There's no one left who cares
Yes, I need to see you bleed It's all over come a little closer
I know you hear me
It's okay to fear me
You belong to me

Jayson
Willis

and I gave in to evil

we're no longer free

Can't think of us as people

Because we're not who we thought we were

We're not who we want to be

There's nothing left to do but feed

Apology

These chains hold me down and you still won't come around Every day I open my eyes and I try hard not to cry
It's so cold here in my mind
But I know ~~there~~ there will come a time
When I see you again

And I hope that we'll be friends
No, I can't make up for what I didn't do and I know it must hurt you
I know you feel the pain
Living with the memory every day
So as I think of you tonight
I swear I'll make it right

I know I've done some things
And the memory still remains
The thought still tortures me
And I know it's hard for you to see How I live with what I've done
But the change has just begun
And if it takes all of my years
I'll take back all your tears

No, I can't make up for what I didn't do
And I know it must hurt you
I know you feel the pain
Living with the memory every day
So as I think of you tonight
I swear I'll make it right

These chains will break one day
And I know I'll find a way
To carry on somehow

Jayson
Willis

And I'll try to make you proud Every day I'll open my eyes with new beginnings on my mind
And I'll find what I thought was lost
No matter what the cost

No, I can't make up for what I didn't do
And I know it must hurt you
I know you feel the pain
Living with the memory every day
So as I think of you tonight
I swear I'll make it right
Yes I swear, I swear it on my life
I swear I'm gonna make it right

Jayson

The end is near.
The world is gray.
You should fear the coming day
Easy as it started,
It all will end.
Nowhere to run.
no way to defend.
When it's over,
nothing will exist
No Man, woman, or child will be missed

Surrounded by darkness,
Not a light in sight
I never see day, for it's always night.
I walk for miles,
then begin to run, searching for a never rising sun

Eyes

Jayson
Willis

Just a child, alone and scared
Searching for the answers everywhere Torn from a broken home and now he's all alone

The streets have no mercy and the state doesn't care Thrown to this world, so unprepared

Confusion and misery,
no room for sympathy
look in my eyes
and see what they did to me

There is no disguise
You can't hide the enemy

Once you realize

These eyes are all you need to see

Survived the streets and now he's all grown up still searching for a way to change his luck

The path is so blurry and there's pain everywhere

When most people see him,

They just stop and they stare

Confusion and misery

No room for sympathy

look in my eyes

and see what they did to me

There is no disguise

You can't hide the enemy

Once you realize

These eyes are all you need to see

Older now, you'd think he'd lost his mind still searching for something he'll never find 7 Now here they're coming with the needle in hand

Jayson
Willis

What did he do

He doesn't understand

Confusion and misery

No room for sympathy

Look in my eyes

and see what they did to me

There is no disguise

You can't hide the enemy

Once you realize

These eyes are all you need to see

Jayson

I don't count the days anymore
It doesn't matter how long it's been I haven't felt a thing since I don't know when Memories of my past are fading fast of a life spent alone with a purpose unknown left in my cell to brood in sorrow living every day in dread of the morrow

Peace

Jayson
Willis

The quiet is shattered by gunshots
Someone just died and it won't stop
So much hate, it's contagious
Not a soul left that you can trust
It's getting worse every day
Oh how I wish there was another way
But peace is dead and it's killing me
There's nothing left but a memory
Of times when life and love was free
But peace is dead and there's nothing left but a memory
The night is brightened by flashing lights
The sirens scream, someone lost their life
There's nowhere that it hasn't reached
The world is changing as you can see
It seems there's nothing that we can do
This is how it ends for me and you Because peace is dead and it's killing me
But peace is dead and there's nothing left but a memory
* Peace is dead, nothing left but a memory
It's plain to see, love is ancient history
There's no more kindness, and nothing's fair
But the worst part is no one cares
We only see the things we need Someone else's pain, it can't hurt me
But what we fail to see is the price we pay
When the dust settles at the end of the day
And we look around and all we find
Are the empty souls love left behind

Jayson
Willis

Anything you want
I will give to you
And everyone you love
I will take from you

And when you think I'm done
I'll plant my seed in you Clouding all your thoughts
Corrupting all you do

I live just for the moment
When you realize the truth
I will make you want it
No matter what you do

You can't control desire
It's a war you're born to lose

Please

Jayson
willis

I was feeling sorry for myself lost in my own hell

I thought of all the times I lied and all the tears you cried still I didn't change my life or even try to make it right.

I've got my finger on the trigger the barrel in my mouth Traped in this life

it's the only way out can't pull it off.

just don't have the will open up the bottle swallow all the pills

Three days later

wake up on the floor Tried and failed again

just can't take it anymore

Somebody please . . . . Kill me

Set my mind free . . . . Kill me

Don't deserve to live

But I just can't seem to die

I suffer every day

Please help me end my life

standing on the edge

I'm looking like a fool

I tell my legs to jump

But they just won't fucking move

Everywhere I look

12 People dying every day

But every time I try

Jayson
Wallis

There's something in my way what's it gonna take to take away the pain can't take it anymore it's driving me insane
Somebody please ..... Kill me
Set my mind free ..... Kill me
I don't deserve to live
But I just can't seem to die
I suffer every day

Kill me Kill me Kill me now Kill me Kill me ~~kill me~~ I don't care how Kill me Kill me Kill me please Kill me Kill me I'm on my knees
Somebody Please fucking Kill me

Jayson
Willis

This disguise is my deception
You hide your eyes from my erection
Let me make one last suggestion Death appointed by election.

