"Fresh Awakening"

Our Love has now for show been established in us a Fresh Awakening From such a marvelous Night before Now precious to us more Which has descended from heaven above For us earth bound dove of spiritual rapture into the great beyond our soul chests a prize For our mortal love confess here in life a covenant made so right and generous which excels our physical flight Where pleasure burns bright thoughts our souls seem blissful broad Night though passion shines as light that the new morning came by night as fresh rain dew a light up on fresh cut grass before the sun's light or you and I begin to rise For the new day has come and now arrive even though we just open our eyes!

"Meaning Rise"

ascending from our soul spiritual depth with love awesome help as we the night before mindlessly fell no doubt into ourselves our mortal heart has explain every detail as I stand and aware that this place can't be found nowhere else here now on earth my dear as I have search from here all over this sphere but it seem at times to appear only when I can't lie when you're near and we're here sharing tears after our moment of bliss my dear we endure in pleasure or pain our heart welcome passion for us to feel so know rapture was a package deal where we didn't have to wear a mask or deal it was made completely from will that has survive this long and live still no physical or spiritual force can kill!

"Salem's Gem"

was it not just yesterday we whispere our Salem's Gem together so to established our love forever after then what do we have now gather out this our heart new day for wonder was desirable in the depth of pleasure not of a spoken fantasy not here ever Nothing perisese burn in fire cuz our spiritual flame are pur by desire gaining so much passion here though it does inflame our inside and never die causing much tears to fall from our eyes no doubt cherish weeping of earth bound lives we longedly behold our own delight as our essence spread their dove wings in flight soaring up on high then down into a dive with the love majestic wind pushing just right wondering why our joyful heart cry It's not something given to earth mortal to deny Not Salem's Gem of fire!

"Heaven Lane"

how marvelous how time have change showing the best turned like something out of a fantasy game assembles without decay still pleasant form of ancient days such sacrifice indeed are paid for the true journey love has made dying once for all to be avied Rising from death wholly dark eyes growing without a doubt love can be eyes Why every soul should now now stop praise for the passage of love does save and true heart determine of each day What give substance to our faith each close time moment we chose to pray toward the east up heavens away is our truest harvest due and pay Which shall remain the same till Christ come again in flame HE who lives and died we claim!

"From the Ashes"

What is this I see in your eyes my wife, Like something that can fly more like curious birds trying to rise with spiritual feathers full of fire.
With majestic wings of desire on divine a beautiful form no one can deny What must be that causing our heart to cry if such need our temple might die.
When I look upon close my eyes no loss my life not with such as you by my side. that I have loved and thought time my refusal is not to know like but a heart plea for a longer peaceful life.
I do feel I have the know right to stand and question if not put up a fight if hell my own physical plight into such heart felt pleasures of delight so please let me know in flight here now on earth alive with my birds, yes my life and death wife!

"The Birth of Love" yes there was here between us girl wonder chased so together our passion burns so under heaven bliss lift our inner burden to give room more to our own garden so to our desire not forbidden then our heart was fill with pleasure our hidden child like treasures smitten overwhelm and truly touch as is listed for our own eyes to see manifested for our knees tomorrow shall genuflect to such is precious to behold. I admit more so our identified forever in you miss multitude of rich love in our midst satisfied sacrifice of pure righteousness beyond all unsearchable happiness what does produce inner soulful bliss the greatest riches made rich between two mortal beings that exist The Birth of Love that made this!

"Granted Pardon"

Can our beating heart both be blinded in desire toward each other by fire that we soul pledge in rapture our spirit plundered in pleasure given us success in passion representing love wilderness back into a blissful garden we saw now share as lovers in our own bed like Eden by conscious across wandering eagerly seeking delirious into our given punishment of burning inner flame intent that was sign as a covenant from our love first beginning we such was design to hiss not ever meant as punishment but was establish I admit as our whole life pleasure!

