

THE NOWHERE man...

A Novel by:
R Dean. Morris

About the author.

My name is Richard Dean Morris, I am a 51 year old Lifer, currently doing time in the California prison system. At this writing, I am housed at the California Mens Colony in San Luis Obispo.

I have been in prison since 1985 on a first degree murder conviction. My hope is that one day they will allow me to go back to my family and life who's worth I now understand.

I have written the drafts for more than twenty novels and hundreds of poems during my time inside. My focus now, after my faith, is to see these works put into print.

Should any one out there decide they would like to write; my address is: Richard Morris D-12417 2203 C.M.C. State Prison, Box 8101, San Luis Obispo Calif. 93409-8101.