Winter's over but the chill remains
The torture chamber is just death delayed Once you enter, in my grasp you'll stay Forever acting out my morbid play

Don't you ever wonder what could be?
Don't you ever even think of me?
I've been watching you.
But you avoid my eyes.
I've been waiting too.
Now has come the time.

Your pain is my sedation
Relief from masturbation
Blood flows as lubrication
True love is fornication

It's almost over, but the pain remains
Now you know the torment that fills all my days Felt so good to enter, in your blood I bathe Forever longing to relive this day

Junkie

Jayson
Willis

Woke up in the street again, one thing on my mind
I can't fill this need again, stronger all the time
Pain consumes me, only one thing soothes me First hit will set me free

my hands are shaking, my eyes are shaking and I'm too blind to see

I gave up everything and I know I'm to blame still I can't see, a way to change me

from what I've become, the damage has been done Wandering the streets again, they say I've lost my mind cocaine is my only friend, she takes all my time my family forgotten, dreams they are lost my sanity's the cost

my hands are shaking, my eyes are shaking I'm still too blind to see

I gave up everything, and I know I'm to blame
still I can't see a way to change me

from what I've become, the damage has been done Woke up behind bars again, like so many times Guess I went too far again, now all I got is time my memories haunt me, and nothing helps me so many years until I'm free my hands are shaking, my eyes are hazy I guess I'll never see

I gave up everything, and I know I'm to blame
still I can't see a way to change me

from what I've become, The damage has been done

Jayson
Willis

Inside my head
There's a world I can't escape Hope is dead and I know it's too late Eyes are blind
To any ray of light
Left behind
All will to win the fight
I missed the signs
When I crossed that line
And I know that now
It's just a matter of time
The road up ahead is dark and dreary
My body's weak
And my mind is weary
I have no fear
Yet I have no faith
No beliefs, No God

First And Last Love

Jayson
Willis

Never thought I'd say this
But you might be the one Made me realize
Everybody needs someone Wonder what you'd do
If I got you alone
Would you let me get inside
Would your chains come undone
Really don't mind
If you take all my time
Even when I'm sober Got me feeling like I'm high Never thought I'd need noone
Now I'm having my doubts
Yeah, I really think I like you
And I'll shout it out loud
What..... Did..... You do to me
How..... Did..... You get to me
You've..... made..... A mess of me
Now I got you
And you take all my time Never get a moment to myself to get high I'm sick and fucking tired
Of hearing you complain
Allways up my ass
Gonna drive me insane
How could I ever think that you were the one
Don't know what the fuck
17 Made me think I was in love

Jayson
willis

Scream

What ..... Did ..... You do to me
How ..... Did ..... You get to me
You've ..... Made ..... A mess of me
Now you're gone
And I'm empty inside
Feeling so low
Think I'll curl up and die
Try to get high
But it's just not the same
Too deep inside
There's no relief for this pain
Nothing left to do
Guess I'll be on my way
One more time
For the needle and my vein

Jayson
Wallis

I've been through afflictions, addictions depression and obsession

And I've picked myself up off the floor

I've spent time going over the past

Time that's been wasted

And I'm not going back anymore

Do you see me

Looking out at the world and its misery

Looking out

Through this glass that imprisons me

I'm a prisoner of time

And it's killing me

Will I live?

Will I die?

Are you listening?

Shadow of a grave

Jayson
Wilks

As I watch the moonlight caress your face
In the shadow of a grave you laid to wait
And as the tears slip down your cheeks
I know it's for me you weep
What happened to the life we used to know
The tragedy, it never ends
Fooled and cheated, we've lost again
We lived for each other
What's one without the other

As I see the moonlight caress the blade
In the shadow of my grave you laid to wait
And as the blood drips to the leaves
I know it's for me you bleed
What happened to the life we used to know
The tragedy, it never ends
Fooled and cheated, we've lost again
We lived for each other
What's one without the other
Now we'll be together
This time forever

Jayson
willis

As this day begins
Somewhere another day ends
And as I open my eyes
Somewhere another man dies

For every broken heart
There's a heart filled with glee
And for every man imprisoned
Another man is set free

Jayson
Willis

You can seek and search,
For all your life,
For that certain path,
That you're sure is right.
But whatever you find,
You're bound to lose.
An eternal struggle.
A quest for truth.
Tormented souls
And haunted screams.
Twisted thoughts
And tortured dreams.
Eyes closed tight,
But still you see.
Your Fate awaits,
Just accept what's to be

Jayson
Walks

Chains hanging from the ceiling
Blood dripping to the floor
Imagine what they're feeling Imagine what's in store
Tortured screams
They fill the night
As pain consumes
The weaker minds
In all their glory
The atrocities of old
Are relived in such Terror
As this nightmare unfolds