"Love Amistice"

What can such as this truly be honestly is not Love Amistice given from heaven above to you and me which has descended as I see for all of us earth born human beings who've display up as a tree righteous holy love precious beyond belief the lamb of God in place of thee by christ majesty blood we was set free by the power of Love Amistice even though yet slave and enemy's why we were God so gave his life, all rightfully for what and how he live toward us nobility taking on affliction which was rightfully a sacrifice you beyond our own understanding as he trusted hell and death resisting ascending from here to where he left as King now as the world exults who rule a person as each mortal knees shall bend to his reign who was our greatest Love Amistice!

"Joy of Love"

can we claim to be glad our new fantasy of wonder which gives birth in pleasure to joy in love in our soul together something unheard of before though we dare edges more and more up on each new day for show as if just new under our new shoes looking out over the sea floor to see the pebbly gates before heaven's door though all things are spiritual for those of us mere earth mortals who think but don't really know how to actually spread wings to soar from this lower bound level like some do seek here like eagles up to height where wind flows and passion no doubt does grow enormously down in raptures show how much love can provoke's growth!

"The Lay of Passion" did not my heart and soul both here your spirit essence, force from across this physical, solid sphere that now connected us my dear though your inner ray has reach my eye Why in my way could I see I bring with me love that caused cheer something you shall hold dear a useful fire that burn with it now will like rubies hotter than steel as you beloved knight I defend to kill my sword at se degree here both of them I shall slay with my spear now ship until the last of my years cuz nothing alive will stop me getting by your dear this is my blood life, zeal concerning you you here when I do appear out on this battle field to make sure our passion is real tumpet you my my dear!

"Established in truth"

Let these words of mine touch and fill you as I stand now speaking them too For such come from my heart and soul now too Not of deceit my lip shall produce Let both my breath and voice be as Rain dew and your essence as a tree of fruit For this to be shall established our due When love harvest come in multitude We together no doubt both gather by two as is right as most love do too So let show the Rightful, Righteous attitude For all our heart here pursue that issue most substance precious for you as my word are living water in truth Which your whole being drink as love juice While your spirit bath in a pool just made and created as a beloved part for which we gather as soul food here now and hope to rise and glory too as our love Established in truth!

"Space Us Not"

What do we both seek to gain in heart if we're not willing to receive For all has been given us here down beneath under all of heaven in this life. so unrec'd and unsearchable on earth to receive held ^{spiritually} captures in fire needful affections which flow from love sec. willing our lungs to inhale desire as we both stand holding hand as eagles perch to share pleasure alone now together for the first time seeing our chains of peace we gather like eggs plundered no longer to be link as beloved feasts excellent delicacies we devour as both our heart and passion increase as heaven rain fall down like shower so open the door of silence ocean breeze where our essence is every hour there it does prosper the more indeed Space Us Not for other eyes!

"Soulful Depth"

there a road just up you'd see my dear I would like for us you see to travel slowly over gem in gem you here I was told there would be indeed so don't try to picture such in your mind dear just take my hand and let us be so such can surprise our heart even more to there while we stand beneath loss though this place and road are forbidden my dear as if the lost garden of Eden which has been here all these long years now very first home given we both have found now does exist for real that has our soul was smitten where our heart both have given to joyful tears no longer held and hidden though we share much to keep our face embracing pleasure like a kitten for tomorrow a new day dawn shall appear as such is our Soulful Depth commission!

"Heart Essence"

is not our intent the substance girl here in our shade love we both daily seem to now skip divine cuz how we so now hunger for that pleasant taste that aint sour but is held in awful flavor so good it beyond spiritual plunder each moment and time together we descend no doubt down under as each other redemptee though we can desire to physically together in essence to reach heaven for what was denied to us as lover was unsearchable but now disclose here on earth between us believer's we give to ourselves in pleasure as our mortal heart harvest captures the like passion wish it was so is your whole being a believer girl as our Heart Essence. Eupht!

