SENDING YOU A FRENCH KISS

O' pleasant for the eyes to behold woman.

Last night I kissed thee

Savior the memories of this dynasty.

Where the effection I release carries you- you must go

The kiss obviously was more than you could resist.

(YOUR EYES RADIATED BLISS)

Spread out your wings stop fighting the electricity of the kiss thats causing you to sing.

Like a swawns breast quivering for her soulmate

Ifrenched kissed thee!

As! the kiss runs swiftly through your body, the sweetness,
majesty, and glory devine.

I SAW YOU IN A RED DRESS

VICKIE M. STRINGER

(poetry to a diva)

Where the sea departs.

At even tide!

(YOU! were standing next to me)

underneath your red dress

I! could vaguely see your breasts.

covered in clusters of african roses!

O' how glorious was your feet!

Through the radiance of the sun.

I was gasping in the heat.

You're! a lily with swan breasts!

and decked with coral feet!

Where the current elevated you

over the tides,

I saw you slowly, you slowly,
drifting away from me.

(beneath your attire you wore faultless nothing!!)

Quivering in grapes clustered like

Sculptured flesh.

(In me you have an admiral).

sentence Petitioner to November 7, 1997, life without parole under 17-25-45(H) without serving Petitioner to mandatory notice that the state was seeking to sentence Petitioner at sentencing phase to life without parole in violation of the 6th amendment. The constitution guarantees more than just a warm body to be present as counsel during critical proceedings and stages where the records reflects both attorney Todd Tucker and John Bell knew during sentencing that they had not complied with the (notice) in writing to Petitioner. Thus, Petitioner qualifies also for grave 6th amendment violations, where sentencing phase as well as counsel allowed judge to sentence him to natural life under 16-11-311, while knowing that the indictment and November 7, 1997 trial which charges to the jury was for one (1) first degree burglary not two or three (3).

Petitioner cannot constitutionally be serving natural life for one (1) first degree burglary as charged to jurist and as sentence was announce at sentencing phase, and then arbitrary also be sentenced under 17-25-45(H) as a habitual offender. To life without the possibility of parole, as evidence by the record and court documents Petitioner obtained eight (8) years after November 7, 1997 trial. This is an unreasonable application of clearly established law as enacted by U.S. Supreme Court 28 U.S.C. 2241 incorporated with Rule 35 as amended under Rule 6, is the exclusive remedy for illegal sentencing.

THIRDLY

Motion then to call up the records as argued in Petitioner's 2241 incorporated with Rules 35 and 6 (FRCP) then became a must. Petitioner would object to report, this was highly prejudicial.

FOURTH

Rule 35 correcting or reducing November 7, 1997 sentence, unlike the statutory provisions on habeas corpus, 28 U.S.C. 2241-2254 specifically provides that a motion for such relief may be made of [anything]. See 353 U.S. at 420. In above case this motion was filed 15 years later.