"Couch Beyond"

about this where we would be in love Couch Beyond all desires and though tension held between delight and affliction in the heart of unsearchable pleasure but for appearance let not be silence either as if groping without sight in the dark such should not be redemption as sure thought let such perish concerning ourselves While here trying to gain possession enough to enter paradise gets I suppose it's daily struggle loving you my dear Couch Beyond my joy and tears for all I allow myself to suffer for you here though both good and bad years but most of all how are heart do cheer cuz there's nothing like it you hear that caused our soul and spirit to come near in the heaven essence dance appear Not yesterday or tomorrow either my dear but right now in blissful tears!

"Silent Whisper"

What else is there our voice can be heard over many waters on earth that can travel both far and near spoken lightly but heard wide awake or deep in sleep my dear beside Silent Whisper curses What caused most nightmare for fear like the grim Reaper horse is both desecrated and frightened over its course a dark wise attraction of evil so even when and under deep personal fears much approach and contribution does assemble without tears a better base in our heart dwelling so long sift beyond belief and depress all year When envy live and trash oppresses by our own mind you hear my dear lost of many happy days pleasant thought no longer come near When Silent Whisper we fear!

"Trust Alone"

Trust Alone, here in this life, which seem wrong, but is right.
Trust Alone, under heaven light as our inner spirit takes flight.
Trust Alone, though we doubt like, cuz our day we shall surely die.
Trust Alone, though burning fire, the true price set for our lives.
Trust Alone, not above our devices why we weep as with wet eyes.
Trust Alone, since the beginning of time, so many of us has perish, why Trust Alone, against viper poison bite, our mortal heel he seem to strike.
Trust Alone, groping as without sight, feernes cur't our soul outside.
Trust Alone, avices and held in fight, but somehow over come with Christ.
Trust Alone, by unsearchable design, made from the Most High might!

"No Other"

there No Other, to consider you here not while you're still here there No Other, I shall desire my dear not even in my last years there No Other, who can caused my heart chose or make my flesh feel there No Other, I want more you here than you in pleasures for real there No Other, as close as spiritually as you dare with such passion make face there No Other, model woman around here who was made for me here there No Other, heavenly angel to oppose since you have been here there No Other, flame which flare like you dare why my eyes shed tears there No Other, each brand fire I face anyhow close or even need there No Other, sought after requires like here that I get to share with you dare!

"Boon For"

Boon For,
bliss and kiss flight and delight plenty and poverty? as you breathe!

Boon For,
love and love not praise and envy grace and pity? though you give!

Boon For,
association and separation talk and silence action and task and skill? feeling the breeze!

Boon For,
pleasure and research sacrifice and humility calamity and peace? held in between!

Boon For,
abandonment and stripes burden and mortal plight bravies and despice? why you weed!

"Kachee Indeed"

you see what is or should be love that is tailored by you girl for every male beating heart goes after literally ascending higher demonstrating their need and want to come you small occasions share together even most have late in the day as share welding one man's soul my sister as to redeem the other as also myself after you two heart moment in time which come out of pleasure being desire flame that burn soul deep in us What went beyond and bought capture something precious to behold and gather around honest time like asper does girl so is loving you woman I suffer Not by violence ever but through words as you're desirable enough to die for even in the midst of love chestnut girl you are Kachee indeed my redeemer!

second up on second we shared by the hour glass into every minute our passion has last as the sec. shoe earl slowly down down pass falling as breeze into the glass bottom metal case how it seem loving you up on a birds cedar desk with the open breeze blowing down on our naked back entirely at peace and ease desires with wings we catch while pleasure been hot inside our love cover nest traveling spiritual water never once cross in our past

"One Heart Ask"

One Heart Ask,

Why was there affliction and dece to our mortal soul could feel that caused our eyes such tears

One Heart Ask,

Why was there so much physical chere that our bodies both reveal while back a few years my dece

One Heart Ask,

Why was there a solemn pledge made here establishing love without dece causing blissful pleasures to agree

One Heart Ask,

Why was there desire to agree here for a fruitful covenant deal between the two which still stand still

One Heart Ask,

Why was there Fleming's ropes so red what became our love filled spiritually we was capture by love sed!
